'ROUND THE REGION with Sharon

By Sharon Harris-Zlotnick

Hello Atlantic County:

Happy New Year. I wish you all a terrific 2019. I know...food is the last thing you may want to hear about.

ANOTHER GOOD RESTAURANT CHOICE

Last week, having dinner out on Christmas Day proved tough. So many places were closed, but after either a movie or visiting people, many people still wanted to conclude their day with a restaurant meal.

Norman and I met our friends Sue and Billy at the Chelsea Five Gastro Pub on the Chelsea Hotel's fifth floor in Atlantic City. The adjacent Tropicana now owns the boutique property.

Although this location has been many things over the years, from a high-end steakhouse to its current pub operation, the beautiful room and view have remained. The bi-level dining room and full bar overlook the Boardwalk, beach and ocean, which is special during daylight hours.

The menu includes steaks, seafood, veal and other standard entree items, but I suggest the reason to come is the burgers, sandwiches and appetizers. I'm not a fan, but the unusual $11 Crispy Brussel Sprouts plate is extremely popular. How about Lobster Cheesecake ($15), Yellowfin Tuna Tacos ($16), Lobster and Crab Roll ($22) or a Short Rib Grilled Cheese sandwich ($14) among your many choices?

Sue loved her $15 Turkey Burger with fresh mozzarella. I preferred the $15 Chelsea Burger with a sweet bourbon glaze. Billy had a special jumbo shrimp cocktail appetizer.

The Gastro Pub's winter hours are 4 p.m.-9 p.m., Thursday; 4 p.m.-10 p.m., Friday and Saturday. It will be closed from Sunday, January 20 through Wednesday, January 30. <https://tropicana.net/dining/casual-dining/chelsea-five-gastropub/>

SUPPORT A WORTHY CAUSE

Not all charitable opportunities require financial contributions. Instead, why not give of your time for good causes this year?

If volunteering is rewarding for you, consider Seashore Gardens Living Center (seashoregardens.org) in Galloway. This dignified home assists our older family members and neighbors needing some help and medical attention. SGLC offers assisted living, nursing and Alzheimer's services.

There are numerous activities and opportunities to volunteer that would suit someone's individual preferences. Check out the website. I've been on the Board of Directors for 15 years and see firsthand the quality of the care.

At more than 100 years old, they have it exactly right. So does the community...Seashore Gardens has once again won the "Best of the Press" award for 2018.

MORE TO ENTERTAIN YOU

I am a big old movie and live theater fan. Getting to New York can be an expensive hassle and Philadelphia often features the same shows. So, Norman and I are always seeking new live entertainment options whenever possible.

Last year I reported on seasonal theaters up and down our regional coastline. I've also written several times about Hammonton's Eagle Theatre and the Landis Theater in Vineland.

One often unpublicized venue is Millville's 700-seat Levoy Theatre. The original smaller building opened 111 years ago this week in 1908 and ran silent movies for 5¢ a ticket/six for 25¢.

Decades of ownership changes, fire and disrepair finally brought the end when the Levoy permanently closed in December 1974. A planned demolition never happened due to ongoing financial, legal and logistical problems.

Lucky for the public, an enthusiastic, determined group preserved the property. They established the non-profit Levoy Theatre Preservation Society (LTPS), buying the site in 1998.

The LTPS had a similar mission as those looking to save Lucy the Elephant years ago in Margate. The fundraising began and suffered some setbacks. In April 2010, the multimillion-dollar financial package combined tax credits, private and public funds.

Restoration soon began, but another series of obstacles-including a partial building collapse- delayed renovations. Finally completed in August 2012, the Levoy's facade and marquee replicates its original late 1920s appearance. Other period decor includes the interior design.

The inaugural show in September 2012 featured music underscoring Charlie Chaplin and Buster Keaton silent movies, consistent with the early 20th century building.

Today, the Levoy is in full-swing and offers a year-round variety of live musical performances, theater and movies. I received their promotional information, with numerous items of interest.

Entries include Chazz Palminteri's poignant "A Bronx Tale" on January 25, the Carpenters Tribute band called "Top of the World" on February 1 (I have tickets for that) and local comedienne/former Miss New Jersey Dena Blizzard's Off-Broadway show called "One Funny Mother" on April 6. This is just a sampling of many diverse booked events.

The Levoy's Discover 2019 Broadway Season showcases The Off Broad Street Players (OBSP) acting ensemble. This six-show series starts next month with "Into the Woods" and ends with "Mary Poppins" in November. "Mamma Mia!", "James and the Giant Peach", "To Kill a Mockingbird" and "Driving Miss Daisy" are the remaining four. Some shows have only one-weekend runs; others are seven to 10-day time slots.

Through February 17, special subscription prices are $99 for five shows or $111 for six shows. What an amazing bargain if you like the choices. For more information, call 856-327-6400 or visit www.LEVOY.net.

HOROSCOPE

JANUARY 2 - JANUARY 8, 2019

ARIES • (Mar. 21 - April 20)

Your creative ability will surface, giving you good ideas for ways of making money. Don't blow situations out of proportion or you could find that others will misinterpret what really happened. You can make professional decisions this week that will affect your position. Do not lend money or belongings to friends.

TAURUS • (Apr. 21 - May 21)

Take time to visit someone who has been confined due to illness. Spend some time on yourself. Someone you work with may be emotional. Exhaustion combined with overindulgence could result in minor health problems.

GEMINI • (May 22 - June 21)

Focus your efforts on details, and keep to yourself in order to finish your work. Help children with important projects. You could lose money or precious belongings if you aren't careful. You can learn from those who have had similar experiences.

CANCER • (June 22 - July 22)

You may have more people on your domestic scene than anticipated. This week will be hectic. You will be in a high cycle regarding work. You can beautify your surroundings by renovating or redecorating.

LEO • (July 23 - Aug 22)

You are best to avoid confrontations. Try spending the day catching up on any responsibilities that need to be taken care of. You might have a problem hanging on to your money this week. This is not the day to be extravagant.

VIRGO • (Aug. 23 - Sept. 23)

Be sure to take advantage of the opportunities that exist. You will have no problem getting your point across to those in a position to help you. You may find that someone you live with is not too happy, but you can't really do anything about that right now. Friends from your past may come back into your life.

LIBRA • (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)

You will find your personal partner taxing this week. A better diet, exercise, or a change to a relaxed atmosphere could be ways to soothe your nerves. You could be drawn to events that concern children. You can change your living arrangements.

SCORPIO • (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)

Love can be yours if you get out and about. Your ability to ferret out secret information will lead you to an inside scoop on an amazing financial deal. Keep the promises you've made or you can expect to be in the doghouse. Sudden trips will take you by surprise.

SAGITTARIUS • (Nov. 23 - Dec. 21)

Get involved in fitness programs that will bring you in contact with new friends. Try to visit a country that excites you. Your leadership ability will enhance your reputation. Don't let your boss make you feel guilty enough to take work home with you.

CAPRICORN • (Dec 22 - Jan. 20)

Partnerships will be successful. You can find out interesting information if you get a chance to talk to people you respect. Concentrate on work and on making money. Put your efforts into making constructive improvements to your environment and to your state of mind.

AQUARIUS • (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)

Don't make any rash decisions that may affect friendships. You need to clear up some important personal documents before the end of the year. Close deals that have been up in the air and move on to new ones that appear to be profitable. Romantic opportunities will flourish through travel or communication.

PISCES • (Feb. 20 - Mar. 20)

Travel opportunities should be your first choice. Your self esteem will come back if you take part in organizational functions that allow you to be in the lime light. Too much talk will lead to disputes. You will be inclined to make unwise investment choices.

NEW Four SHOWS to watch on ABC!

Schooled
Premieres: Jan. 9
at 8:30 p.m.

Set at William Penn Academy in the 1990s, this spinoff of "The Goldbergs" revolves around members of the school staff including such familiar faces as Principal Glascott (Tim Meadows), Coach Mellor (Bryan Callen) and Barry Goldberg's old flame Lainey Lewis (AJ Michalka), the new music teacher. Brett Dier co-stars as Charlie Brown, aka "CB," a gung-ho super-teacher who is both a friend and professional rival to Lainey.

The Fix
Premiere TBA

Former O.J. Simpson prosecutor Marcia Clark co-created this new legal drama revolving around former (fictional) L.A. district attorney Maya Travis (Robin Tunney), who suffered a mortifying courtroom defeat eight years ago prosecuting a movie superstar for murder. She gets a shot at redemption when the same actor comes under suspicion for killing someone else. Adewale Akinnuoye-Agbaje, Adam Rayner, Breckin Meyer, Scott Cchen and Marc Blucas co-star.

Grand Hotel
Premiere TBA

Eva Longoria is an executive producer of this glossy new drama set inside the last family hotel in Miami Beach, where wealthy proprietor Santiago Mendoza (Demián Bichir), his dazzling wife Gigi (Roselyn Sanchez, "Devious Maids") and their children mingle with the posh guests. Meanwhile, the loyal staff is rolling with working-class matters such as debt, scandals and several explosive secrets. Denyse Tontz, Bryan Craig and Wendy Raquel Robinson also star.

Whiskey Cavalier
Premiere TBA

Fan favorites Scott Foley ("Scandal") and Lauren Cohan ("The Walking Dead") team up in this promising action-driven dramedy as FBI super-agent Will Chase – whose codename gives this series its title – who is assigned to work with tough-as-nails CIA operative Francesca "Frankie" Trowbridge (Cohan). Together they lead a staff of gifted yet distinctly flawed spies who keep blurring personal and professional boundaries. Ana Ortiz and Tyler James Williams co-star.

12/31 - Tropicana - WAR: War is an American funk band from Long Beach, California, known for several hit songs (including “Spill the Wine”, “The World Is a Ghetto”, “The Cisco Kid”, “Why Can’t We Be Friends?”, “Low Rider”, and “Summer”). Formed in 1969, War is a musical crossover band which fuses elements of rock, funk, jazz, Latin, rhythm and blues, and reggae. Their album The World Is a Ghetto was the best-selling album of 1973. The band transcended racial and cultural barriers with a multi-ethnic line-up. War was subject to many line-up changes over the course of its formation, leaving member Leroy “Lonnie” Jordan as the only original member in the current line-up; four other members created a new group called the Lowrider Band.

1/4 - Borgata - One Night in Memphis: Get ready for a night of rockabilly, country, gospel and pure 1950’s rock and roll with “One Night in Memphis” - a high energy concert that takes you back to December 4, 1956, the night when four of the biggest names in early rock and roll -- Elvis Presley, Carl Perkins, Jerry Lee Lewis and Johnny Cash – gathered together for an impromptu jam session at the legendary Sun Studios in Memphis. Be a witness to and experience rock and roll royalty with the music and talent that has stood the test of time. This show is guaranteed to get you rocking and rolling. See One Night in Memphis live at the Music Box at Borgata on Friday, January 4, 2019!

11/19 - Harrah’s - Bill Engvall: Grammy nominated, multi-platinum selling comedian, Bill Engvall is coming to The Concert Venue for two shows on Saturday, January 19! Known for his Southern drawl, perfect timing and hilarious commentary on the challenges of daily life, fans can expect plenty of laugh-out-loud moments all night long.

1/19 - Hard Rock - Alabama: Alabama is an American country and Southern rock band formed in Fort Payne, Alabama, in 1969. Alabama’s biggest success came in the 1980s, where the band had over 27 number one hits, seven multi-platinum albums and received numerous awards. Alabama’s first single on RCA Records, “Tennessee River”, began a streak of 21 number one singles, including “Love in the First Degree” (1981), “Mountain Music” (1982), “Dixieland Delight” (1983), “If You’re Gonna Play in Texas (You Gotta Have a Fiddle in the Band)” (1984) and “Song of the South” (1988). The band’s popularity waned slightly in the 1990s although they continued to produce hit singles and multi-platinum album sales. The band’s blend of traditional country music and Southern rock combined with elements of gospel, and pop music gave it a crossover appeal that helped lead to their success. They also toured extensively and incorporated production elements such as lighting and “sets” inspired by rock concerts into their shows. The band has over 30 number one country records on the Billboard charts to their credit and have sold over 75 million records, making them the most successful band in country music history.

1/19 - Resorts - Temptations Review: As former lead singer of the ‘Rock-n-Roll Hall of Fame’ inductees, ‘The Impressions’, and with a reputation for having one of the most powerful voices in the R&B market, Nate Evans was specially selected by original Temptation’s lead singers Eddie Kendricks, David Ruffin and Dennis Edwards to join the group. Following the passing of David Ruffin and Eddie Kendricks and with the retirement of Dennis Edwards... Nate Evans now leads the group with his soulful voice in this spectacular tribute performance. Much more than a tribute to the late ‘Temptations’... this show is a musical extravaganza dedicated to one of the greatest Motown acts of all time and filled with songs from their library, therefore the moves and arrangements performed by this group are a replica of the original ‘Temptations’ show. ‘Ride Back to the Day’ when one of the most iconic groups ever to hit the stage played to sell-out audiences and dazzled crowds worldwide. Today Nate Evans along with Vernon Taylor, Isaac Wooten, Ollie Boldts and Andre Shepherd are keeping the grounds of the ‘Temptations’ alive and well!

3. How to Choose the Right Body Shop
As a vehicle owner, your chances of needing the services of a collision repair are greater than you think. Whether from storm damage, rust and corrosion, acid rain and harsh sunlight, or an accident, the risks are real. Many times when people are involved in an accident they think "the insurance company will take care of it for me." In fact, it is your responsibility to choose who will do the repairs for you. This is not a choice that should be taken lightly, as it can involve protecting a major investment.

I. Preliminaries: • Ask for recommendations. Even in this high-tech era, old-fashioned word-of-mouth is still valuable. • Check with your local consumer organization regarding the reputation of the facility in question. Ask about the number of complaints and how the complaints were resolved.

II. At the Shop: • Ask if the shop handles your vehicle make and model and how long they have been in business. • Look for a neat, well-organized facility with modern equipment. • Professional establishments will have a courteous, helpful staff willing to answer all of your questions. • Seek signs of good customer service: civic and community service awards, Better Business Bureau membership, etc. • Look for signs that the staff is technically competent, such as trade school diplomas and certificates of advanced course work training • All policies, guarantees, and methods of payment should be posted or explained to your satisfaction.

The backbone of any shop is the competence of its technicians.

LOUIE

Louie is a sweet, senior Boxer mix who deserves a chance at a quiet, loving home outside of the shelter. He doesn't ask for much.. just a warm, soft bed to lay on and someone that will love him for the rest of his life. Louie has lived with dogs in the past and doesn't seem to even notice the cats at the shelter. HOT, COLD, AND NEUTRAL PROTEIN SOURCES FOR PETS

Submitted By Patsy Nelson
from The Wagging Tail

A recent interaction with a customer who forgot to bring her dog's food to the store with her gave me a "new search" for helpful information. We did not have the food she wanted so we asked her what protein source she was using. It was a cold protein, so we suggested she try duck which is also a cold protein and start with small portions. I reminded her that our foods were 100% guaranteed, that the dog would like the food and do well on it, or we would refund her purchase and/or try something else. I realized afterward that I was not as informed on all hot and cold or neutral proteins.

According to data and an article on the subject by Marybeth Bittel, it is very important to consider your dog's (and cat's) needs when choosing the main protein in your pet's food. If a dog has an excess of "cold" the dog may appear weak and sluggish. An excess of "hot" can cause irritability, dehydration, SKIN IRRITATION, along with possible digestive issues. A dog who is "hot" will feel warm when you pet it, may breathe heavily when at rest, drink more water, have dry skin, and may cough more than normal. They usually seek out cool areas to lie, like on tile floors. The skin and eyes may appear red or irritated. These dogs may seem overly reactive, and restless. And can be plagued by allergies. A "cool" dog will feel cold to the touch, especially the inside of the ears, it's back and limbs. And may show signs of "general fatigue, weakness, shortness of breath, exercise intolerance, and/or sluggishness." They will seek out warm places like near a fireplace. According to TCM, they may show signs of incontinence, joint pain which worsens in cold damp weather, or show signs of stiffness after resting.

It makes sense that feeding a dog that is already hot, like Daisy who has Cushing's Syndrome, and is always lying on my bathroom or office tile floors, is only exacerbating her discomfort. And I just bought another bag of Primal frozen lamb. Lamb is considered one of the hottest proteins! She won't get anymore. Instead, I will feed her a cold protein like duck. There is some dispute about which protein sources are considered neutral, but no dispute on hot and cold.

Warm or hot proteins are lamb, venison, chicken and chicken liver, pheasant, and ham along with non-meat foods such as sweet potatoes, squash, and oats. Cool foods are duck, rabbit, apples, bananas and spinach, egg, broccoli, cucumber, strawberries, brown rice, fish oil, honey and barley. Some consider turkey to be cool, others neutral, others hot. Surprisingly beef and beef liver are considered neutral. But not all dogs can handle beef. Other neutral proteins, which can be used in conjunction with hot or cold proteins to dilute the intensity of feeding a limited diet, are goose, pork, pork liver, pork kidneys, pork feet, quail, tripe, most fish, and bison. Bison sometimes, like beef, finds an intolerance in certain dogs.

I hope this will help you to evaluate your dog's dietary needs. I know that it was very enlightening to me, especially concerning my Daisy.
