HOROSCOPE

JANUARY 19 - JANUARY 25, 2023

ARIES (Mar. 21 - April 20)

Don't let your emotional partner upset you this week. Money may slip through your fingers. Get involved in fitness programs that will bring you in contact with new friends. Health problems may prevail if you haven't been getting enough rest.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)

Don't overspend on luxury items. You're likely to encounter new partners if you take short trips. Someone you work with could try to undermine you. Your unique contribution to the organization will enhance your reputation.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)

Put your plans into motion by presenting your intentions to those who should be able to give you financial support. You will get along well in social situations. Your romantic inclination should lead to a committed relationship. You need to spend time with friends and family.

CANCER (June 22 - July 22)

You may find that someone at work hasn't been trustworthy. Take time to listen to children and help them with projects that seem impossible to them. Don't blow situations out of proportion. Get back into a routine that promises a better looking, more aware individual.

LEO (July 23 - Aug 22)

Your input into their activities will help bring you closer together. You can pick up wonderful buys if you really look hard this week. Don't let your health suffer because of abuse. Overindulgent people will cause disruptions in your life.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 - Sept. 23)

You may find out that someone is trying to undermine you. Stubborn about making changes around your home. Try not to be overly generous. You may have difficulty trying to get your mate to understand your position.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)

Help those incapable of taking care of their personal affairs. You can write beautiful love letters this week. Social get-together will bring you in contact with intelligent new friends. Update and review your personal investments.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)

Gambling will be a waste of time and money. You can make life easier for an older member of your family. Your creative talent will prove to be lucrative if put to proper use. You may not be that popular at home but you should be able to shine at social gatherings.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 21)

If you try to manipulate emotional situations you will find yourself alienated. Concentrate on work or make changes to yourself. You are apt to meet someone special on your journey. Your tendency to vacillate will drive everyone crazy.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22 - Jan. 20)

They won't pay you back and you'll be upset. This may not be the day to get involved in risky joint financial ventures. You can sell your ideas to those who have the money to back them. Everything is moving quickly, just the way you like it.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)

You will get great satisfaction from your efforts. Consider a conservative investment that will stay solid when everything else goes sour. Take advantage of the opportunities that present themselves. Get involved in competitive sports. Friends will appreciate your attention and playful nature.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar. 20)

Social activity should be on your agenda. In return, the satisfaction you get is enough for you. The experience will be good. You're ready to take action and take over.

The building is listed on the National and State of New Jersey Registers of Historic Places and most of the roof components date to its original construction in 1942. Hangar #1 was part of NAS Wildwood which operated as a dive-bombing training base for the United States Navy during World War II. This training was extremely dangerous and led to nearly 130 crashes and the deaths of 42 naval aviators. NASW Aviation Museum's mission is to educate the public on the history of NAS Wildwood, restore Hangar #1, and to memorialize these aviators who made the ultimate sacrifice for their country. The NASW Aviation Museum is located at the Cape May Airport at 500 Forrestal Road in Erma.

CHEF CHIP'S WILD GAME AND SEAFOOD RECIPE
VENISON SAUSAGE

INGREDIENTS:

- 3 lbs Venison, Cut in Cubes
- 1 lb Hickory Smoked Bacon (Frozen)
- 3 Tbsp Fresh Sage, minced
- 1 Tbsp Fresh Thyme, minced
- 2 Tbsp Onion Salt
- 2 Tbsp Fresh Minced Garlic
- 1 Tbsp Fresh Cracked Black Pepper
- 1 tsp Red Pepper Flakes
- 1/2 cup Brown Sugar
- 1 Tbsp Maple Syrup
- 1 Tbsp Worcestershire Sauce
- 1 Tbsp + 1 tsp Seasoned Salt

PREPARATION:

Set your grinder up with a coarse grind die attachment. Place deer meat in freezer and allow to harden a little before grinding. Grind the venison through the coarse grind die into a bowl. Next, change the die to a smaller hole die. Run the venison through again. Now break off or cut pieces of frozen bacon and grind them in with the venison. Add remaining ingredients into the bowl and mix well by hand. Finally, run the mixture through the grinder once more. You can now make patties, links in casings or even meatballs. Enjoy!

NUTRITION, WEIGHT LOSS & FITNESS

DON'T SKIP MEALS

Ever notice how all you want to do is take a nap after eating a huge, greasy meal? Large portions, especially of less-than-healthy food, can exhaust you and leave you feeling sluggish. Eating several small meals a day will allow you to keep your metabolism going for extra caloric burn.

Four to six portion-controlled meals can help you maintain your blood sugar and keep you from getting seriously hungry during the day, which can easily lead to overeating.

You might think that skipping breakfast or lunch is a great way to cut calories, but this actually does more harm than good. Starving yourself is unhealthy and simply doesn't help you lose weight or keep it off.

Just like your parents always said, breakfast really is the most important meal of the day. Skipping that quick morning bite deprives your body of the chance to kick start its metabolism, which can result in a desire to eat bigger (or unhealthy) meals later.

SPENDING AND SAVING STRATEGIES FOR 2023

The past few years have upended many perceptions of financial stability. A layoff or career change, inflation never before seen by younger generations and the lingering uncertainty of the pandemic might have thrown off your financial planning.

The new year is a great time to review your strategies for smart spending and saving so you can weather whatever the future has in store.

Financial planning professionals suggest that you start by creating a budget. Online trackers such as Mint.com can help you understand your spending. Also, reviewing your expenses with a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professional is a great way to get a handle on spending smart today while saving for tomorrow.

Try these tips for saving and spending in 2023:

USE CREDIT RESPONSIBLY: Pay off credit cards each month, if possible, to avoid accumulating debt and build good credit.

SET UP AUTOMATIC SAVINGS: You can do this through your bank and via your employer's payroll. Use the new year to take a fresh look at the savings options through your employer, including Health Savings Accounts (HSAs), which can be carried over from one year to the next.

INVEST WINDFALLS: Invest any unexpected cash, such as bonuses or tax refunds, and make your money work harder for you. If you find yourself with significant new assets, such as an inheritance, a CFP® professional can help you make the most of your good fortune.

REVIEW YOUR RETIREMENT PLANS: The new year may bring changes such as buying a home, updating a will or navigating a higher tax bracket. A CFP® professional can provide a new year review to keep your retirement plans on track no matter where you are in your working life.

PLAN YOUR TAX PAYMENTS: Consider paying estimated taxes throughout the year to avoid a large tax bill in April. Estimated tax payments can be especially helpful for contract workers or freelancers who don't have taxes taken out of their pay automatically.

SHOP SMARTER: Combat inflation by switching to store brands for some items. Check whether generic medications will work for you and compare prices for different pharmacies.

Visit LetsMakeAPlan.org for more information about financial planning and how to find a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professional near you.

Don't Let Damaged Roads Ruin Your Tires, Vehicle

This winter, Americans are seeing record storms and low temperatures across the country. With these treacherous conditions, it is more important than ever to prepare your car for the best possible performance in the snow and cold.

CHECK THOSE TIRES

Winter weather and roads put a lot of strain on your tires. In extreme cold, the rubber can crack and broken asphalt will do a great deal of damage. Inspect your tires regularly, especially after any difficult or rough drives.

Make sure you stay on top of tire inflation. The cold weather can cause a drop in PSI, so check tires regularly and fill with air when they fall below the proper inflation range. Proper inflation levels for your vehicle can be found inside the drivers-side door.

POTHOLES AND OTHER TIRE PROBLEMS

Freezing and thawing of water in the asphalt can cause severe cracks and potholes. Driving over a pothole can cause damage to your car including: Bent wheel rims • Alignment issues • Tire damage • Shock and strut problems

After you hit a pothole, do a visual check for any damage. Look for harm to the rim or a deflation in the tire as well as any gashes or damage to the rubber.

While you are behind the wheel, make sure there aren't any strange irregularities in the way your car handles after the incident such as noises, vibrations or steering issues.

COMPENSATIONS FOR POTHOLE DAMAGE?

Did you know that cities and states may pay for damage to your car from potholes on public roads? Check with your local municipality and submit the proper information, but it's worth looking into.

TIPS TO PREVENT TIRE DAMAGE

- Stay alert while driving and keep an eye out for potholes, hazards and, of course, other drivers.
- Watch your speed, always have control of your vehicle and know "exit routes" to get out of potential danger.
- Don't rush through puddles. You never know how deep they might be and there is the potential for hydroplaning.
- Also the wave of water you kick up might temporarily blind you by filing the windshield with a torrent of water.
- Always use four winter tires no matter what type of vehicle you drive. By not using four, you risk uneven traction and the possibility of fishtailing or over steering, even with front wheel drive.
- All-season and all-weather tire rubber may harden due to lower/freezing temperatures. The physical changes caused by cold weather reduces traction and may increase slipping, leading to a loss of control.

WHY DO WE FIND ROSEMARY EXTRACT IN PET FOODS AND TREATS?

Submitted by Patsy Nelson
from The Wagging Tail

Rosemary is an aromatic Mediterranean evergreen plant, used in culinary seasoning, herbal teas, essential oils, fragrances and for health care. IT IS NOT TOXIC TO CATS OR DOGS, although it is possible for a pet to have an adverse reaction to the herb (symptoms listed later).

Rosemary has been used throughout history as a medicinal aid for brain function, joint inflammation and to relieve stress. Rosemary does have antimicrobial properties, which means that it kills microorganisms or stops their production, and it is used as a natural preservative in pet food. Rosemary also functions as an antioxidant (especially the rosmannol) helping to eliminate the free radicals in a pet's body that can cause long-term harm as in cancer. In short, rosemary's antibacterial, antifungal and antiseptic qualities help to "combat infections, decrease inflammation and swelling, promote digestion and preserve and enhance vision." Rosemary is high in vitamin A and C, magnesium, calcium, folate (folic acid-vitamin B9) and iron.

Rosemary can act as a bug deterrent (it contains camphor) and can be diluted in oil form and used as a spray outdoors. Always be careful when using rosemary extract on a pet's skin, a cat's skin is particularly very thin, so it must be diluted and applied sparingly and with due diligence. You can research how to make a safe tincture.

Pets can nibble on a live plant (it is not likely that they would ingest too much) or you can sprinkle some on their food at mealtime. It is rare that a pet would be allergic but do look for the following possible signs and consult with your veterinarian.

SYMPTOMS IN DOGS

- Itchy skin
- Dry, flaky skin
- Hair loss
- Bumps/rash
- Chronic ear infections
- Obsessive licking/chewing of feet
- Inflamed, red paws
- Gastrointestinal upset
- Seizures

SYMPTOMS IN CATS

- Dizziness
- Loss of appetite
- Vomiting
- Incoordination or lack of balance
- Difficulty breathing
- Fragrance/scent on their coat, skin or breathe
- Drooling
- Lethargy or weakness

Rosemary can cause cats to seem "high" because of the neogetalactone in the rosemary's flowers and leaves. They may appear more playful and energetic, before dozing off. But if your pet displays any of the symptoms of an allergic reaction, and the above do occur with other allergens, you can try removing the rosemary or eliminating diets that have a trace amount in them, usually the last item in the ingredient panel. As in most possible allergens, Rosemary is harmless, but the pet's body does not recognize it as such and will set up "an unneeded immune response against the rosemary ingredient." It could be a quick response, or it may take years to develop. Not all vets use the Bicom testing to determine allergies, but this tests your pet's blood's reaction to different possible allergens. If the response is positive, your pet's blood wavelength will show stress, i.e., an incompatibility to that item.

Since there are so many possible allergens, I have been getting Ebby and Zoey the once-a-month Cytopoint injection. Cytopoint is an antibody for dogs that binds to and inactivates part of the dog's immune system. "Cytopoint is the first and only monoclonal antibody (mAb) treatment for dogs that neutralizes canine IL-31, with minimal impact on normal immune function." After the initial exam and injection, you only pay for the monthly shot which can be given by a vet tech. I have used Apoquel in the past for my dogs with allergy issues, but it is costly and must be given every day. And Zoey, who has Addison's Disease, needs a shot every twenty-eight days for that so it is convenient to get both at the same time. Ebby likes to be part of the process and it controls her excessive licking.

Winter is still very much here. If you cover up to go outside or into your car, you have an obligation to protect your dog's muscles and joints as well. We have the best weatherproof jackets, in medium and heavy weights, as well as sweaters and The Gold Paw Series.
