'ROUND THE REGION with Sharon

By Sharon Harris-Zlotnick

Hello Atlantic County:

GET READY FOR THOSE PROJECTS

It may only be January, but smart homeowners are already thinking ahead of what projects await them this spring. I know I too have a few to address once the weather warms up.

Come out to the Atlantic County's Home Show & Sale on Saturday and Sunday, February 9/10 at the Atlantic County Institute of Technology, 5080 Atlantic Avenue, Mays Landing. Show hours are 11 a.m.-5 p.m. Saturday; 11 a.m.-4 p.m. on Sunday. Admission is free and the expo will include fun, giveaways, expert advice from exhibitors, show savings and more.

Show organizer Joseph A. Lanzi, of Always Positive Group in Sicklerville, wants to offer quality products and services that resolve issues "from roof to basement" within a home. He says, "With hundreds of products and services represented for just one weekend, consumers will certainly find something to suit their needs. It's a great opportunity for one-stop shopping to compare prices, savings and quality."

Exhibit displays include vendors showcasing everything for inside and outside the home including the latest in flooring, sunrooms, additions, basement finishing, water-proofing roofing, landscaping, home security systems, custom kitchens, energy efficient windows and the newest solar energy ideas. The Atlantic County's Spring Home Show & Sale will have plenty of free parking, easy access, great prizes and giveaways. Visit www.always-positivengroup.com or call 856-401-9111 for directions and general information.

CLEAN CUT

If you have a pet, you know some animals are calm about a visit to the vet or groomer. Others get upset about riding in the car and being touched too much. I've had both and calm is obviously better.

Winston, our wonderful new rescue cat, is the latter. He dislikes a lot of touching to his back half, so clipping his back claws is challenging. I just took Winston to The Pooch Parlor in Egg Harbor Township's Ocean Heights area.

While owner Shelly Mallow works primarily with dogs-there were a few harnessed on the tables for grooming sessions-she and her assistant had Winston clipped in no time for a very reasonable price.

Their technique was so quick and efficient that Winston did not have the chance to make a sound. I hope we can learn from that to do the same ourselves going forward

The Pooch Parlor works by appointment, but also welcomes walk-ins. They sell dog treats and toys, plus some really fun apparel.

START MAKING V-DAY PLANS NOW

It's only a few weeks away, but it is not too early to think about your Valentine's Day plans for February 14. Most better restaurants will offer a special menu or promotion and I'll pass along some interesting ones as I get them over the next few weeks.

Beach Plum Farm is a 62-acre tract of land that farms more than 100 different types of produce. Cape Resorts owns the property and the farm's harvest is used at the company's numerous restaurants in Cape May.

The Farm-to-Table Valentine's Dinner will be a romantic memory, with menu items prepared from using the farm's own meats, poultry, herbs and vegetables.

Each dinner seating accommodates a maximum of 28 couples, so timely reservations should be made. Diners may bring their own bottles, but farm-fresh juices and herbs will be supplied to make preferred cocktails.

Valentine's Day dinners will be Saturday, 2/9 and Thursday, 2/14 at 6:30 p.m. The $224.44-per-couple price includes a 20% service fee and tax. Reservations required at <https://beachplumfarmcape-may.com/category/dining-at-the-farm/>

To be sure the magic never ends for Valentine's Day, reserve a night or weekend retreat at Beach Plum's newly-renovated historic cottage and Amish barns right on the farm. The quaint accommodations are located two miles from the beach-a bit cold for this time of year-and historic Cape May. Sunday offers a late 5 p.m. checkout. Call (833) 327-6268 for information and reservations.

The historic, romantic Virginia Hotel in Cape May, first opened in 1879 and was totally restored in 1989. For Valentine's Day, they have created a "Cupid's Arrow" specialty cocktail, using fresh ingredients from the Beach Plum Farm.

The popular Ebbitt Room's unique menu will offer a delicious four course meal at $85 per person. The price includes a complimentary glass of champagne.

The Virginia is also promoting an "Evening to Remember overnight package. Anyone reserving the package and staying at the Virginia Hotel during February will receive either a pair of beautiful Cape May Diamond earrings or necklace. These gems are created from stones from the Delaware Bay's shores.

The package also includes: Deluxe accommodations Welcome bottle of house champagne and chocolate truffles $100 dining credit for the Ebbitt Room Continental breakfast for two each morning. Complimentary valet parking

For packages sold over Valentine's Day, February 14th, dinner is offered for two from the four-course prix-fixe special menu.

Isn't it wonderful to be in love at any age?

1/19 - Harrah's - Bill Engvall: Grammy nominated, multi-platinum selling comedian, Bill Engvall is coming to The Concert Venue for two shows on Saturday, January 19! Known for his Southern drawl, perfect timing and hilarious commentary on the challenges of daily life, fans can expect plenty of laugh-out-loud moments all night long.

1/19 - Hard Rock - Alabama:

Alabama is an American country and Southern rock band formed in Fort Payne, Alabama, in 1969. Alabama's biggest success came in the 1980s, where the band had over 27 number one hits, seven multi-platinum albums and received numerous awards. Alabama's first single on RCA Records, "Tennessee River", began a streak of 21 number one singles, including "Love in the First Degree" (1981), "Mountain Music" (1982), "Dixieland Delight" (1983), "If You're Gonna Play in Texas (You Gotta Have a Fiddle in the Band)" (1984) and "Song of the South" (1988). The band's popularity waned slightly in the 1990s although they continued to produce hit singles and multi-platinum album sales. The band's blend of traditional country music and Southern rock combined with elements of gospel, and pop music gave it a crossover appeal that helped lead to their success. They also toured extensively and incorporated production elements such as lighting and "sets" inspired by rock concerts into their shows. The band has over 30 number one country records on the Billboard charts to their credit and have sold over 75 million records, making them the most successful band in country music history.

1/19 - Resorts - Temptations Review: As former lead singer of the 'Rock-n-Roll Hall of Fame' inductees, 'The Impressions', and with a reputation for having one of the most powerful voices in the R&B market, Nate Evans was specially selected by original Temptation's lead singers Eddie Kendricks, David Ruffin and Dennis Edwards to join the group. Following the passing of David Ruffin and Eddie Kendricks and with the retirement of Dennis Edwards... Nate Evans now leads the group with his soulful voice in this spectacular tribute performance. Much more than a tribute to the late 'Temptations'... this show is a musical extravaganza dedicated to one of the greatest Motown acts of all time and filled with songs from their library, therefore the moves and arrangements performed by this group are a replica of the original 'Temptations' show. 'Ride Back to the Day' when one of the most iconic groups ever to hit the stage played to sell-out audiences and dazzled crowds worldwide. Today Nate Evans along with Vernon Taylor, Isaac Wooten, Ollie Boldts and Andre Shepherd are keeping the sounds of the 'Temptations' alive and well!

1/20 - Boardwalk Hall - All Stars of Hip Hop: Come see it all! Naughty By Nature, Big Daddy Kane, Kool Moe Dee, Slick Rick, Whodini, Onyx and Nice & Smooth.

2/1&2 - Hard Rock - Tim McGraw: Tim McGraw is an American country singer/songwriter and actor. All of these albums have produced 65 singles, 25 of which have reached number 1 on the Hot Country Songs or Country Airplay charts. Three of these singles — "It's Your Love", "Just to See You Smile", and "Live Like You Were Dying" — were the top country songs of 1997, 1998, and 2004 according to Billboard Year-End. He has also won three Grammy Awards, 14 Academy of Country Music awards, 11 Country Music Association (CMA) awards, 10 American Music Awards, and three People's Choice Awards. His Soul2Soul II Tour with Faith Hill is one of the highest grossing tours in country music history, and one of the top 5 among all genres of music. Tim McGraw just recently released his latest singles "Neon Church" and "Thought About You" on October 4, 2018. He has been married to singer Faith Hill since 1996, and is a son of baseball player Tug McGraw.

2/16 - Resorts - Chubby Checker: Come on baby, let's do the twist with Chubby Checker & The Wildcats on Saturday, February 16 at 8PM in Superstar Theater. In 2 minutes & 42 Seconds, Chubby Checker revolutionized popular Culture and changed the music business forever. When he appeared on American Bandstand in 1960 and performed "The Twist," it was the dawn of a new era in Rock and Roll. He stands alone as a one of a kind Rock Icon, who has had 36 Hit Records, is the only artist to have a single go to # 1 Twice, and according to Billboard, has the # 1 Single for the whole Decade of the 60's. Chubby was awarded the first Platinum Single, the first Rock Grammy and has sold an astounding 250,000,000 records over the years. That's why Dick Clark has said: "The three most important things that ever happened in the music industry are Elvis Presley, The Beatles, and Chubby Checker."

Besides his own material, he has also co-written singles for artists like Garth Brooks, Adam Gregory, the Eli Young Band, and Tim McGraw. One of his compositions, Brooks's "More Than a Memory", was the first song ever to debut at number one on the country chart, while the Eli Young Band's "Crazy Girl" was the Billboard Year-End top country song of 2011.

2/17 - Toni Braxton: PLEASE NOTE: Due to a scheduling conflict, Toni Braxton's Saturday, February 9 show at the Event Center has been rescheduled to Sunday, February 17. No Need to 'Warm Up' Modern Vehicles in Cold Weather

Idling for 30 Seconds Uses More Fuel than Restarting Engine

It is that time of the year when many motorists wonder if they need to let their vehicle "warm up" or idle before driving. In fact, today's modern cars are ready to drive in cold temperatures without excessive idling, says the Car Care Council.

The idea of idling before driving dates back to when cars were built with carburetors. With new fuel-injection technology, complex computer systems and thinner synthetic oils, drivers don't need to warm up their cars before hitting the road. According to the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), "When a car idles for more than 30 seconds, it has several negative effects, such as increasing air pollution unnecessarily, wasting fuel and money, and causing excessive wear or even damaging a car's engine components, including cylinders, spark plugs and the exhaust system. Contrary to popular belief, idling isn't an effective way to warm up most car engines."

"Unless you are trying to defrost the windshield or warm the interior of your car, idling is not required for today's vehicles," said Rich White, executive director, Car Care Council. "In most cases, idling longer than 30 seconds is unnecessary, even on the coldest days. The best way to warm up your car's engine is to drive gently at the start. Remember, a vehicle gets zero miles per gallon when idling and the result is lower fuel economy and wasted money."

Whether you're an avid leatherhead fan or just someone who looks forward to that one excuse out of the year to put on a football jersey and scarf down copious amounts of snack-time food and beer, the wait is finally over! Rejoice and be glad, Super Bowl 53 is now upon us (Sunday, February 3rd, in Atlanta's Mercedes Benz Stadium)! Scores of fans with visions of serving Muffuletta Sliders and Beignets this year (myself included, I had a fabulous menu planned), are now switching gears to creamy New England Clam Chowda and California Style Tacos as the Los Angeles Rams will duke it out against the ([sarcasm alert]) surprising winner of last Sunday night's game, the New England Patriots. Atlantic City is a fantastic place to be during this year's Super Bowl, with so many viewing parties and specials all throughout the city. If you need some inspiration, here are a handful of great places to consider...

Get into the New England spirit and head on over to Chickie and Pete's, located at the Tropicana Casino & Resort, for their famous Crab Fries and wing specials while watching the game. They'll have music and games to keep everyone entertained. Make sure you call ahead to make a reservation, though, as they are filling up quickly.

Snack on some Boom Boom Clam Strips and Spicy Shrimp Lettuce Wraps at Wonder Bar, located on Sunset Avenue just off North Albany Avenue. They have several high definition flat screens to lose yourself in while taking advantage of their crazy drink specials, and you really can't beat their view.

Enter the American Frontier at Mountain Bar, located in the Wild Wild West at Bally's! Quench your thirst with $3 drafts, $4 shots and $3 bottles, while viewing the game on over 25 (that's right, 25!!) flat screen TV's. For non Pats Fans or Melon Heads, Mountain Bar offers beer pong tourneys, arcade games and a photo booth! This is one of those places where it's kind of impossible to be bored.

And if the rodeo ain't you cup o' rotgut, since you're already in Bally's, hop on over to Harry's Oyster Bar. Harry's is the best shucking place (see what they did there?) to watch a game. With 14 flat screen TV's in the bar and dining room, you won't miss a minute of the action no matter where you are, with $5 Bud Light draft in a commemorative Harry's glass with $3 refills, $5 Bud Light Aluminum Bottles, $5 Bloody Marys, $.75 Buffalo Wings, $7 Crabby Chips, $7 Chorizo Flatbread and $7 Giant Pretzels.

Hops Aficionados everywhere would highly appreciate what Tun Tavern, located at the Sheraton Hotel, has to offer this year. It doesn't get any better than watching the big game on a big flat screen while devouring their mouth-watering apps and entrees paired perfectly with their vast variety of in-house micro brews!

Ducktown Tavern, located on the corners of Atlantic and Georgia Avenues, has several high quality TV's, and are offering a great selection of beer and bar food specials that night, with giveaways during every quarter of the game!

So dust off that collectible jersey you bought in the stadium souvenir shop in a drunken haze 14 years ago, grab some friends, and head into AC for a night of good times and great football. And just remember, folks, with imbibing great drinks comes great responsibility. Moderation is key... and a designated driver on hand helps...or an Uber.

DOES YOUR DOG SHIVER?

Submitted By Patsy Nelson
 from The Wagging Tail

Our rescue Shih Tzu tends to shiver. I have concluded that she does for different reasons. The most frequent reason is that she feels cold. She wears the Gold Paw fleece top, and during extremely cold spells, like recently, I put two on her. I also put two coats over her fleece tops when it is super cold and windy outside. And she likes to lie in a bed by the gas fireplaces even if just the pilot is on. (I feed her warm protein sources like lamb, chicken, and venison.) She also shivers when she needs to poop. Rosie prefers to defecate on any property but her own. I think her previous owners probably did not have a fenced-in-yard; thus, she got used to pooping elsewhere. If I don't take her for a walk, I will bring her to The Wagging Tail. If I don't do either of those, she will eventually go in our big back yard. But out of desperation. I do worry about her getting constipated. She is quite stubborn when she wants to be.

Shivering, as opposed to seizures, is when your dog can make eye contact with you but their body is involuntarily shaking. Rosie sometimes shakes so much I fear she will do harm to herself. According to Dr. Marc, a veterinarian blogger, there are six main reasons a dog will shiver.

1) The main reason is being cold. A normal dog's temperature may go as high as 102.5 F. A dog's body is warmer than a person's so you may not realize your dog is cold just by touching. That is why I encourage owners to put some protection on all dogs when they go out in the cold. AN INDOOR DOG NEEDS OUTDOOR PROTECTION, regardless of the length of their coat. If you cannot stand outside in a sweater, neither can your dog without one. (See last week's article.)

2) Dogs may be highly sensitive to loud noises, such as gun shots, fireworks, thunder, or screaming parents. There is a gun range in the Villas that we can hear in Rio Grande. Before Rosie's hearing started to fail, she would shake uncontrollably if she heard those guns shots, or any loud noises like that. Sometimes the fear that makes a dog shiver, is simply being taken in the car if they are not comfortable. New places can make some dogs shiver. These dogs can all benefit from homeopathic calming aids. Or Thunder Shirts.

3) Dogs may shiver out of excitement or anticipation. Wanting to chase a squirrel they see out the window, when you pick up their leash for a walk or a car ride, or when the dog knows that dinner is arriving.

4) It may be a learned response because once the dog does it and we make a big deal, giving the pet some extra attention, the dog may continue to seek said attention and repeat the behavior. This may be a small contribution to Rosie's shivering as we usually pick her up and hold her.

5) "Shivering can result from medical and physiologic problems. The pain or illness can cause dogs to shiver. It's important to find the underlying problem so that it can be addressed. In addition to shivering from the pain, the pain itself can induce anxiety in the dog, resulting in more shivering."

6) "There are also some toxins that can cause a convulsive response in the animal. The convulsive like behavior could be misconstrued as shivering, when in reality it may be a much more serious issue." And then you should consult your veterinarian.

P.S. We are having sales to reduce slow moving or redundant inventory. WE ARE NOT PLANNING ON CLOSING UP SHOP! With your continued support, this small business will stay in business as it has for the past 31 years. Thank you. Patsy
