NUTRITION, WEIGHT LOSS & FITNESS

THE IMPORTANCE OF MEAL PREP

I am a big supporter of meal prep. You don't have to be a body builder to partake, and it saves heaps of time in the week when you normally have little to spare. I know it seems like an arduous task, but it's importance in achieving your goals really can't be underestimated. Knowing what to eat, how much to eat, when to eat and then preparing your meals is one of important aspects of achieving a healthy, balanced diet. The key to getting ahead with meal prep is to have a few staple foods that you can batch-cook and use in a number of different ways. If you really don't have the time, opt for tinned fish, salads, raw veggies (think carrot sticks, cucumber, avocado, tomatoes, capsicums), fruit and nuts, which take zero time to throw in a Tupperware. Taking that extra time to prepare for the week ahead and you'll be rewarded with:

BETTER NUTRITION: Having your meals on hand during the day means you don't have to go to the local cafe for food. This not only saves you time, but also your waistline. You have full control over the portions and ingredients.

REGULATED METABOLISM: You'll be prepared at snack time when hunger strikes with something nourishing, so you can feed your body regularly and keep you metabolism humming. Snacking regularly will stop your body falling into a catabolic state, which results in the loss of lean body tissue (including muscle) and a depression of your metabolic rate.

For easy local food prep that's healthy try my "Nutrition Approved" meals. All are weighed and measured with keeping low sodium and low fat diets in mind. They are created by an amazing local chef. Chef Amy only uses the best ingredients supported by local farmers and butchers. Meals are created once a week and delivered or picked up at convenient locations.

Please send Chef Amy Manzione an email at stirrupmeals@gmail.com to get on her exclusive mailing list to receive her weekly menus and start your easy and delicious food prepped, no fuss meals today!

'ROUND THE REGION with Sharon

By Sharon Harris-Zlotnick

Hello Atlantic County:

TREES WILL BLOOM

What happens to the local trees when the weather goes from cold and snowy to warm and sunny...all in one week? We have seen that happen multiple times this winter and the constant change has to affect local trees and foliage. How will they fare when the calendar says spring and the weather remains warm every day?

Take the uncertainty out of it by contacting Mickey Riggins at Arborcare Horticultural Services, LLC (609-476-1080) in Mays Landing. He is incredibly knowledgeable and can quickly assess the health of your trees and, hopefully, prescribe a successful treatment.

Riggins has worked to save our beautiful, but deteriorating plum tree on the front lawn since last summer. He offered a radical prescription that I hope proves successful this spring. What did we have to lose? Rather than just surrender and remove the tree, Riggins suggested an infusion into the soil and the tree's roots to rejuvenate it. Never used on a tree before, but used on plants/shrubs, the process took awhile to complete. We will know the results soon, when the trees start to bloom.

If successful, our tree will once again flourish with colorful leaves. If a failure, the tree will be a barren bunch of branches and have to come out, leaving a gaping hole in the front lawn. That will be when I call Mike O'Neill from the Tree-Man in Somers Point for removal. He comes out every spring to assess all the trees on our property. I've got my fingers crossed that the plum will not only survive, but thrive again.

That situation was truly exceptional, but shows how cutting edge and forward thinking Riggins is to save a tree. For the rest, he will treat them for insect and fungus problems by using only the lowest toxicity products and mixtures. It is reassuring that all applications follow the guidelines of the industry's latest research and recommendations.

EATING ALL DAY LONG

I have spent much time in Ventnor recently for dinners with friends or lunches before my monthly daytime Stockton FELS adult enrichment classes. There is no shortage of choices for you in all price ranges at www.felstockton.com. Last week, I reported on Sapore's impressive dining room renovation.

Three weeks ago, Norman and I used a Domenico's gift certificate I had won at a charity auction last summer. I figured a cold Saturday night would not be crowded. I was wrong yet again. Just like our dinner at Steve & Cookie's during the big snow weekend in early January, Domenico's was packed.

Granted, Domenico's is smaller than S & C's, but it is so popular that at 7:30, the entire room was full with a long list of reservations throughout the evening. It is noisy and I always reserve a table against the wall to cut the sound on one side.

We like Domenico's, from the great calamari to the delicious entree plates like my veal ragout with pappardelle pasta or the seafood dish that Norman had. We loved the sauces.

One suggestion...ask the specials' prices up front so you don't face a big surprise when you see the check. At many restaurants, the specials typically cost more than regular menu items. You can save some money for your drinks since Domenico's is a BYOB.

You must make reservations or expect a long wait on a weekend night. Call 609-822-1300.

Lunch is more informal and I almost always opt for omelettes. Not every place makes them, or they only serve breakfast food until late morning. Why? People in this area often work different shifts and may use lunchtime as their first meal of the day. Every location has eggs in the kitchen and should offer them through the afternoon.

That's my position, so here are some spots to get good eggs and other breakfast foods if you are in Ventnor. Isabella's cooks their mushrooms for a smoky flavor and has amazing hash browns. The portion spanned two meals. Isabella's becomes a Mexican restaurant at night.

Annette's has always served breakfast foods, including all types of smoked fish and smoked salmon. While I love omelettes, it is tempting to try their breakfast fish entrees.

Hannah G's offers vegetarian items and great bread to accompany its salads and eggs. Across from Sapore's is Agnes, which has great eggs dishes and delicious muffins. They were closed on a Monday when we went, so check to make sure they are open Driving into Margate is the ever-popular Downbeach Deli. If you can't find something to eat, it's not out there at all. Their weeknight dinner specials are terrific and very inexpensive.

Finally, for this column, Gilchrist Downbeach is the sister restaurant of their original in Atlantic City. Known for fabulous pancakes, their egg platters are also good and they serve that old-fashioned standard, creamed chipped beef. Any takers out there?

*FEEDBACK FROM YOU
I would love to hear your ideas/suggestions.

2/24 - Tropicana - Grand Funk Railroad: Grand Funk Railroad, sometimes shortened as Grand Funk, is an American rock band popular during the 1970s, when they toured extensively and played to packed arenas worldwide. David Fricke of Rolling Stone magazine once said, "You cannot talk about rock in the 1970s without talking about Grand Funk Railroad!" Known for their crowd-pleasing arena rock style, the band was well-regarded by audiences despite a relative lack of critical acclaim. The band's name is a play on words of the Grand Trunk Western Railroad, a line that ran through the band's home town of Flint, Michigan.

2/24 - Borgata - Blue Traveler: Blues Traveler is an American rock band formed in Princeton, New Jersey in 1987. The band's music covers a variety of genres, including blues rock, psychedelic rock, folk rock, soul, and Southern rock. It is known for extensive use of segues in their live performances, and was considered a key part of the re-emerging jam band scene of the 1990s, spearheading the H.O.R.D.E. touring music festival. In March 2012, Blues Traveler released a double-disc compilation titled 25 on Hip-O Records; the album commemorates the band's silver anniversary and includes their hit singles, new covers, and previously unreleased b-side material. Blues Traveler's most recent studio album Blow Up the Moon, is the twelfth studio album and was released on April 7, 2015. As part of the Blow Up the Moon album, Blues Traveler released a music video using Rockstar editor in Grand Theft Auto V on September 14, 2015. The music video features JC Chasez and 3OH!3. On December 7, 2016, Blues Traveler released a cover version of "Go Tell It on the Mountain"

2/24 - Boardwalk Hall - Katt Williams: This past year, Williams has immersed himself in multiple upcoming projects. From several big-name films to his latest standup special taping, the comedian remains at the top of his game. Katt Williams' upcoming movies include, "Father Figures" with Ed Helm and Owen Wilson, coming to theatres in December 2017. Williams also co-stars alongside Mike Epps for the 'Meet The Blacks' sequel titled, 'The House Next Door'. Over the years, Katt Williams' comedy career has sustained tremendous change. The comedian has endured various challenges, among unpredicted industry shifts. However, the veteran comedian has taken it in stride, remaining in the business for over 12 years. His unforgettable specials and original comedic style continue to make him a force to be reckoned with. Most commonly, Katt is known for his epic standup specials, including Katt Williams: Let A Playa Play, The Pimp Chronicles Pt. 1, Katt Williams Presents: Katthouse, Katt Williams: Pimpadelic, Katt Williams: 9 Lives, Kattpacalypse and Priceless: Afterlife. The comedian's most noteworthy film appearances include, Friday After Next (2002), Norbit (2007), American Hustle: The Movie (2007) and Scary Movie 5 (2013).

3/10 - Golden Nugget - The Spinners: Sophisticated up-tempo R&B with precision choreography defines a Spinners show. With over 60 million records sold in their illustrious career, the mighty Spinners have performed for presidents, received 6 Grammy nominations, and have appeared on TV too many times to count.

3/10 - Borgata - Foreigner: Foreigner is an English-American rock band, originally formed in New York City in 1976 by veteran English musician Mick Jones and fellow Briton and ex-King Crimson member Ian McDonald along with American vocalist Lou Gramm. Jones came up with the band's name as he, McDonald and Dennis Elliott were British, while Gramm, Al Greenwood and Ed Gagliardi were American. Their biggest hit single, "I Want to Know What Love Is", topped the United Kingdom and United States charts among others. They are one of the world's best-selling bands of all time with worldwide sales of more than 80 million records, including 37.5 million records in the US.

3/16 - Caesars - "Weird Al" Yankovic: "Weird Al" Yankovic is the most popular musical satirist in modern music history. Casual fans know many of his parodies of popular songs like "Amish Paradise" from the hit "Gangsta's Paradise" and "Like a Surgeon" based on The Material Girl's "Like a Virgin." However, he also has a wide variety of original tunes that should be just as celebrated. The 2018 Tour – "Weird Al" Yankovic: The Ridiculously Self-Indulgent, Ill-Advised Vanity Tour – is a celebration of these original songs. Fans will be filled with delight as Al tackles favorites like "UHF," "The Biggest Ball of Twine in Minnesota" and "Nature Trail To Hell." Could some polka medleys also make the setlist?

3/23 - Caesars - Daughtry: Frontman Chris Daughtry is popular for his run on "American Idol" and had tremendous success with his namesake band shortly after. The self-titled debut album released in 2006 and reached No. 1 on the Billboard 200. The album was certified quadruple platinum and named the best-selling album by Billboard in 2007. It spawned the hits "It's Not Over" and "Home." The album sold more than a million copies in less than six weeks. The song "It's Not Over" was nominated for a Grammy in 2008. The band's sophomore album, 2009's "Leave This Town" followed in the footsteps of the first release, debuting at No. 1 on the Billboard 200. It included the lead single, "No Surprise." Daughtry released its third album "Break The Spell" in 2011 and "Baptized" in 2013. Chris Daughtry finished fourth place in American Idol in 2006. Fuel offered to make Daughtry the lead singer, but he already had plans to form his own band. The band has been touring nonstop for the last decade, and you'll get to rock out with Daughtry this spring at Caesars Atlantic City.

3/28-4/1 - Harrah's - The Buddy Holly Story Musical: "Buddy" tells the enduring tale of the musical icon's meteoric rise to fame and his final legendary performance at the Surf Ballroom in Clear Lake, Iowa. Together, the multi-talented cast will be performing five shows from March 28 - April 1, presenting two terrific hours of music with over 20 of his greatest hits, including the timeless classics "That'll Be The Day," "Peggy Sue" and "Oh Boy."

4/14 - Resorts - Frankie Z: Frankie Z's band and dancers rock the house, mixing in music from the greats – from Elvis Presley and Michael Jackson, to Bruno Mars and Justin Timberlake and everyone in between. The performance includes medleys of hit songs from the 50s, Broadway musicals Grease and Hairspray, Motown Classics, a tribute to Latin music, modern hits and some of his own original Pop Rock songs guaranteed to get your heart racing. A fun, high energy show for all crowds, young and young at heart – bring mom along for a Mother's Day weekend she won't forget! Frankie Zulferino is a male Pop artist from New York. In his earlier years, Frankie was a part of the boy band WOW and has opened up for artists such as Justin Bieber, Selena Gomez, Jason Derulo and Sean Kingston. Frankie Z has also toured Europe with multi-platinum group, Westlife, where he performed at the London O2 Arena as well as Croke Park. In addition, Frankie was one of the top four contestants in the New

TURN UP THE AC

Joe Jonas. Frankie Z's most recent accomplishment was being rewarded for "Best Hip Hop Performance" of 2016 at the Industry Dance Awards in Los Angeles California, as well as choreographing for the Orlando Magic dancers. It is no doubt that Frankie is the next up and coming superstar of our time!

4/14 - Golden Nugget - Engelbert Humperdinck: Engelbert Humperdinck is an English pop singer. Humperdinck has been described as "one of the finest middle-of-the-road balladeers around." His singles "Release Me" and "The Last Waltz" both topped the UK music charts in 1967, and sold more than a million copies each. In North America, he also had chart successes with "After the Lovin'" (1976) and "This Moment in Time" (1979). He has sold more than 150 million records worldwide.

The Wizard of Odds

The "Wizard of Odds" is a local casino maven who has firsthand and accurate inside information on the best and worst casino deals in Atlantic City. If you follow the Wizard's advice in patronizing the best and avoiding the worst casinos, your money will last longer and you will have a better chance to win. This week's feature is about a timely message from, "The Junkie Junket - Part III!"

THE BEST CASINO DEALS

Best Player's Club Lounge....."The Amphora Lounge" Borgata
 Best High-End Club....."Seven Stars" (Tie) Caesar's & Harrah's
 Best Overall Slot Odds.....Harrah's
 Highest Progressive Meters.....Harrah's
 Best Cash Back & Promotions.....Borgata
 Best Asian Gourmet....."Lillie's Restaurant" Golden Nugget
 Best Casino Buffet.....Borgata
 Best Steakhouse....."TheOldHomestead" ($$$$$) Borgata
 Best Sunday Brunch....."Nero's" ($$$$) Caesar's
 Highest Class of Customers..."The Nicer People Place" Borgata
 Cleanest Casino.....(Tie) Resorts & Borgata

This is a postscript to my recent "Wiz" column about how the new mayor of Atlantic City going to Las Vegas in a pseudo "junkie junket" to see how Marijuana will benefit our casino town.

- Did not someone from the A. C. Health Department tell him that smoking, including a joint, is not healthy?
- Did not someone from the police department or drug enforcement tell him that Marijuana has been already and very accurately proclaimed a "Gateway Drug"?
- Do we really need to promote government sponsored drug abuse?
- Does the Mayor not know about how a junkie nearly blew up the Tropicana last week with his extremely dangerous meth lab?

More appropriate use of the Mayor's time would be for him to synchronize Atlantic City's traffic lights; pave the roads and fix the ubiquitous pot holes; bring the cops back to his island so they don't have to go over a draw bridge to come and go from the police muster point off shore (Why not place them in the Public Safety Building at Iowa & Atlantic, across from the iconic Tony's Baltimore Grill?) Their presence, and coming and going, could present a significant crime deterrence effect on an area that is more and more dangerous. Dumping 12 hour shifts and restoring foot/scooter beats on Pacific Ave and our World Famous Boardwalk would be a big plus.

Tourists flock to clean and safe resort venues such as Disney World in Florida. Why not Hizzonor take a "Mickey Mouse" junket and see how it is done there? Do we all not want safety and security for our families when seeking entertainment at the Shore? You can bet that Main Street in Disney is a lot cleaner and safer than our Pacific Avenue. All the Mayor has to do to realize what is actually happening to our town is to take a personal walking tour down Pacific Avenue some evening and see the cast of rough characters infesting our main drag. (or read the police/AC Press crime reports)

The Mayor should stay home and TCB. (Take Care of Business) What will be his legacy? Stay tuned.

The "Wiz" can be contacted at WizardofOdds@comcast.net

PPAWS - People & Puppies at Work for Sight
"MEET THE PACK!"

Good Luck Mike!

The Love family received Mike, a Labrador/Golden Retriever mix, at the adorable age of 7 weeks. As he was their first Seeing Eye foster pup, they had no idea what to expect. What they never ever could have foreseen was just how quickly and completely Mike conquered their hearts. Mike was a confident, loving, happy, intelligent, fiercely loyal puppy who loved nothing more than to go on outings wearing his Seeing Eye Puppy-in-Training vest. Rest assured, there was no one more fun to go to the mall, than with Mike.

It broke the hearts of the Love's to part ways with their sweet boy last week when after 14 months with them, he got his call to return to The Seeing Eye for formal training. They are taking comfort and satisfaction in knowing that Mike will soon be bringing his love for people, his joy in learning new things, his passion for outings and his confident, happily inquisitive nature with him to his "new job." These are the qualities that will turn him into the BEST Seeing Eye dog!

The Seeing Eye breeds puppies specifically to be guide dogs for the blind. Only dogs that are bred, raised and trained by The Seeing Eye have the right and privilege to be called "Seeing Eye Dogs." Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny. Their foster families teach basic obedience and expose them to a variety of social situations they will later encounter as working dogs.

PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise puppies for The Seeing Eye. PPAWS is always looking for more people to help raise these amazing pups. If you are interested or would like more info, contact Peter at (609) 804-8774.

FROM THE HEART OF ATLANTIC COUNTY MAGAZINE

When the economy nosedived, and companies had reason to be scared, a few businesses got resourceful.

Low incomes and record job losses pushed consumers toward trends like buying in bulk and using group discount websites. And where there was demand, supply soon followed.

In came the success of wholesalers like Costco, Sam's Club and BJ's. But warehouse clubs weren't the only stores seeing growth in bulk sales. Farmers markets, co-ops and natural food stores observed more super-sized shopping. Whole Foods said bulk food purchases were growing by approximately 25 percent every year.

That wasn't the only buying trend to emerge, however.

"The Groupon following led to an explosion of similar sites, like LivingSocial and Dealfind, not to mention all of the city-specific ones," says Joe Kalfa, the leader of a new movement of group buying called All Our Power.

"You can buy virtually any commodity in bulk and get all kinds of group discounts on spas, restaurants and vacations galore, but what about monthly expenses like car insurance, gas and health care? It seems to me like there's room for some improvement," adds Kalfa.

Well, maybe there is.

NEW BUYING TRENDS EMERGE FOR SHOPPERS

According to Time magazine's Moneyland, warehouse club members can save 25 to 35 percent on their food budget. Shoppers who forego packaging altogether and buy food from bins or dispensers save anywhere from 30 to 90 percent over prepackaged products.

Imagine those types of savings applied to insurance policies, gas prices, medical bills, cell phone plans and more.

All Our Power, which seeks to rally 10 million members and secure membership discounts from all kinds of service providers and retailers, could be the next group-buying trend to take flight.

A buzz has already formed around the young movement as consumers worldwide realize the potential benefits of a free membership with access to serious negotiating power.

Are you tired of paying too much for car insurance or gas? You're not the only one. Sign up and learn more about your buying power at www.allourpower.com. Or, see what others are saying on T w i t t e r @allourpower.
