HOROSCOPE

NOVEMBER 25 - DECEMBER 1, 2021

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

Educational courses will be stimulating and successful. Don't let emotional upset force you into the poorhouse. Don't count on getting any help from those you live with. Your philanthropic contributions will bring you praise.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

Try not to be too harsh with your mate. Trying to deal with your mate will be unproductive and possibly hurtful. Positive connections can be made if you get involved in environmental organizations. Curl up with a good book or go for a drive in the country.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

Don't let jealous friends put you down, making you insecure about your capabilities. Do not let them blow situations out of proportion. Now is a good time to ask for favors. You are best to work at home if you can.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

You will be quite excitable this week. Don't overspend on children or on large purchases. You need to concentrate on solving existing problems. Avoid joint ventures and steer clear of groups that want you to contribute financial assistance.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

Try not to be overbearing where family is concerned. You will have difficulties spreading yourself between your work and your home. So smile! You can get into weight loss programs or go out and change your image with a new look in clothing, hairstyle, and attitude.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

You will be overly sensitive this week. Don't make accusations unless you are completely sure that you are correct. Be prepared to lose friends or alienate other people if you insist on being stubborn. Go with the flow and don't let the unsettled atmosphere get on your nerves.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

You will be emotional with regard to your personal life. This may not be the day to get involved in risky joint financial ventures. Don't let your boss make you feel guilty enough to take work home with you. Romance and social activity will be a promising combination.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

Don't play on your partner's emotions. Do not lend money or belongings to friends. Take time to listen to the problems of family members. Raise your self esteem and your confidence if you want to get back into the mainstream again.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

Be cautious and use your head wisely in situations that deal with the use of machinery or vehicles. You are going through a period of questioning. You will be able to borrow money in order to invest. Some situations may be blown out of proportion.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22-Jan. 20)

Offer consolation, but don't give them any direction. You may divulge private information without realizing it this week. Get involved in creative projects that could turn into moneymaking ventures. You may find that you are a little lucky this week.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

You can help a close friend find solutions to personal problems. Problems with your boss could lead to unemployment. Your ability to visualize will help you convince others of the possibilities. Any attractions toward clients will be one sided and must be put right out of your head.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Romantic opportunities will be plentiful if you go out with friends. You'll be angry if those you live with aren't pulling their weight. Your nerves are frazzled. Talk to employers in order to promote your career objectives.

19 THANKSGIVING FACTS YOU'LL WANT TO TELL EVERYONE YOU KNOW

Thanksgiving Day is mainly composed of three activities: spending time with family, watching football, and eating an extravagant feast. After you've caught up on everyone's personal life—whether you're reuniting with loved ones over Zoom or IRL this year—and chatted about what you're thankful for, you'll likely need something to keep the conversation going (and prevent any doomscrolling on social media!). What better way to do that than with Thanksgiving Day facts? To be fair, however, Thanksgiving is itself a blend of facts and myths: Some so-called origins of our traditions lack evidence, while many parts of the holiday have become purely commercialized. Here's what we do know about Thanksgiving, from its origin to how we celebrate it today.

1. Historians have no record of turkey being eaten at the first Thanksgiving.
2. Benjamin Franklin wished the turkey was the national bird.
3. The first Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade had Central Park Zoo animals.
4. Snoopy has made the most appearances in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade.
5. Sarah Josepha Hale was actually the "Mother of Thanksgiving."
6. The first professional Thanksgiving Day football game was played in 1920.
7. Thanksgiving was once celebrated on the third Thursday in November.
8. "Jingle Bells" was originally a Thanksgiving Day song.
9. Butterball has had a Turkey Talk-Line open for nearly 40 years.
10. Each year, about 46 million turkeys are cooked.
11. The turkey's tryptophan doesn't actually make you tired.
12. The majority of Americans secretly dislike classic Thanksgiving dishes but will eat them anyway.
13. Many people enjoy Thanksgiving leftovers more than the meal itself.
14. TV dinners are a Thanksgiving-leftover invention.
15. President George H. W. Bush was the first to pardon a turkey.
16. President Calvin Coolidge was the first to pardon a raccoon in relation to Thanksgiving.
17. The Wednesday before Thanksgiving is known as "Drinksgiving."
18. Black Friday, aka the day after Thanksgiving, is the busiest day for plumbers.
19. The turkey bird is actually linked to the country of Turkey.

DON'T LET YOUR THANKSGIVING ROAD TRIP BE A TURKEY

One way to avoid a turkey of a Thanksgiving road trip is to make sure the vehicle you will be driving is running well. A 10-minute pre-trip check is a quick and easy way to help avoid the inconvenience of a breakdown many miles away from home, says the non-profit Car Care Council.

The Car Care Council suggests the following pre-trip check to help ensure safety and reliability on the road:

1. Check all fluids, including engine oil, power steering and brake and transmission, as well as windshield washer solvent and antifreeze/coolant.

2. Check the hoses and belts that can become loose, cracked, brittle, frayed or showing signs of excessive wear. These are critical to the proper functioning of the electrical system, air conditioning, power steering and the cooling system.

3. Check the tires, including tire pressure and tread. Uneven wear indicates a need for wheel alignment. Tires should also be checked for bulges and bald spots.

4. Check lighting to identify any problems with exterior and interior lighting as the chance of an accident increases if you can't see or be seen.

5. Check wipers. Wiper blades should be replaced every six months. Make sure the windshield wipers are working properly and keep the reservoir filled with solvent.

"A pre-trip vehicle check provides peace of mind," said Nathan Perrine, executive director, Car Care Council. "Taking proper precautions provides an opportunity to have any repairs performed by one's own trusted technician before hitting the road, reducing the chance of costly car trouble away from home."

To save on fuel costs during the trip, the Car Care Council suggests that motorists avoid aggressive driving, observe the speed limit and avoid excessive idling. Gas caps that are damaged, loose or missing should be replaced to prevent gas from spilling or evaporating. The council also recommends that car owners restock their roadside emergency kit

UPDATE ON MY FOSTER/RESCUE EBBY

Submitted By Patsy Nelson
from The Wagging Tail

I have a new respect for people who are willing to foster pets, not always knowing the animal's temperament and idiosyncrasies. And I keep thinking of that adage "NO GOOD DEED GOES UNPUNISHED." In case you are newly becoming acquainted with Ebby, she has been a real work in progress, and I may have come to the end of my tether with her. I have been her caregiver since September when I agreed to take on two dogs whose human parents were both in the hospital or rehab, and the only one left, according to their neighbor, was a non-interested son. The neighbor brought them to the shop on a Thursday, the day prior to my husband's new hip surgery. It was apparent that both dogs had suffered neglect, and they were treated to needed grooming by the wife, who had given her credit card to the neighbor for anything the dogs might need. The older dog was very ill and coated in urine. The younger dog needed a grooming as well, and they both smelled from the Pedigree food that was their inferior diet. Linda took the old dog home with her on Sunday, and I was reluctantly entrusted with the female, I ended up calling Ebby, short for her given name Ebony. I had not realized when I agreed to foster, I would also be taking care of Bob's post op. Thus, it was a bit stressful. The older dog had to be put down on Monday as he had a serious heart condition and the doctor believed that the only thing that had kept him alive a few more days, was his grooming which had made him feel so much better. Ebby's owner, the husband, died, so now my foster could be a rescue.

I have written a few articles updating my experience with fostering and expressed my concern with Ebby's fear of everything and her tendency to act out, first, thank goodness, with a growl, and then if challenged, attempted biting. She did not exhibit this when kept in our grooming shop for she was probably happy to get attention. She had been a client of Linda's and Linda knew she had to be muzzled to do her nails. Otherwise, she seemed docile. At our home, I put her immediately on a better diet-they fed Pedigree- and it still took a few weeks for her not to smell. I had to be increasingly aware of her moods (not to expect to pet her when she just woke up in the morning) getting her come to me for attention, and her temperament around the other dogs and the cats. During the second or third week she did bite Bob who had leaned over to pet her, and she broke the skin on his finger, and he had to be put on antibiotics because of his recent surgery. Now he was more anxious about her.

As the weather turned cooler, and because Ebby had been trimmed short in her first grooming, when she got another bath and cleanup, I had Linda put a Gold Paw (soft, comfortable coverup) on her as there was no way she was going to let me do it. I had a very difficult time with a harness, about which I gave up. (And I left the coverup on even when it got a little warmer.) A few days ago, it was raining. My gloves from Amazon arrived that are worn when working with a biter. I was very quiet and patient, but each time I tried, her vicious reaction increased in intensity until she finally managed to hurt my index finger through the glove, leaving a bruise. I gave up and took her out in the rain. She did let me cover her with a towel (as I had done before when it rained) and gently pat her dry.

The more comfortable she becomes in the house, and the more attached and possessive of me, she becomes more aggressive towards our pets and Zoey, who had loved playing with her but has not been interested in about ten days. Friday, the 19th of November, I spoke with Dr. Grant about Bob and my wariness of her (although when she plays with me, she is very gentle with my hands in her mouth) and my general frustration. He recommended putting her on medication which Bob picked up at Reef Pharmacy this morning. She got her first pill. Cross your fingers that this works. Otherwise, she may have to be put down, according to the shelter I called. No one wants a biter.
