HOROSCOPE

DECEMBER 8 - DECEMBER 14, 2022

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

Leave things as they are for the moment and focus on reaching your highest potential at work. You may be thinking of starting your own business. You can put in some overtime and make extra cash. You will be well looked upon due to your compassionate and giving nature.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

If you've been really busy, try to schedule some time to spend with loved ones. Do not expect too much from others. Put your time and energy into travel, philosophy, and soul-searching. Your attitudes are changing rapidly.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

You can make personal changes that will enhance your appearance and bring you greater popularity. Your talents are likely to be discovered. A passionate encounter with your mate should help alleviate that pent-up energy. It will be important that you have your priorities straight.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Social events will be plentiful. You need to start planning that vacation. Make changes to your home that will be pleasing to everyone involved. Be sure to get involved in self-improvement programs that will bring you in contact with interesting people.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

Don't take advantage of your expense account. Pleasure trips will be emotionally favorable. Luck is with you, regardless of the financial venture. You are better off visiting friends or relatives than entertaining at home.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

Your lack of attention may have been a factor. Exhaustion will lead to minor injury if you don't know when to quit. Self-deception about relationships is a problem. If you go shopping, only take what you can afford to part with.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

You can get into self-awareness groups or look into physical enhancement programs. Peers may not be on your side. You really can't do anything to change matters this week. Relatives will not agree with the way you are dealing with your personal problems.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

Take time to deal with legal documents and the affairs of people who you may be indebted to. Don't overspend on friends or children. Investments may be misrepresented this week. Don't let your personal dilemmas interfere with your goals.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

Friends or groups that you're affiliated with may want you to contribute more cash than you can really afford. You can enjoy the company of others and come in contact with an ideal mate, if you get out and mingle. Travel opportunities must be taken advantage of. Sign up for seminars that will expand your business awareness.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22-Jan. 20)

This is not the best time to take a risk, to gamble or spend money you really can't afford to part with. You may want to take a serious look at your goals and objectives. You may find that purchases or entertainment could be expensive. Your trinity style and unique way of doing things will entice new acquaintances.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

You can make money through your own creative efforts. Check into art objects or precious stones. You can do well in group endeavors. Talk to an older family member you have helped in the past. Friends and relatives can give you good advice.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Go out with friends or family. You have made an accurate assessment of the situation and have come up with ideas that will save money. Be discreet about your personal life or whereabouts. Be mysterious. Financial affairs do not look too favorable this week.

STAYING SAFE ON THE ROAD THIS HOLIDAY SEASON

The holiday season is upon us, which means a lot more people will be travelling as they head out in anticipation of turkey, gravy, holiday lights, and more good cheer. If you're planning to take a road trip soon, stay safe with these preparation tips!

• Service your vehicle

Be sure to take your vehicle in for an inspection, oil change, and tire rotation. It's best to catch any potential problems before they arise and leave you stranded on the side of the road, possibly even derailing your holiday plans.

• Preset your car's navigation

Before you depart, plug your destination into your navigation system — it's one less thing to worry about, and you'll know exactly when you need to leave to arrive on time.

• Check out the weather report

Knowing the road conditions before they surprise you can help you to plan your route and be ready for any upcoming hazards.

• Make an emergency kit

It's important to be prepared for any potential accidents or injuries. Having an emergency kit readily available in your car is essential. Packing along an extra phone charger is also a good idea.

• Be safe

Road trips can be long — sometimes days at a time — so be sure to always follow safety rules. Don't text and drive, avoid any distractions, obey speed limits, and always wear your seatbelt!

• Take breaks

Road trips can be exhausting, so make frequent stops. If you have a responsible passenger who can also drive, switch roles every now and then to remain alert and reduce fatigue. We want you to arrive at your destination safely and trouble-free!

WET FOOD BETTER THAN DRY FOOD FOR YOUR CATS & DOGS?

Submitted By Patsy Nelson
from The Wagging Tail

According to the Whole Dog Journal, which is an expert source for all things dog: wet, raw, or dehydrated food, is far better than any dry food, even the most expensive.

Many vets will push dry food as a way of maintaining good dental health. But how many dogs or cats (or humans for that matter) truly spend more than a few seconds masticating their food? Most pets usually inhale their food. Slow feeders have been invented for that reason, although The Fromm Company recommends adding cold water to your dog's dry food (as much as the dog can accept) to allow the food to move quickly through the gut for better gut health. Imagine yourself eating a beer pretzel without a beverage! Adding water is not possible if a dog grazes all day as you do not want the kibble to soften which will increase how slowly it makes its way through the intestinal tract. But there may be a reason your dog grazes - boredom with the food.

Many customers have been hesitant to change their dog's diet. I've had much success with dogs that have been found lost, like my Shih Tzu, Rosie, or given up, like Zoey, or fostered-turned-rescue, Ebby. If your dog or cat gets lost, and then found by someone else, even for a short time, it will be fed whatever that person chooses. Too many pets don't carry identification, and no pet carries medical or feeding instructions. It's truly healthier and more appealing to a cat or dog to alter or mix the proteins that they are given as long as you know that they do not have an allergy problem with a specific protein, like chicken or beef, which have been targeted for that. I'm amazed at how many of our reputable pet food companies carry can foods that contain chicken or beef which leads me to believe that a majority of pets don't have problems with either. Today there are numerous other protein options that pets have not consumed that can be safely added. Kangaroo, goat, guinea fowl, venison, pork, rabbit, fish, among others, can be slowly introduced, although I never slowly introduced anything. I am always trying something new on my cats and dogs and then monitor their stool and amount of licking or scratching for indications of a problem. Feeding the same protein all the time can result in an allergy to that protein. Adding canned food, or freeze-dried food, can greatly enhance your pet's interest in eating and overall physical health.

Unless your pet eats all of its food at feeding time, it is best not to mix wet and dry food together. I know that Ebby will eat just about anything I give to her, but Zoey is a bit more hesitant. When I add a new can to their nightly meal, I put some in a separate bowl for both so that if they do not take to it, I have not ruined the main dish of gently cooked raw sprinkled with a variety of Stella and Chewy freeze-dried products. I have stopped feeding kibble, although for many who have bigger dogs, kibble is more affordable, but still better with some can, and cold water. More on this topic later.

My last article on hematomas, swellings like blood blisters which can affect any part of a pet's body but are most frequently in the ears from a variety of causes leading to trauma. I took one of our shelter cats, Ziggy, to the vet at the beginning of last week. The hematoma was drained but filled up again overnight. He was operated on Tuesday this week. I sent him with one of our soft cones that also has clear areas for him to see through and is attached to his collar. I will let you know how he manages with it.
