f 116 W 1ST AVE - NORTH WILDWOOD

Hi, my name is Rachael Stanton. Myself along with my husband, brothers and sister, Aaron, Dallas (Tiffany), Tabitha (Bill), Teddy (Courtney), Doug and Cory are raising money for our father Mark Bohn. Some may know and others do not, but our father was diagnosed with Colon Cancer recently. This has shattered our world but we know everything will be okay in the end. Mark is a loving husband to our mother Cyndi, amazing father of 6 and a incredible Poppy to his 16 grand children. Family is everything to our father. We are asking for help because he does not have health insurance and is the head of his house. If you know our father he will help any one in need. He will take his shirt off his back and never ask anything in return. He also helps coach rec wrestling and has for many years out of the greatness of his heart. Hundreds of children look up to our father over the years and still do. The kids mean everything to him and he plans on still being there as much as he can handle during treatment. He is one to never ask for help but we have told him he has to put his pride down and let his community that he helps so much return the favor. While medical bills have already started, he is trying to keep his business going too. He is owner of DMB Plumbing. Though right now he is working still, when treatment kicks in he will have to slow down. Our mother also owns A Piece of Cake and she will have to be by our fathers side during this journey. Our biggest worry is helping our parents with the medical bills and the house. Any thing donated or a simple share means the world to all of us and helps tremendously. We thank everyone for help during this time.

HOROSCOPE

DECEMBER 29 - JANUARY 4, 2023

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)
 You can make money if you work on personal investments. You can accomplish a lot if you deal with other people's money or possessions this week. Don't ignore any emotional issues that could be causing problems. You need to spend time with friends and family.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)
 You could experience unusual circumstances and meet eccentric individuals. Do not borrow or lend money or belongings to friends or relatives if you wish to avoid any hassles. Avoid any petty ego confrontations; they could lead to estrangement if you aren't careful. You will be uncertain of your feelings.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)
 Your ability to deal with others will help you accomplish your goals. You may find that you are a little lucky this week. Travel will promote new romantic encounters. Opportunities to make financial gains will develop through your connections with other people.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)
 Don't hesitate to come right out and ask for the pertinent information. You will be able to work in fine detail and present the best possible proposal. Double check your work and be sure that your boss is in a good mood before you do your presentation. Opportunities for travel and communication are evident.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)
 Brunch, a long walk, or a quiet dinner will secure your position in the relationship. Cultural activities will prove to be quite enlightening for everyone. You can expect changes in your financial situation as well as in your status. You can expect opposition from family as well as colleagues.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)
 Expect to experience a sudden reversal of fortune. Family members will not be happy with the amount of time you are spending away from home. You will get along well in social situations. If you're feeling uncertain, spend some time alone and reevaluate your motives as well as your needs.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)
 You may have difficulties with someone close to you. Opportunities to meet new lovers will come through pleasure trips or social events. You will be overly generous with children this week. Health problems may prevail if you haven't been getting enough rest.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)
 You can get phenomenal returns if you present your ideas to those who can back your interests. Direct your energy into physical entertainment. You can expect to face opposition on the home front. You can make new friends by taking part in social events involving colleagues.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)
 Don't trust a deal that looks too good, or a lover who appears to have it all. You will be well looked upon due to your compassionate and giving nature. Try to be patient with their inability to accept your new beliefs. Don't overspend on entertainment, on children, or make poor investments.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 20)
 Avoid lending money or belongings to friends. Use discrimination and play hard to get. Travel could include delays and other minor problems. You'll have great insight.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)
 Do not sign contracts or get involved in any uncertain financial deals. Your partner may make you feel jealous and unloved. You can make new friends who could turn into intimate connections if you join clubs or take creative courses. Your ability to communicate with ease will win the hearts of those you are in touch with this week.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)
 Curb your mood swings; they could result in loneliness. You may have to explain your actions to your family. Family talks may get a little combative. Your ability to stand out in a crowd will bring you the recognition you desire.

BACON DAY – December 30
 On December 30th each year, bacon lovers celebrate one of nature's favored gifts on Bacon Day! The day reminds us that bacon is not just for breakfast and encourages us to test out various ways to enjoy this culinary marvel. Everything is better with bacon, so someone said once. And our research shows very little to dispute this assertion. The United States and Canada make bacon from the pork belly. Other countries around the world use the side and back cuts of pork. The meat is cured in either a salt brine or a salt pack. It is then either dried, boiled, or smoked.

BISON LASAGNA

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 Lb Lasagna Noodles
- 1 Tbs Olive Oil
- 1 Lb Ground Bison
- 1 Qt Tomato Sauce
- 1 Pt Ricotta Cheese
- 12-14 oz Shredded Mozzarella Cheese
- 6 Tbs Parmesan Cheese
- 1/4 cup Kosher Salt
- Kosher Salt & Pepper to Taste

PREPARATION:
 Heat a pan with olive oil over medium high heat. Stir in ground bison. Season and cook bison through, strain and set aside. In a large pot, bring a gallon of water to a boil. Add salt and gently add in pasta. Stir gently for the first minute. Allow pasta to cook al dente. Strain pasta and cool with luke warm water. Grease an 11 x 7 oven-safe pan. Coat the bottom of pan lightly with tomato sauce. Lay 3 pieces of lasagna across the bottom of pan. Lay out another 3 pieces on top of the first 3. Now you have your base layer. Cover base layer with sauce. Add the meat and more sauce on top. Using a spoon, evenly distribute half of the Ricotta cheese. Sprinkle on 1/3 of the mozzarella cheese and 1/3 (2 Tbsp) of the parmesan cheese. Layer on 3 more pieces of noodles and repeat process. After second layer is done, place 3 more pieces of noodles down. Top with sauce and remaining mozzarella and parmesan. Wrap the top part of pan with plastic wrap. Next, cover with foil, shiny side out. Bake in a preheated 350° oven for 40 minutes. Remove foil and wrap from pan. Place back in oven and cook about 20 minutes. Allow to rest for 10 minutes. Cut and serve. Enjoy!

WINTER FRUITS

In the winter season, you might fall prey to frequent colds because of the cooler temperatures and shorter days. Staying at home mostly, during the past few years could have lowered your immunity too.

These winter season fruits are rich in Vitamin C which is an anti-oxidant important in cold weather to maintain body heat and strengthening your immune system. Eating seasonal fruits is not just healthy but they taste better because they are fresh.

Kumquats, pomelos, and lemons are also harvested throughout the winter season. These and other richly-flavored citrus fruits can help brighten up your winter diet, and ensure you're getting all of the right vitamins. Other in-season winter fruits include kiwis, pears, and persimmons.

NEW YEAR'S FUN FACTS

- LOOK BOTH WAYS - Back to the Future. It's very fitting that the first month of the New Year is named after a god who looks to the future and the past. The month of January is named after the Roman god Janus, who has two faces, one looking forward and one looking backward.
- "SHOULD AULD ACQUAINTANCE BE FORGOT" - Say what? Does anybody really get the words right on that song people sing when the clock strikes 12? The traditional song sung at midnight on New Year's is called "Auld Lang Syne," which means "times gone by." It was written by Scottish poet Robert Burns in 1788. Great Scott!
- DROPPING THE BALL - Oooooo, shiny. The dropping of the New Year's Eve Ball on New York's Times Square is almost a century-old-tradition. And the first ball, which weighed 700 pounds, was dropped on December 31, 1907. At midnight, approximately 3,000 pounds of confetti is dropped on the crowd in Times Square every year.
- POSSUM KINGDOM - Anything is "possumible." Who needs a ball of lights when you have ... a rodent? The town of Brasstown, North Carolina traditionally lowers a possum instead of a giant ball of lights on New Year's Eve. That tradition is known as "The Possum Drop." ... Yes, a possum.
- IT-SA ME, UNDIEN - Red underwear = good luck? That's right, apparently people in Italy wear red underwear on New Year's Day to bring them good luck throughout the year. So let's go buy some red undies and find out if it works!
- BORICUA BEACH BASH - Making a splash. In the Caribbean island of Puerto Rico, people flock to the beaches on New Year's Eve and drop backwards into the breaking waves as the clock strikes 12. This tradition is believed to keep bad spirits at bay throughout the new year.
- DOUBLE SHOT OF VODKA - Russians love to party! So much so that they celebrate the New Year twice. Once on January 1st and then again on January 14th! Guess there "ain't no party like a Russian party cause a Russian party don't stop!"
- CHINA-MITE! - Happy Moon Year. While firecrackers are traditional of pretty much any New Year's celebration, China does not celebrate a traditional New Year. Firecrackers in China symbolize "good luck in the coming year." But the Chinese New Year is celebrated during the second full moon after the winter solstice rather than on the first day of January.
- HEAD START - What's the "Rosh"? The Jewish New Year is known as Rosh Hashanah. And it's a tradition to eat apples and honey on this day. "Rosh" is Hebrew for "head"; "ha" is the definite article ("the"); and "shannah" means year. So "Rosh HaShanah" means "head [of] the year", referring to the Jewish day of new year.
- PENGUIN PARTY - Happy Feet. A testament to how big a celebration New Year's Eve is globally would be the fact that it's even celebrated in Antarctica! That's right, there's a music festival every New Year's Eve in the Antarctic called "Icestock"! Because who wouldn't want to bring in the New Year with a bunch of penguins, right?!
- NEW YEAR'S SMOOCH - Kiss-kiss, hooray! Ready for some midnight loving on New Year's Eve/Day? It is said that the traditional midnight kiss when the clock strikes 12 on New Year's Eve has something to do with the first person you come across in the new year setting the tone for the next 12 months. So you better choose who you kiss wisely!
- NEW YEAR'S THIEVES - Lock em up! Before you start your New Year's festivities, make sure you set your vehicle's alarm and keep your keys with you. Because according to data from the National Insurance Crime Bureau more vehicles are stolen on New Year's Day than any other holiday. So yeah, you might be saying "goodbye" to more than just the old year.
- TOP PICKS - Sin City, Mouse City and Big Apple City. Where are the best places in the United States to ring in the New Year? According to CBS.com, some of the top places in the United States to celebrate New Year's Eve include Las Vegas, Disney World and of course, New York City.
- HAIL NEW YEAR! - "When in Rome"? According to History.com, Roman Emperor Julius Caesar declared January 1st as a national holiday 4,000 years ago. So even when not in Rome, we're still doing as the Romans do.
- NEW YEAR'S CHEERS - A bubbly start. It is estimated that Americans drink close to 360 million glasses of sparkling wine during New Year's Eve celebrations. That's a lot of bottom's up!
- I GOTTA FEELING - That tonight's gonna be a good night. Most New Year's traditions are believed to ensure good luck for the coming year. And that includes some of the foods that are consumed. For example, many places in the United States believe the tradition of eating black-eyed peas on New Year's Day brings good luck for the rest of the year. Will that tradition amount to a hill of beans?

Stress Management Works for Holidays and Automobiles

In domino fashion, failing to plan for maintenance can turn small problems into larger ones, putting a serious dent in your automotive budget. The penalties of procrastinating on vehicle maintenance range from a heater that runs cold to a battery that won't start the car.

Take care of your car's seasonal services immediately and make plans to get ahead of the game next year. An early visit to your repair facility provides the opportunity to budget for unanticipated repairs. The Car Care Council offers the following checklist:

- Engine performance - A poorly maintained engine is hard to start in cold weather, if it starts at all. It may run rough and lose power. Have fuel, ignition and emission control systems checked, necessary components replaced and adjustments made.

- Battery and electrical system - How old is your battery? If it's three or more years old, it should be tested and replaced if necessary. Even a strong battery that can deliver full power at 80 degrees F. will have dropped to 65 percent of its output at freezing temperature and only 40 percent at zero degrees.

Clean and tighten battery terminals, as loose or corroded connections can cause symptoms of a weak or dead battery.

- Oil and filter - Change both as recommended in the owner's manual, generally at 3,000-mile intervals for severe conditions and cold weather operation, especially when most driving is stop-and-go traffic. Check the owner's manual for more information on severe service or refer to Car Care Council's Service Interval Schedule.

- Visibility - Replace old wiper blades and be sure your washers are working. Carry spare washer solvent in your vehicle.

- Cooling system - A vehicle's antifreeze should be changed annually, or as recommended in the owner's manual. Flush the cooling system every 24 months. The recommended mixture is 50/50 antifreeze and distilled water. Have the system pressure tested for leaks and check hoses and drive belt(s) for tension and condition.

- Tires - Inspect, balance, check inflation and rotate tires. Check inflation on the spare and make sure the jack is in place.

- Lights - Check all lights and replace burned out bulbs.

- Exhaust System - Have the vehicle put on a lift for an inspection of the exhaust system. Leaking exhaust fumes can be deadly.

Some pet owners do not realize the importance of sheltering their dogs from the bitter winds that rip through Cape May County or the freezing rain that soaks their coat and skin. Some "tough it out" customers have said their dog is just fine or that it loves the cold weather and snow. Kids love the snow but would we allow them outside to play in a tee shirt? I am repeating myself for the umpteenth time how it breaks my heart to see a short-hair dog (really any dog) that lives in a heated home being taken for a walk on cold pavement or asphalt "naked" while their parent is all bundled up with hooded jacket, boots and gloves. I am not saying that your dog necessarily should be dressed in boots, although if you could (I know Ebby would not like me playing around with her paws), that would be ideal. I am beseeching you to consider your dog's joints and muscles, especially young puppies, older dogs, and those recuperating from an injury or illness. A pet living in a heated home does not grow a natural winter coat of their own. Even the mushers in Alaska, where the dogs live outside, add jackets and boots when they are working the sleds.

Sometimes I hear, "My dog only stays out for a few minutes to go to the bathroom." Those few minutes could become many more minutes if you get distracted or busy, or the dog finds something interesting outside to pursue. But I'd like to see you go out with your naked dog while he does his business, wearing your pajamas. I have my dogs covered in the Gold Paw fleece series cozy stretch top - indoors as they are trimmed short - and I put a jacket over that when they go out. They each have two jackets, one heavier than the other, for really cold weather or snow. I fought all last winter to get something on Ebby, the fear-biter I rescued, to no avail. Thus, I let her coat grow and monitored her time outside. This past spring, I got her used to a soft Velcro harness that fitted to her waist. She would be rewarded with a walk around the circle with Zoey. She became so excited and trusting that we were able to transition to sweaters and jackets. She absolutely hated to have rain on her and gave me a very difficult time getting her out. I had to use a slip lead and literally drag her out with me until she'd go potty. Then dry her off as much as she'd let me... Now, covered, she happily goes out in any weather.

We have well-made weather-resistant jackets by Weatherbeeta and a selection of other coats and sweaters. They are quality and long-lasting. You get your money's worth. Although we would like your business as a small community enterprise, I encourage you to scout out other shops or thrift stores just to get your pet some protection and sustain his healthy joints. It will make your life easier, as well, when you don't have to use time and towels to dry off your wet dog, or smell that wet dog odor! Every sweater or coat we sell is at least $10 less than you would pay online.

WISHING YOU ALL A BLESSED NEW YEAR FULL OF GOOD HEALTH, BETTER PROSPERITY, TIME WITH FRIENDS AND FAMILY AND RESOLUTIONS OF ANY PROBLEMS WITHIN YOUR CONTROL. LOVING ON YOUR PETS WILL HELP!

THIS IS AN IMPORTANT REPEAT ARTICLE. I'VE BEEN SHORT-HANDED THIS WEEK. PEOPLE ARE SICK WITH COVID AND OTHER AILMENTS. PICTURE IS OF MY RESCUE-FAIR BITER-EBBY IN ONE OF HER GOLD PAW COVER-UPS.
