HOROSCOPE

AUGUST 10 - AUGUST 16, 2023

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

Keep your feelings to yourself if you want to avoid embarrassment. Finish off old projects before starting something new. Physical limitations are possible if you aren't careful. Travel will be in your best interest regardless of whether it is business or pleasure.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

Health problems may prevail if you haven't been getting enough rest. A female colleague may cause problems for you. You can help a close friend find solutions to personal problems. Catch up on any correspondence you've neglected.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

You can make financial gains through your unique and creative approach to business. Social activity should be on your agenda this week. You may need help with your financial situation. Take the time to do something nice for your friends and relatives.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Secret affairs can only lead to devastating circumstances. Channel your energy into projects that will enhance your home. You'll find it easy to deal with government agencies or large institutions. Relatives will want to get together.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

Your attitudes are changing rapidly. Red tape could be impossible to clear up this week. You really can't do anything to change matters this week. Problems with skin, bones, or teeth may mess up your schedule.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

Pleasure trips or friendly get-togethers will be satisfying and intellectually stimulating. Partnerships may be strained if one of you has been erratic and hard to deal with. Use your obvious talent to work with detail and you can come up with something great. Don't let coworkers interfere with your objectives.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

You may have the day off but your thoughts will be on your work and your cash situation. You are best not to discuss your personal life with others. You may have difficulties finishing projects you start. Be wary of those who have overly strong convictions.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)

Your personal secrets may be revealed if you let coworkers in on your family dilemmas. Take on positions that offer on the job training or pay for courses related to the business. Your positive attitude and intellectual outlook will draw others to you. Opportunities will come through long term investments.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

Restrictions may be difficult for you to live with, but try to do things by the book. You can enjoy social events and meet new potential mates; however, avoid being lavish. You can make or break your personal relationship this week. It may not be the best day to confront employers or to present your ideas.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 - Jan. 20)

You may find that purchases or entertainment could be expensive. Help children with important projects. You can expect to have some problems with skin, bones, or teeth if you haven't taken proper care of them. Be aware that minor accidents or injury may prevail if you are preoccupied.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)

Travel will result in new romantic attractions. Get into some activities that will help you in making new friends. Spend time with youngsters this week. Old friends may not like your choices.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Beware of colleagues who don't have your best interests in mind. Travel and family gatherings should be in order. Do your own thing without drawing attention to it. Be aware that you might be at fault as well.

The Wildwoods Host Baseball on the Beach During Two Weekends in August

The Wildwood Beach Baseball Tournament, presented by MudHen Events, is an annual youth baseball tournament held on the beach behind the iconic Wildwoods Sign, at Ocean and Rio Grande Avenues. The tournament is for youth baseball teams 9U-13U and spans over two weekends in August. The first tournament takes place Friday, August 11 through Sunday, August 13; the second tournament takes place Friday, August 18 through Sunday, August 20.

Spectators can watch from the Wildwoods Boardwalk during the Home Run Derby event starting at 6 p.m., on each Friday of the tournaments, August 11, and August 18. A full day of baseball takes place each Saturday of the tournaments, from 7:45 a.m. - 8 p.m.; with the championship games taking place each Sunday from 7:45 a.m. - 5:30 p.m.

Baseball on the Beach presents a unique element to America's favorite pastime and offers entertainment for all ages and families. The beach element makes it more difficult to field ground balls and to field fly balls, making the game more challenging and exciting.

For more information call 609.522.0159 ext. 110 or visit www.WildwoodBeachBaseball.com. For additional information about the Wildwoods, visit www.WildwoodsNJ.com or call 800-992-9732.

NATIONAL LAZY DAY – August 10

On August 10th, National Lazy Day

gives us permission to relax and kick back. So, we're going to be a bit lazy here. #NationalLazyDay

As you can see, there is not much information regarding this annually celebrated holiday as we do not feel like doing any research. Actually, we do not feel like doing anything at all. Consequently, we are in our hammocks with a couple of good books and glasses of lemonade and iced tea. Yes, it is a Lazy Day. We choose to be lazy rather than tell much more about this day.

PLAY IN THE SAND DAY | Aug 11

On Friday, August 11, let us celebrate Play in the Sand Day to remind people to get outside, enjoy the sunshine, and create some fun in the sand. #PLAYINTHESANDAY

Get ready to dig deep and sink your feet into Play in the Sand Day! Each year on August 11, we're heading outside to play on a beach, at a park, or in our backyard to enjoy the summer sunshine, while playing in the sand.

5 Health Benefits of Playing in Sand

Stimulates senses. Touching sand and stimulates senses and enhances sensory development. The texture of the sand, the sound it makes when moved, and the feeling of it running through fingers heighten sensory nervous system. The Wildwoods - Doo Wop Capital of the World

Step into the past in the Wildwoods, where you'll discover the highest concentration of mid-century commercial architecture in the country. Embark on a journey through the five-mile island and witness a captivating array of mid-century themed hotels, motels, and businesses. These charming establishments pay homage to their original predecessors from the 1950s and '60s, boasting bold architecture, decor, and colors that transport you back in time. Born during an era when the nation's spirit was captured by architectural styles like "Googie," "Populux," or "Doo Wop," these buildings sprung up in the Wildwoods and continue to captivate visitors with their nostalgic charm. Plastic palm trees tower over kidney shaped pools, juttied roof angles, and wrought iron balconies - whimsical names and flamboyant themes give these similarly styled buildings individual character. Vivid imagery and vibrant colors of aqua, oranges, and pinks bombard the eye of the motoring public, as bright neon signs beckon to travelers, each blatantly attempting to outdo their neighbor. The motels and their ample parking reflect the burgeoning era of automotive travel of the 1950s. The designs and architectural features pay tribute to the post-war pop culture. Their architecture continues to memorialize the bold spirit of a newly restless society, while motel names conjure up tropical paradises and other exotic destinations. A visit from Disney "Imagineers" to the Wildwoods in the 1990's for inspiration and ideas to complete their beach-and-boardwalk themed hotel, brought the realization to local Wildwoods business owners that their "unique surroundings" were a significant slice of Americana and a key part of mid-century history. Out of this came the formation of the Doo Wop Preservation League in 1996. The League embarked on its mission to "foster awareness, appreciation, and education of the popular culture and imagery of the 1950s in an effort to promote preservation and unique renovations to the 220+ circa 1950s (doo wop) buildings in the Wildwoods." Steve Izenour, world-renowned architect of Venturi, Scott Brown, and Associates, headed a study that revealed the Wildwoods to have the largest collection of flamboyant circa 1950s mid-century architecture in the nation, now labeled "Doo Wop". As Art Deco is to South Beach, Doo Wop is to the Wildwoods, giving it its unique and distinct flair. More than 90 of what once were hundreds of historically significant motels remain in the Wildwoods, while some newer business arrivals, such as the TD Bank, McDonalds, and Wawa have incorporated the Doo Wop theme into their architecture. It is exciting to see that the privately owned, family-oriented motels are today being preserved and enhanced and becoming more popular than ever. But it's even more exciting to see new construction adopting the Doo Wop style in their design. The preservation movement was given a big boost in 2006 when the National Trust for Historic Preservation named the motels of the Wildwoods among the "Eleven Most Endangered Historic Sites in America." The value and importance of preserving, and building upon, Wildwood's Doo Wop architecture and lifestyle was recognized by the National Trust as an important American asset to be enjoyed by future generations. In 2011, the Wildwoods' Caribbean Motel was named to the Historic Hotels of America registry - the only motel to ever receive that designation. The Caribbean Motel and Chateau Bleu Motel are both listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Now billing the Wildwoods as the "Doo Wop Capital of the World," the Doo Wop Preservation League continues to move forward on many fronts. The League has developed a design manual titled "How to Doo Wop" that is given to developers of new construction to encourage them to incorporate Doo Wop design elements into their new properties. The Wildwoods' Doo Wop Experience Museum and Neon Sign Garden - brimming with cool artifacts, fun memories, fascinating history, and bright neon lights - offers visitors a chance to learn more about the Doo-Wop era of American culture. Located at 4500 Ocean Avenue in Wildwood, free to explore, and open seasonally from April to October - the museum is a celebration of architecture, design, music, pop culture, and everything else that made the Wildwoods famous in its heyday of the 1950s and 1960s. Outside at the entrance to the museum, a neon sign garden exhibits restored neon signs that were rescued from old Wildwood landmarks whose fate was a date with the wrecking ball. The entire complex glows with as much exuberance and optimism as the property's original Surfside Restaurant was intended to exude in its day...only this time, it's signaling in a whole new era of appreciation for Doo Wop in the Wildwoods! The Doo Wop Experience Museum hosts a Doo Wop Bus Tour that runs two nights weekly throughout the summer. For a small fee, guests can hop on board the bus and take a step back in time with a guided tour of the largest concentration of Doo Wop architecture in the country. Tour goers will learn about the shapes, images, and symbols of the '50s architecture, along with the fractured geography and Space Age intonation of the time during this award-winning tour. Also reflective of the Fabulous Fifties era and carrying the legacy onto the Boardwalk are the Wildwoods Icon Wall Murals. The Greater Wildwoods Tourism Improvement and Development Authority (GWTIDA) conceived and developed the Icon Wall Mural projects to beautify selected public spaces and heighten appreciation of how the Wildwoods evolved over the decades into a living, breathing slice of Americana. The Icon Wall Murals feature key music icons that have significantly contributed to Wildwoods' colorful history and unique culture that has drawn people of all ages to this shore resort destination for generations. Bobby Rydell, Bill Haley and the Comets and Chubby Checker are the subjects of three iconic Icon Wall Murals that are located throughout the Wildwoods celebrating the Wildwoods' rich musical history and its claim as the true "Birthplace of Rock 'n Roll Music." The Doo Wop Preservation League and the Wildwoods are preserving and enhancing the best of their past as they continue to build a year-round resort and recreation destination for the 21st century. For additional information about the Wildwoods, visit www.WildwoodsNJ.com or call 800-992-9732.

THE ULTIMATE CAR MAINTENANCE CHECKLIST, PT. 1

OIL & COOLANT LEVELS: Every month, or every few gas fill-ups and especially before any longer road trips, it's a good idea to get under the hood of your car and inspect both the oil and coolant levels while the engine is cool. Low levels of either can lead to engine problems if left unchecked. Refer to your owner's manual to locate both on your specific vehicle.

AIR FILTER: Your engine's air filter is what regulates the air that flows into your engine and helps keep out debris and particulate. By making certain that your air filter is flowing properly, you can improve your fuel efficiency, decrease your emissions, and help ensure the life of your engine. This can be done easily at home, so check your owner's manual for instructions and how often it needs to be changed.

TIRE PRESSURE AND TREAD DEPTH: Since well-maintained tires are integral to a safe, fuel-efficient ride, make it a habit to visually inspect your tires often. Check the pressure in your tires every month, and before long trips or carrying extra load. Don't forget the spare. A tire pressure gauge will be needed to check your tire pressure. Also, during the colder months, note that tire pressure drops one pound with every 10 degree decrease in pressure. Your owner's manual will tell you how much air pressure your tire needs. You can check your tread depth using the simple penny method.

HEADLIGHTS, TURN SIGNALS, BRAKE, AND PARKING LIGHTS: It's important that the lights on your vehicle are properly functioning, but oftentimes it can be easy item to overlook. Once a month, turn on your headlights when you're parked in front of a flat surface and check that both headlights are working properly and well-positioned. Walk around your car and visually inspect both turn signals and your parking lights. Have a friend stand behind the car while you engage the brakes to be certain that your brake lights are functional.

OIL & FILTER: The motor oil in your vehicle's engine serves a whole slew of functions: it lubricates the moving parts, helps act as a sealant against debris, cools the engine, reduces wear and tear, and helps prevent engine corrosion. Keeping it clean is vital for good engine health. Depending on your car and what kind of oil you're using, you may need to change both the oil & oil filter as much as every 3 months or 3000 miles. Many newer vehicles' owners' manuals will recommend changing your oil less frequently - often in-between 5,000 and 10,000 miles. Check your vehicle owner's manual and consult with a professional to be certain what is appropriate for your vehicle.

ROTATE TIRES: Depending on your vehicle alignment, usage, and many other factors, the tread wear patterns on your tires may vary between the front and back tires, or even from one side of the tread to the other. Rotating your tires will help to extend the service life of your tires by more evenly balancing the tread wear, and helping prevent noise and vibration problems.

WAX VEHICLE: Making certain to wax your vehicle every six months after washing it won't just keep it shiny, it'll also help to keep both the paint in good shape and reduce the chance of rust. Many irritants such as dust, sand, and salt can build up and environmental factors like ozone and ultraviolet light can cause microscopic damage, but waxing can help minimize this by forming a protective seal to extend your paint's life.

LONG TERM CHECK-UPS TRANSMISSION FLUID: Much like the oil in your engine, transmission fluid is a lubricant that helps keep all of the moving parts inside of your transmission functioning properly. Whether you're driving an automatic or manual transmission vehicle, it is essential that you have your transmission fluid checked and changed when needed to avoid costly transmission damage or replacement. Follow the vehicle manufacturer's recommendations.

TRANSFER CASE FLUID: In four-wheel or all-wheel drive vehicles, the transfer case is what shifts power from the transmission to the axles. You'll need to have the transfer case fluid checked according to the vehicle manufacturer recommendations to make certain that it is properly filled and leak-free. This will require you getting under the vehicle, so bringing it into a professional is recommended.

INSPECT SHOCKS AND STRUTS: The shocks and struts on your car function to control the impact and rebound as your vehicle passes over bumps in the road and are an essential part of your auto's steering system. They should be inspected by a professional every 50,000 miles or bring your car in to the shop if you notice a decrease in smoothness or loss of control when driving.

PPAWS - People & Puppies at Work for Sight

"MEET THE PACK!"

Benefits of Raising a Seeing Eye Puppy

There are so many great reasons to raise a Seeing Eye puppy, but we decided to name just a few for you. We sincerely appreciate all those who are already active puppy raisers and cannot wait to see how the community continues to grow as new puppy raisers join us in our mission. If you want to learn more about puppy raising be sure to check out seeingeey.org/raise

Photo Description: A golden retriever puppy sits atop a digital list that reads "Benefits of Raising a Seeing Eye puppy - Adorable puppy guaranteed - Giving back always feels great - Be part of a family-like community - Guided by supportive club leaders & area coordinators - Tips & resources available - Veterinary care costs covered - Stipend for dog food - Continue the legacy of the oldest existing guide dog school in the world"

PPAWS (People & Puppies at Work for Sight) is a dedicated group of local families from Atlantic and Cape May Counties, which raise these amazing puppies for The Seeing Eye. Until a Seeing Eye dog is ready for training, he or she lives with a puppy raising or foster family that gives the dog love, gentle guidance, and consistent care. These volunteers nurture their puppy to accomplish its special destiny. If you are interested in raising a puppy for The Seeing Eye, call Peter at (609)804-8774 or visit seeingeey.org/raise for info.

WHY A VET MAY RECOMMEND PROZAC FOR YOUR DOG

Submitted By Patsy Nelson
from The Wagging Tail

My niece, who lives outside Philadelphia, adopted a now two-and-a-half-year-old mix breed dog from a reputable shelter about six months ago. She is in a nursing program and must spend long gaps of time doing her on-site studies; leaving Buckley to be walked by different dog walkers, or by her mother, or sending him to doggie daycare, or boarding him for weekends. Not only has it been hugely expensive but emotionally trying on both human and dog who long to spend more time together. When she came down for a visit with Buckley two months ago, I saw a depressed dog and a stressed-out person. Buckley enjoys doggie day care, and the place where he boards, but he has taken offense to being walked by various employed strangers with whom he has no bond, to the point that his protests are verging on aggression. Overall Buckley is very accepting of dogs and people, but I would not call him a jolly soul. My niece has consulted many specialists and behaviorists and is feeling guilty at the thought of rehoming him, like she is the failure when in fact he just may be the wrong match for her current (and future) lifestyle as he would do better with consistent human interaction and stimulation. Her two cats for company in a small apartment are not enough. Her vet has now started Buckley on Prozac.

Prozac may help rescue pets with bad life experiences like abandonment and/or abuse. Ebby, I later learned, may have been abused by the old man's wife, as she was supposedly his dog. Ebby has become quite friendly to neighbors and contract workers stopping by-until yesterday when she growled and snapped at Stu. "I thought I was your friend." Stu sadly remarked to her. Luckily, she did not bite him. Although I have been giving Ebby CBD oil in her nightly meal and a CBD Pet Stress Relief when we go to the vet or she gets groomed, we must always be on alert with her. My niece does not know much about Buckley's previous life. But the moment she was introduced, he rolled his sixty-pound body over in her lap for belly rubs. She was "hooked line and sinker." Buckley is her very first canine pet.

The generic name for Prozac is Fluoxetine. It is a drug that has been widely used for humans to treat certain anxiety disorders and more recently (perhaps 25 years), for companion animals suffering from anxiety and anxiety related anti-social and destructive behaviors. Prozac is a serotonin enhancer, giving longer feelings of happiness and well-being. "Serotonin is a chemical that carries messages between nerve cells in the brain and throughout the body. It plays a key role in such body functions as mood, sleep, digestion, nausea, wound healing, bone health, blood clotting, and sexual desire." It is especially helpful to dogs that are anxious and depressed. It is not particularly costly and can be a means to controlling a pet's aggression, fear of thunderstorms, anxiety around strangers, compulsive disorders (like Zoey licking her feet) and urine marking. Compulsive disorders also include, "licking of wrists and ankles, light or shadow-chasing, tail-chasing, rock chewing, compulsive digging and even compulsive swimming." Prozac has been used very successfully with SEPARATION ANXIETY.

Keep in mind that Prozac may not be the cure-all for every dog. It takes a few weeks to take full effect. Although it may not work for your dog there are similar drugs that you might try. Prozac must be monitored by your vet as it can cause reduced appetite, lack of energy, itchiness, and when given more than needed, anxiety, tremors, restlessness or panting. It also might be necessary to combine a Prozac regimen with behavior modification techniques and/or desensitization to the negative triggers. Don't allow stigmatization of this drug to cause you to despair or refuse its potential success. Although it may help Buckley to accept his new life's order, it still may not be the best home for him or he the best companion for my niece at this time.
