KISSING YOUR DOG MAY NOT BE THE BEST IDEA

Submitted By Patsy Nelson

Owner of The Wagging Tail 1987 - 2025

I would like to get kisses from my nine-year-old Maltese, Zoey, but they are few and far between. However, she kisses Bob all the time, then gets excited if he is holding her against his chest talking baby talk to her and tries to thrash at his face with her paws often giving him a bad scratch with her nails. (masochist?) Ebby, on the other hand, will kiss me over and over, but rarely gives Bob a lick as much as he "Cooos" and begs her.

Pet owners can be crazy about showering their pets with kisses. I am one of them. I have tried only once in the last nearly four years since adopting Ebby, to kiss her belly, as she moved to bite me. That was within the first year. But she pleads with her eyes and her body to rub and tickle her belly all the time. She is reactive and would not mean to hurt me. But I kiss her all the time around her face and her ears, and I do even grab her snout and plant a kiss on her mouth. I find that all animals are very responsive to kissing as a sign of love.

I had to take her to the vet Dr. Mike, on Monday and back again yesterday morning and last night, as she was feeling quite unwell, vomiting, would not eat (except an obsession with certain grass in the backyard-no fertilizer) and would not drink. I will know more when the blood work comes back tomorrow. Dr. Mike suspects she may have an autoimmune disease like Addison's, which Zoey has, and about which I recently wrote in my two-week articles on Autoimmune diseases in dogs and cats. Or she may have pancreatitis. This morning thanks to her cortisone shot, she is back to eating, drinking, barking, and wagging her tail. When Dr. Mike remarked about her giving me a lick as I took her off the table, I thought about something I had read in Reader's Digest.

According to the article (September 2024) there was a recent survey revealing that 61% of dog owners admit to kissing their dogs on the mouth. Even though there is the possibility of zoonotic (animal-to-human) diseases, including Pasteurella, which results in skin inflammation and joint infections (I have skin issues and joint inflammation;) salmonella (stomach cramps, fever) and E. coli (diarrhea, bloodstream infections.) The chances of Ebby or Zoey passing a parasite or anything else to us is low, except... when it isn't. "If you're young, old, pregnant or immunocompromised, if you have bad acne or psoriasis or an easily infected open wound, I'd avoid being licked on the face," advises veterinarian Scott Weese, chief of infection control at Ontario Veterinary College. Pick your licks wisely, as anything they licked, dogs lick EVERYTHING! (Ebby licks her butt a lot) may end up inside you. "For lots of people, kissing is a part of bonding with their pet. If that's you and the risk is worth it, that's fine." I don't know if I could ever quit wanting those kisses.

Articles are also on my Facebook page, Patricia Robinson Nelson. I would love your comments. Email me at patsyrob1@gmail.com with concerns.

HOROSCOPE

APRIL 30-MAY 3, 2026

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

Momentum returns, but it requires a smarter approach than before. You may need to adjust how you're going after something rather than pushing harder. Pay attention to what's working and what isn't. Strategy now beats speed.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

Something begins to feel more settled, giving you room to think clearly about your next step. Use that stability to make a decision you've been putting off. Comfort is helpful, but growth still requires movement. Don't stay still too long.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

Conversations pick up pace, and something said in passing may carry more weight than expected. Listen carefully before reacting. Not every response needs to be immediate. Thoughtful timing strengthens your position.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Practical matters come into focus, especially around time, money, or energy. A small shift in how you manage one of these areas can create noticeable relief. Keep it simple and consistent. Stability comes from repetition.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

You're stepping into a more visible role this week, whether you planned to or not. How you carry yourself matters more than what you say. Stay confident without overplaying it. Presence does most of the work.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

Something that felt unclear begins to sort itself out quietly. You don't need to chase answers—they're already forming. Give it space and avoid overanalyzing. Clarity arrives when you stop forcing it.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

A shift in your social or professional circle brings new perspective. You may find yourself aligning more closely with people who think differently than you do. Stay open without losing your center. Balance comes from flexibility.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

Your focus turns toward long-term direction and what actually holds value. A decision now may shape more than just the immediate moment. Take your time and weigh it carefully. Depth matters more than speed.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

You're drawn toward something that expands your thinking, whether through a conversation, idea, or opportunity. Follow that curiosity, but stay grounded in reality. Growth works best when it's supported by structure.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.- Jan. 20)

A situation calls for a more measured response than you might initially want to give. Hold back just enough to fully understand what's happening. Control comes from patience, not reaction. Timing strengthens your position.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

Relationships require clearer communication this week, especially where expectations have been left unspoken. Something that has been avoided may need to be addressed directly. Keep it honest but steady. Clarity strengthens connection.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Your attention shifts toward routine and how you're managing daily life. Small improvements create a noticeable difference in how everything flows. Focus on what's sustainable, not what's perfect. Consistency keeps things moving.

WHAT IS CINCO DE MAYO REALLY ABOUT?

When in 1861 Mexico declared a temporary moratorium on the repayment of foreign debts, English, Spanish, and French troops invaded the country. By April 1862 the English and Spanish had withdrawn, but the French, with the support of wealthy landowners, remained in an attempt to establish a monarchy under Maximilian of Austria and to curb U.S. power in North America. On May 5, 1862, a poorly equipped mestizo and Zapotec force under the command of General Ignacio Zaragoza defeated French troops at the Battle of Puebla, southeast of Mexico City; about 1,000 French troops were killed. Although the fighting continued and the French were not driven out for another five years, the victory at Puebla became a symbol of Mexican resistance to foreign domination. The city, which was later renamed Puebla de Zaragoza, is the site of a museum devoted to the battle, and the battlefield itself is maintained as a park.

The day is celebrated in the state of Puebla with parades, speeches, and reenactments of the 1862 battle, though it is not much noticed in most of the rest of the country. In the mid-20th-century United States, the celebration of Cinco de Mayo became among Mexican immigrants a way of encouraging pride in their Mexican heritage. Cinco de Mayo is not to be confused with Mexican Independence Day, which falls on September 16. The latter holiday was established in 1810, some 50 years before the Battle of Puebla occurred.

NATIONAL ADOPT A SHELTER PET DAY

Each year, National Adopt a Shelter Pet Day on April 30th raises awareness for thousands of pets that are waiting for (and needing) adoption from the shelters. Animal shelters require year-round assistance and adoption is a part of the process. Since animals come in daily, the shelters must work quickly to ensure the animal's health and well being. Only then can they be adopted into their forever home. The day also encourages you to visit a shelter near you and find your new fur baby. Visit with the shelter to consider all the needs the dog or cat requires for the long term. If you feel you can't meet those needs, consider helping in other ways. Give your time by volunteering. Not only will this help the shelter by providing the animals with exercise, companionship, and socialization, but it also gives you that wonderful animal love we all so enjoy. You can also check the shelter's donation needs list. Bring the items you are able to give. This will help the shelter animals find their forever homes more quickly.

VEHICLE ACCESSORIES:

WHEN IT'S NOT QUITE SUMMER YET, PT 1

Here are 13 practical essentials and convenient accessories to take along on your spring outing.

1. Cabin air purifier with ionizer: Neutralize airborne bacteria, pollen irritants and lingering odors that can sneak into your cabin every time the door opens. Ionizers release negative ions that bond with airborne particles that trap and remove them. Choose low-noise models that plug into your 12V port and run quietly in the background.

2. Roof rack & cargo carrier: Heading out with surfboards, picnic baskets or hiking gear? You definitely need extra storage space. A roof rack or cargo carrier keeps your cabin clutter-free and passengers comfortable. It's perfect for long drives and allows you to pack larger or oddly shaped items without compromising safety.

3. Portable power bank and multiport charger: Ensure your smartphones, tablets, GPS devices and other devices remain powered throughout your journey. Multiport chargers let you charge multiple devices at once. Get a high-capacity model with fast-charging capabilities. Always store a fully charged power bank in the glove compartment for emergencies or quick top-ups during pit stops.

4. Waterproof car seat covers: Protect your upholstery from wet jackets and muddy shoes from those unexpected spring showers. Seat covers are an easy way to prevent upholstery damage from kids, pets or outdoor accessories. Look for covers that are easy to install, removable and machine-washable after a messy day.

5. Retractable windshield shade with UV guard: Protect your dashboard and seats from sun fade while lowering interior temps by 10-20°F. Unlike basic foldable shades, retractable models pull out in seconds and tuck away neatly when not in use. Choose a shade with side-edge insulation that blocks small gaps which can heat your cabin faster during midday sun.

6. Emergency kit: Stock your kit with a flashlight, jumper cables, first-aid supplies, a tire-pressure gauge and multipurpose tool. Pack rain ponchos for sudden showers, sunscreen for longer daylight hours and allergy meds. Don't forget extra water, non-perishable snacks and a blanket for unexpected delays or detours.
