HOROSCOPE

NOVEMBER 30 - DECEMBER 6, 2023

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

It's not that you've been dishonest, as much as you've managed to avoid even discussing one particular, and troublesome, arrangement. Understandably, you fear that, judging by how difficult things are now, disentangling yourself will be very tricky. On the contrary. Simply suggest it. The rest will be easy.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

One of your most admirable characteristics, as a Taurus, is the way in which you'll keep your word with others, even if it's inconvenient or costly to you. However, you're urged to talk things over with the individuals in question, and soon. They'll benefit from the resulting discussions as much as you will.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

True, it's likely you'll be exhausted by the current swift pace of events. However, this has freed you to mention plans others rejected, in some cases, recently. The trick? Suggest them again, as if they'd just come to mind. Others are unlikely to recognise them as the ideas they've only just refused.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Discussing plans and turning them into action is one thing. You enjoy doing it and so do others. However, you've a powerful instinct about when those changes should be turned into action, something others lack. That being the case, the sooner you discuss the timing of your plans, the better.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

You don't think of yourself as being demanding, of others but, also, in your own life. This is because your standards are very different from those around you. At the moment, however, several individuals share the same challenges and same objectives. Join together. Once you do, you'll realise you can achieve miracles.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

The time has come to take a break. True, with several of your plans or projects only partially completed, you may regard this as weak or as an indication you lack conviction. On the contrary, once you've paused for long enough to be able to relax, you'll return refreshed and full of energy.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

The last thing you want is to upset anybody. Yet between changes in your own circumstances and equally unsettling developments in the lives of those who're involved with the matters in question, you're juggling even simple plans. The solution? Make plans, but ensure they're flexible enough to ride out these dramas.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

As a water sign, your feelings run deep and, equally, you've a powerful ability to sense what's coming. The problem? Not everybody understands about such feelings and, in fact, some pretend they don't exist. They may even laugh about them. Say nothing. Sooner or later they'll acknowledge the depth of their own feelings.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

If you're a typical Sagittarius, you've a low boredom threshold. In fact, you thrive on the unexpected from, being in unfamiliar places, unanticipated encounters and, especially, new ideas. You've plenty of exactly that coming your way. Waste no time trying to explain or justify your excitement to others. Simply plunge in.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22-Jan. 20)

Somebody seems determined to distract you from plans that you've not only worked hard to organise, you've been looking forward to turning them into action. Yet, you must admit, you've sensed something new, and unexpectedly exciting, is coming your way. It is. And, better yet, within days.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

You don't think of yourself as an intellectual, that is, somebody who, when challenging others, needs solid facts to even discuss plans. Now, however, you're facing individuals who're totally lacking in imagination. The solution? Use yours to explain what you have in mind and, in turn, to win them over.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Long ago you realised that certain people don't just thrive on disrupting moments of joy, they feel threatened by others' contentment. Tempting as it is to discuss this, adopt a different approach. Organise arrangements with others who, equally, savour disruption. It will be better for everybody, and in particular, for you.

Historic Cold Spring Village
Dec. 2 • 11am - 2pm
Wassail Day

The Village paths come alive with the sounds and smells of the holidays! Admission for Wassail Day is $5.00, FREE for HCSV Members. Advanced tickets are available by visiting hcsv.org and pressing the red TICKETS button. Ticket purchase is NON- REFUNDABLE. Rain or shine event. Live music provided by John and Jan Haigis, and Louann and Blair Cunningham. Select buildings will be open where guests can enjoy holiday décor, warm beverages, and tasty treats. Visitors can meet Father Christmas at the Country Store. The Country Store will be open and stocked with unique holiday gift ideas including traditionally processed wool, artisan crafts for the home, books, jewelry, toys, and old-fashioned candy.

Historic Cold Spring Village is a non-profit, open-air living history museum that portrays the daily life of a rural South Jersey community of the Early American era. Its mission includes the preservation of 27 historic Cape May County buildings, history education, and promoting heritage tourism. The Village is a museum for all seasons. During the summer months, historically clothed interpreters and artisans preserve the trades, crafts, and heritage of "the age of homespun."

From October to May, the emphasis is on teaching history through school trips to the Village, classroom visits by the education department, and interactive teleconferences with schools throughout the United States. The Village is located on Route 9, three miles north of Victorian Cape May and a mile and a half west of the southern end of the Garden State Parkway. For more information, call (609) 898-2300, ext. 10 or visit the Village website at www.hcsv.org.

THE DANGERS OF ARTIFICIAL DYES IN FOOD PRODUCTS AND TREATS

Submitted By Patsy Nelson
from The Wagging Tail

I was reading the Reader's Digest issue of November 2023 when I came upon an article in the health section about the harmful effects of artificial colors added to food that humans consume. Think about all the artificial colors in M&M's, Dots, Starburst, to mention a few. Many soups, cereals, snacks, cookies, puddings, Jello, and many beverages are guilty. It has been common knowledge for decades that artificial colors and flavorings have caused hyperactivity in some children which leads to learning deficits. Which dyes are the most dangerous has not had a worldwide consensus but new studies, due to consumer pressure, are in the works. Not only are the dyes, especially Red 40, Yellow 5, and Yellow 6, which are the most used in the United States, dangerous, but they are completely unnecessary. Their only purpose is to make them more attractive, more consumer enticing. There are many products that have synthetic dyes in them but why? Like pickles, flavored applesauce, chocolate cake mixes, marshmallows, and salad dressings.

According to the article, California restaurants will be required to identify what items on their menus contain such additives. "What makes the OEHHA report a game changer is that a regulatory agency is on the same page as scientists and advocacy groups." Since 2010, the European Union has mandated food and beverage companies to warn consumers about which of their products contain certain synthetic dyes including the three mentioned above, as being harmful to children. On the home front, Kraft Heinz reformulated their popular macaroni and cheese, using turmeric and paprika instead of Yellow 5 and Yellow 6. And Chipotle, Nestle USA and other big companies are finding ways to make their food healthier. Red 40 has been linked to colitis in mice. Further studies are being conducted linking these dyes to IBS and other issues.

What about our cats, dogs, small animals, and birds? We don't sell any treats (except on some of the icing on our bakery cookies) or food for dogs or cats, yet we were quite surprised that certain bird and small animal foods and treats contain them. Hopefully, all manufacturers will begin to ween away to more natural alternatives. If you buy food or treats for your pet at stores that sell inferior treats and foods, like Purina, Pedigree, Meow Mix, etc., you will find artificial dyes meant to appeal to you the consumer. They don't make a difference to your pet. Well, really, they do. Because of the dangers to your pet's health. According to Robert's STAY LOYAL blog which covered this topic, they can be very dangerous. I mentioned above about hyperactivity in children. We have many customers who complain about hyper dogs. Could they be pumping them with Beggin Strips, Hugs, Pup Peroni, or any other questionable treat. Caramel, Blue 2, Red 40 and Yellows 5 and 6 are linked to allergy like symptoms (itchy dog or cat?) Many of these are linked to cancer. Blue 2 is also linked to brain cancer. Yellow 5, which is banned in Europe, is linked to such issues as hyperactivity, aggression, allergies, and thyroid tumors. Yellow 6 is linked to skin issues as well as adrenal gland and kidney tumors. Remember too, that what may adversely affect an animal (chocolate) does not correlate to humans. There is absolutely no reason to subject your pet to these harmful chemicals, even if they are approved in the U.S. by our FDA, while banned overseas. And remember how the FDA blasted grain free dog food to cause Dilated cardiomyopathy-for over two years-only to finally admit there was no conclusive evidence. Money talks even when it comes to the exploitation of pet food.

I do welcome responses to my articles. Check them out on Facebook. Come visit our cat shelter and new kittens. Thank you for shopping local over the holidays.
