HOROSCOPE

DECEMBER 7 - DECEMBER 13, 2023

ARIES (Mar. 21 - April 20)
Currently, a range of exciting ideas, offers or opportunities are coming your way. Exciting as this sounds, most are in a form that isn't just unusual, in several cases, it's unrecognisable. The solution? Unwise as it seems, say a tentative "yes" to everything, knowing that in some cases you'll need to back out later.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
You don't think of yourself as impractical. And it's true, as an earth sign, you often check the facts before getting too involved in existing plans or future arrangements. However, somebody has just suggested something as appealing as it is risky. If you can't say no, at least discuss who'll be responsible for what.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
Recently you were discussing potential for changes in longstanding, but increasingly burdensome, arrangements. While you've talked these over with those involved, the word has spread, and has been misunderstood by many. Tempting as it is to hope this won't be a problem, the sooner you tackle it, the better.

CANCER (June 22 - July 22)
For some time you've managed to sidestep conversations about already sensitive matters, knowing that instead of making your point, you'd probably end up being blamed for the unwise decisions of certain individuals. The good news? You've the facts necessary to stand up to them. The sooner you do it, the better.

LEO (July 23 - Aug 22)
If you haven't already noticed, you're in a period during which seemingly simple arrangements are changing suddenly. What's more, they're forcing those involved to discuss the best way to handle these. The irony? You'll benefit more from the insights you gain in the process, than from resolving the actual problem.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 - Sept. 23)
Long ago you realised that, as much as you enjoy the company of certain individuals, they'll always find something to complain about, from the world around them, to others or, on occasion, you. While, often this is worrying, adopt others' approach. Which is to ignore their complaints.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
Nobody is better at sidestepping an argument than a Libra. But, also, as is becoming increasingly clear, tricky circumstances are forcing you to take a firm stance in certain situations and, equally, with certain individuals. The secret? Simply state your views and expectations of others, then firmly change the subject.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
Usually the unsettling influence of the Full Moon vanishes within a day, if not hours, afterwards. However, because the recent one accented the wise use of your resources, from time to money and even friendships, you'll still busy analysing several perplexing situations. Take it slowly. You'll learn a lot.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 21)
Often others ask what you're planning, over the coming days, weeks or month. However, for you, as a quick-thinking and inquisitive fire sign, while you'll make plans, you regard them as tentative. And you're always willing to rethink them. The odds are good that's exactly what you'll be doing, and soon.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22 - Jan. 20)
As a practical earth sign, ensuring plans make sense isn't just important, it a priority. However, with the Sun, the ideas planet Mercury and fiery Mars all in the most reflective part of your chart, the focus is on what you need to learn. This is far more important than you realise.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
You don't think of yourself as being unusually inquisitive until you begin discussing your plans, where you're going and what you're interested in exploring, discovering or learning. While there are some shared interests, you're surprised to realise many of yours are unique to you, and in some cases, to you alone.

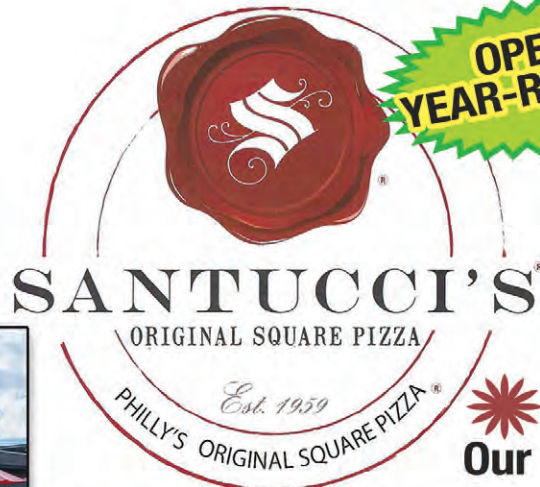

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar. 20)
On occasion, you like to surprise somebody you care about with a gift, or an unexpected venture out into the wider world. While some are delighted, and say so, others don't seem to enjoy it. The fact is, certain individuals are control freaks, and don't especially enjoy even the most exciting of surprises.

THE ANNUAL CHRISTMAS TREE LIGHTING CEREMONY TOOK PLACE AT HERFORD INLET LIGHTHOUSE ON SATURDAY, DECEMBER 2ND & FEATURED MUSIC, REFRESHMENTS & MR & MRS CLAUS

Recipe of the Week

HERB GRILLED QUAIL

INGREDIENTS:

- 4 Semi-Boneless Quail
- 1 Tbsp Olive Oil
- 1 tsp Fresh Finely Chopped Rosemary
- 1 tsp Fresh Finely Chopped Thyme
- 1 Tbsp Fresh Finely Chopped Parsley
- 1 Tbsp Fresh Chopped Chives
- Kosher Salt & Fresh Cracked Black Pepper to Taste

PREPARATION:

Preheat grill to medium high heat. Mix herbs together in a small container. Coat all the quail with oil. Season quail with salt and pepper. Sprinkle herbs all over the quail. Spray the grill with nonstick spray. Place quail on the grill breast side down. After achieving nice grill marks, flip the quail and cover with the lid. Allow quail to finish cooking through. Remove quail and allow them to rest for 5 minutes before serving. Enjoy!

Hint: I like to serve this over a nice arugula salad with a fruitful or citrus vinaigrette.

Historic Cold Spring Village
December 9th, 16th, 23rd 2023
Country Store OPEN ~ 12pm - 3pm

We've got jams and jellies, plush animals, artisan-wares like pottery mugs and tin. There's braided rugs and trivets of all kinds! All sorts of candies, jewelry, lotions and potions! Don't forget the games that don't require USB cables, batteries, plugs, or WIFI! There may be a sale going on as well! Stay tuned for that. If you are ahead of the shopping game and just want to unwind, consider a carriage ride around the Village for $10.00! You can check out Levi wearing his cute winter boots in all his fuzzy glory!

The Cold Spring Grange Restaurant will be open from 12 - 5pm with a yummy take-away menu, and the Cold Spring Brewery will be open as well from 12 - 8pm, with a lovely selection of beers and soda on tap.

Historic Cold Spring Village is a non-profit, open-air living history museum that portrays the daily life of a rural South Jersey community of the Early American era. Its mission includes the preservation of 27 historic Cape May County buildings, history education, and promoting heritage tourism. The Village is a museum for all seasons. During the summer months, historically clothed interpreters and artisans preserve the trades, crafts, and heritage of "the age of homespun."

From October to May, the emphasis is on teaching history through school trips to the Village, classroom visits by the education department, and interactive teleconferences with schools throughout the United States. The Village is located on Route 9, three miles north of Victorian Cape May and a mile and a half west of the southern end of the Garden State Parkway. For more information, call (609) 898-2300, ext. 10 or visit the Village website at www.hcsv.org.

10 WINTER DRIVING ACCESSORIES TO INCREASE SAFETY, COMFORT

Navigating the season's icy roads and chilly temperatures can pose challenges with harsh and unpredictable weather.

To ensure a safe and comfortable journey, equipping your vehicle with the right winter car accessories is essential. From safety essentials to comfort-enhancing gadgets, here's a curated list of top winter car accessories designed to make family travels smoother and safer.

1. Snow Chains (or winter wires): One of the most crucial accessories for winter driving is proper traction. Snow chains significantly improve grip on slippery roads, reducing the risk of skidding and accidents. Ensure they're the right fit for your vehicle and learn how to install them before hitting the road.

2. Emergency Kit: Pack an emergency kit that includes essentials like a first aid kit, flashlight, blankets, non-perishable snacks, water, a portable phone charger, and a basic toolkit. In case of unexpected delays or breakdowns, these items can be invaluable.

3. Heated Seat Covers: Keep everyone cozy during long drives with heated seat covers. They provide warmth and comfort, especially on frosty mornings. Some models even offer massage features to relieve fatigue.

4. Windshield Snow Cover: Avoid everyone's favorite task of scraping off layers of snow and ice from your windshield on a freezing morning by investing in a windshield snow cover to save time and keep your hands warm.

5. Blanket: Especially good for long winter road trips, having a blanket like a warm wool or military-style blanket to keep you toasty if stranded or your car's climate control system stops working. They also double as a protective seat cover if you are traveling with pets. Another option: Electric blanket that plugs into the vehicle's 12-volt DC outlet or power station.

6. Portable Car Heater: For older vehicles or situations where the car heater might not be sufficient, a portable car heater can keep all your passengers comfortable. It plugs into the car's lighter socket and helps warm up the interior quickly.

7. Snow Shovel and Ice Scraper: These classic winter tools are necessary for removing snow from around your car or freeing it from an icy exterior. A compact snow shovel and a sturdy ice scraper should always be on hand.

8. Car Roof Box: If you're traveling with the family and luggage, a roof box can provide much-needed extra storage space. Ensure it's weatherproof to protect your belongings from snow and moisture.

9. All-Weather Floor Mats: Invest in durable, easy-to-clean all-weather floor mats to protect your car's interior from slush, snow, and mud. They're especially useful when traveling with pets or kids.

10. Tire Traction Mats: When stuck in snow or ice, traction mats can help create traction under the tires, aiding in getting the vehicle unstuck.

Remember, preparation is key when it comes to winter travels. Regular vehicle maintenance, checking tire pressure, and topping off fluids are crucial steps alongside acquiring these essential accessories.

PHENOBARBITAL IN COMPARISON TO CBD FOR EPILEPSY

Submitted By Patsy Nelson
from The Wagging Tail

I used several searches for the following information. for most of the description of Phenobarbital I used an article written by Stephanie Howe, DVM from the petMD website.

Phenobarbital is an anti-convulsant, barbituate (sleep-inducing) medication used for humans and for many animals suffering from 'epilepsy, brain tumors, infectious disease processes, and even some toxins.' These include dogs, cats, horses, rabbits, cattle, and ferrets. Although it is approved by the FDA for human use, it has not been approved as a veterinarian medication for animals. However, veterinarians can legally prescribe human medications to pets in certain circumstances like epilepsy. Because it is considered a prescribed substance, it is illegal to share or give away Phenobarbital.

Phenobarbital is generally given at the same time every day. Taken with food it may reduce the risk of stomach upsets. If you miss a dose, talk to your vet, but never double dose. Other side effects may include lethargy (especially when beginning treatment), vomiting, diarrhea, loss of appetite, liver toxicity with prolonged use, and in cats, particularly, excessive itching of the face. Usually administered in pill form, cats can get a compound liquid form (Reef Pharmacy) or a gel that is applied to the hairless section of the inner ear. Pills or tablets should be stored at temperatures between 68-77° F, while the liquid version should be stored between 59-86° F. 'Keep the container tightly closed in order to protect the contents from moisture & light.' Overdoses can be life threatening. Contact your vet immediately or call the Pet Poison Hotline (855) 746-7661.

ON THE OTHER HAND...

The anti-convulsant effect of CBD has been confirmed for both humans & animals. the studies have been so promising that The American Kennel Club Canine Health Foundation is conducting their own research on CBD's efficacy with treating seizures in dogs through Colorado State University. Cannabinoids have been used medicinally, including for epilepsy, since about 2700 BCE, which translates to about 5,000 years ago, near the time the Egyptians built their first pyramid. It has only been in the last decade that recognition of its efficacy in humans & animals has been explored & has been used to supplement Phenobarbital or to replace it. What is even more 'radical' is the fact that there are NO BAD SIDE EFFECTS, as there are with Phenobarbital.

The body is full of receptors, & CBD is like a magnet pulled by the areas where your pet may be suffering. LACK OF APPETITE (I give it to Zoey, who has Addison's Disease, nightly), SEPARATION ANXIETY, EXCESSIVE BARKING, NAUSEA, from car rides, or STOMACH UPSET, GI TRACT ISSUES, LACK OF VITALITY OR ENERGY, TRIPS TO THE VET OR GROOMER (I give it to Ebby nightly to lessen here fear-biter instincts), MUSCLE SPASMS, PAIN FROM CANCER OR ARTHRITIS, (I give it to one of my cats , Mystery), RECOVERY FROM SURGERY, INFLAMMATION, PACING, FEAR OF THUNDERSTORMS, FIREWORKS, LOUD NOISES, GRUMPINESS OR AGGRESSION TOWARD ANOTHER ANIMAL it also acts as a NEUROPROTECTANT, protecting cell dysfunction & cell death. At The Wagging Tail, we sell, VERY SUCCESSFULLY, products by KING KANINE (liquid) & PET RELIEF (treats or liquid). I use both. I only use a treat with Ebby when she is getting groomed.
