HOROSCOPE

DECEMBER 21 - DECEMBER 27, 2023

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

In late November your ruler, Mars, moved into Sagittarius, triggering a cycle of questioning arrangements and exploring alternatives. While you've learnt a lot and made a few changes, by no means do you feel you've explored enough. Judging by the current planetary setup, you've lots more yet to discover.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

While there's no debating the good fortune that comes with the presence of Jupiter in Taurus, recognising the promise of unexpected events or encounters isn't always easy. Recently, in fact, you said "no" to certain ideas or offers, only to regret it later. Revisit these. The odds are good several are still distinctly possible.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

The first half of this week is dominated by the exciting ideas or offers and, equally, the timely encounters triggered by the link between your ruler Mercury and the fortunate Jupiter. For now, explore absolutely every idea or encounter. Learn as much as possible. Decisions? They can, and should, wait.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

As an intuitive Cancerian, you dislike leaving others to struggle with pointless battles. But as you'll have noticed recently, certain individuals are either not interested in advice or unwilling to welcome support. That being the case, back off. Ideally, without a word. This ensures that you avoid pointless arguments.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

Only days ago, you were confident that certain misunderstandings would work themselves out. They have in the past. However, the actual situation is more complex than you realise. The solution? First, ask others to tell you everything. Not only will they feel better, you'll know enough to make some helpful suggestions.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

The idea of rethinking elements of your life isn't new. You've been wrestling with the possibility of turning some of these into actions. Judging by the current planetary set-up, events may force you to turn those more swiftly. Waste no time on debate. Action is your best guide.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

You rarely think about it, but you avoid talking to some people, mostly because they can't resist drawing others into their self-serving plans. It's happened to you in the past, and could again. While you can't avoid them, you can learn to say a firm, and uncompromising "no". And the sooner you do it, the better.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)

Long ago you learnt how risky it is to agree with or go along with a plan, just to keep others happy. However, recent events have cornered you into making compromises. You're now realising how unwise this was. The solution? Discuss the problem, and any potential solutions, with the individuals involved.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

You don't think of yourself as being idealistic until you encounter people such as those you've been meeting recently. They've been drawn into your life by others you don't know well. Whatever the reason, take advantage of this chance to broaden your horizons through spending time with them.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22- Jan. 20)

As you've undoubtedly noticed, you're not alone in being in a period of twists and turns. While you could assume these are because of unwise plans, they're actually destiny encouraging you to break habits so deeply entrenched that it wouldn't occur to you to change these. The sooner you do it, the better.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

If you're feeling restless, it's no surprise. While, ordinarily, you've a knack for including something to keep your restless mind occupied, even you are overwhelmed. This is one of those tricky periods when visits to the past are helpful. If you can't go to the actual places, you can at least reminisce with others about them.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

You don't think of yourself as an idealist until you begin talking over plans and, especially, the outcome you're hoping for, with others. True, it may take a while to fully understand the resulting discussions. Still, what you learn in the process of putting the facts in order will, alone, revolutionise your perspective on what's possible.

The Annual Boardwalk Basketball Classic Tournament Returns to the Wildwoods Convention Center December 26-31

Enjoy a week filled with excitement and friendly team competition at the largest holiday co-ed basketball tournament in the country. The annual Boardwalk Basketball Classic returns to the Wildwoods Convention Center Tuesday, December 26 through Sunday, December 31 for six days of no-stop action.

The tournament will feature an impressive lineup of high school boys and girls basketball teams from the South Jersey and Delaware Valley areas, totaling approximately 1,000 competitors.

The tournament kicks off with a special Battle at the Boards high school basketball showcase event on Saturday, December 23. The event will feature boys and girls games involving area schools such as Cape May Tech, Lower Cape May, Middle Township, Ocean City, as well as tournament co-hosts Wildwood and Wildwood Catholic, and many more from South Jersey and the surrounding areas. For more information, team schedules, and ticket information, visit www.bbclassic.com.

The six-day Boardwalk Basketball Classic Tournament continues to be one of the largest single-venue coed high school holiday basketball tournament in the United States. Since its inception in 1998, the tournament has raised nearly $300,000 in college scholarship money for graduating seniors at Wildwood High School and Wildwood Catholic Academy, the two host schools of the event. The tournament is run by an all-volunteer board that solicits scholarships, ticket sales, and other support.

For info about the Boardwalk Basketball Classic tournament, including the complete schedule, past results, and ticket information, visit www.bbclassic.com or call 609-846-2720. For Wildwoods info, visit www.WildwoodsNJ.com or call 800-992-9732.

TAKE THE SCARE OUT OF WINTER DRIVING

When the weather outside is frightful, a little advance preparation will take the scare out of winter driving, says the Car Care Council. A few preventive vehicle maintenance steps will keep you from being stranded in severe winter weather.

The thought of a breakdown, an engine not starting or otherwise being stranded is scary as it is, but those things happening in freezing winter weather adds another level of fear. An investment of an hour or so to have your vehicle checked will pay off and help make sure your winter driving is less frightful and more delightful.

The Car Care Council recommends the following steps for winterizing your vehicle:

- Check the battery and charging system for optimum performance. Cold weather is hard on batteries.
- Clean, flush and put new antifreeze in the cooling system. As a general rule of thumb, this should be done every two years.
- Make sure heaters, defrosters and wipers work properly.
- Consider winter wiper blades and use cold weather washer fluid. Typically, wiper blades should be replaced every six months.
- If you're due for a tune-up, have it done immediately. Winter magnifies existing problems such as pings, hard starts, sluggish performance or rough idling.
- Check the tire tread depth and tire pressure. If snow and ice are a problem in your area, consider special tires designed to grip slick roads. During winter, tire pressure should be checked weekly.
- Check the brakes. The braking system is the vehicle's most important safety component. Inspect the exhaust system for carbon monoxide leaks, which can be especially dangerous during cold weather driving when windows are closed.
- Check to see that exterior and interior lights work and headlights are properly aimed.
- Be diligent about changing the oil at recommended intervals as dirty oil can spell trouble in winter. Consider changing to "winter weight" oil if you live in a cold climate. Check the fuel, air and transmission filters at the same time.

Motorists should also keep the gas tank at least half full at all times to decrease the chances of moisture forming in the gas lines and possibly freezing. Drivers should check the tire pressure of the spare in the trunk and stock an emergency kit with an ice scraper and snowbrush, jumper cables, flashlight, flares, blanket, extra clothes, candles/matches, bottled water, dry food snacks and needed medication.

The Car Care Council is the source of information for the "Be Car Care Aware" consumer education campaign promoting the benefits of regular vehicle care, maintenance and repair to consumers.

RAWHIDE AND NO HIDE TREATS

Submitted By Patsy Nelson
from The Wagging Tail

Rawhide has often gotten a bad rap for several reasons. Rawhide products are often from foreign countries, like China, which have been known to use formaldehyde. Other reasons were intestinal blockages due to dogs ingesting too much at a time or choking on soft portions. We recommend PET Factory rawhide products because they are made from 100% American raised beef hides. While there is no nutritional value to regular rawhide chews, they do offer a satisfying chewing experience and help reduce boredom and anxiety. There are a multitude of sizes and shapes. Chewing them should always be monitored, in amount consumed at any period and for risk of choking on softened chunks.*

Collagen sticks were formulated as an alternative to rawhide and come in a variety of forms and flavors including cheese coated. They are also long lasting; some say more than bully sticks. Collagen sticks are made from the inner layer of the cow skin, called the corium. They are easy to digest and as the collagen breaks down into peptides and amino acids, they help to reduce inflammation, increase mobility and flexibility, improve bone strength, support skin health and moisture retention, and promote dental health. They are also less costly.

Bully sticks, which I used to raise all my puppies and dogs, and to give me some peace, are made from the penis muscle of a bull. They are low in fat and high in protein. They come in what we refer to as "smelly" sticks and the newer "odor free." Straight sticks and braided being the most popular shapes. Bully sticks are entirely digestible and an excellent source of amino acids which benefit muscles, fur and nails.

Pig ears are made primarily of collagen and cartilage. They are a single ingredient, so they are good for dogs with dietary issues. Use pig ears that are from reputable companies that avoid dyes and chemicals. Natural ones are best, as opposed to smoked or flavored. Pig ears are an excellent source of glucosamine and chondroitin which can help with joint afflictions. They are a great source of essential amino acids. They have a high fat content (average ear runs 70 calories) so give no more than twice a week to dogs that tend to have weight issues. Pig ears are not long lasting for tenacious chewers as in some larger breeds. Pig ears are crunchy and assist in the removal of plaque and food residue. They help, like other chews, to strengthen jaws, teeth and gums. Because they are softer than other chews, they are good for all ages from puppies to seniors.

Cow tails are high in protein and low in fat. They are also a single ingredient product, easily digestible, all-natural, and an alternative to rawhide. They start out crunchy and then become chewy. Also good for dental health.

We carry the actual No-Hide brand by Earth Animal, which had been accused of containing rawhide, which in my opinion would not be harmful necessarily to the pet, but to the company by omission of its presence. However, the FDA and the PA Dept. of Agriculture investigated the claims and after thorough observance of the facility in the manufacturing, stated, "that the process does not involve rawhide, nor does rawhide enter the building in which No-Hides are made." The No-Hide brand chews look like rolled rawhide and come in a variety of sizes and flavors. Very popular.

*It cannot be stressed enough that no pet toys, food, or treats of any kind be available to a pet without parental surveillance. That means knowing where the pet is and what it is ALWAYS doing or chewing.
