JACKETS AND OR SWEATERS ON YOUR DOGS WILL PROLONG THEIR LIVES

Submitted By Patsy Nelson
from The Wagging Tail

Now, again with snow, and ice, and the cold arctic winds dipping the chill factors into the teens, I envision all the "naked" pets being put out in the cold to do their business, or worse, taken for a walk. "They have a coat, their fur, you say." Because they live in a heated house, they don't grow a proper winter coat. Exposing them to the bitter winds is the equivalent of you standing outside with them in your cotton pajamas. When a dog gets cold the blood rushes to protect the organs and forsakes the joints; contributing to joint pain and potential arthritis. If I need layers in the house, I put a soft jacket or a Gold Paw fleece on Zoey and Ebby. Then depending on the cold and the wind, I vary the weight of the jacket they get over the clothing they wear in the house. I treated my horse the same way and she was in my care from the age of five until she passed at the age of 34.

Sled dogs live outside all year, so they grow a winter double coat, and shed in the summer. Proper mushers give each dog an elevated wooden doghouse with thick layers of straw for insulation, high doors, extended roofs over doorways, and sometimes an inner divider for additional wind protection. Sled dogs are a special breed with their countercurrent blood circulation in their paws, like penguins and arctic foxes. (Not enough room here to explain how that works. But an interesting read.) We met a famous musher when we went on an Alaskan two-week cruise 5 years ago.

Mushers provide their sled dogs with dog booties which are soft fabric shoes to reduce ice abrasions and accumulation of snow between their toes. Sled dogs are covered with specialized insulated jackets during excessive cold spells or high winds whether they are running or resting. Fleece blankets are placed over the dogs when they sleep in their thick mound of straw. The dogs cocoon themselves and cover their faces with their bushy tails so that they are breathing in warm air. Belly wraps or Fox tails are used to cover their reproductive organs from frost bite. Some mushers, I'd be one, put leggings on their dogs to reduce the buildup of snow in the fur of their legs.

Working sled dogs need 10,000-12,000 calories a day during a race. High-fat diets include raw beef, fish, and fat, as well as nutrient dense kibble. And they must stay hydrated, so the mushers "bait" their water with chunks of meat or fat to encourage them to drink. Sometimes they are given warm broth to maintain their internal core temperature.

The point I am trying to make is, as a pet parent it is your responsibility to give your dog the weather protection you take care to give yourself. I repeated this article because it is so important, and because I have been sick with a bad cold going on two weeks. And now my husband is sick with it too.

HOROSCOPE

JANUARY 29 - FEBRUARY 4, 2025

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

Focus steadies as Mercury shifts attention toward plans and clear direction. Talks about goals, leadership, or authority move slower but reveal what matters. Progress comes from adjusting strategy, not forcing results.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

Perspective widens as Mercury supports long-range thinking and future planning. Discussions tied to learning, travel, or commitments clarify what still feels worthwhile. Choose paths that inspire growth rather than obligation.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

Internal review continues as Jupiter retrograde emphasizes shared resources and trust matters. Financial choices or emotional agreements benefit from careful reassessment. Clarifying expectations now strengthens security and mutual balance.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Relational focus deepens as communication reveals shifting needs and boundaries. Practical considerations merge with emotional insight through honest discussion. Thoughtful compromise now strengthens connection and long-term understanding.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

Practical focus returns as routines and responsibilities require renewed structure. Adjustments to work flow or personal habits support consistency. Organization now preserves energy and steady progress.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

Creative motivation rises as the Moon highlights expression and personal enjoyment. Responsibilities remain present, creating tension between duty and desire. Balance restores clarity when you allow room for inspiration.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

Domestic matters remain active as Mercury encourages clear planning at home. Decisions around shared spaces or family roles benefit from structure. Direct communication restores emotional ease.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

Communication sharpens as discussions move toward resolution this week. Details and timing shape outcomes more than intensity. Listening carefully supports forward movement.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

Financial review continues as Jupiter retrograde refocuses values and priorities. Spending choices and commitments require practical evaluation. Align decisions with longer goals for stability.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.-Jan. 20)

Personal direction remains steady as feedback helps refine responsibilities. Reflection clarifies leadership roles and next steps. Measured effort builds confidence over time.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

Inner awareness increases as a personal cycle nears completion. Quiet reflection reveals habits ready for release and adjustment. Clearing space supports renewed momentum ahead.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

WINTER BLISS: HOW TO KEEP YOUR VEHICLE CABIN HEALTHY, CLEAN

Below are a few more tips to help prevent interior mold, odor, and dust from taking over your vehicle:

Stow some microfiber towels to mop up moisture from rain getting into the cabin, spilled drinks and wet shoes. Address moisture immediately to help prevent it from seeping into fabrics and creating mold growth.

Replace cabin air filter to help prevent contaminants from entering the passenger cabin.

Install rubber floor mats. Check with your service advisor to get a set that offers good fit and function. Use mats that are secure and do not slide about the floorboard and provide good grip for wet shoes. Remove and clean mats frequently during winter.

Keep upholstery and carpet clean with products intended for automobile interiors.

Whenever possible park your car in a garage or an enclosed structure to minimize exposure to the elements and outside moisture.

Run the air conditioning intermittently in winter to circulate air through the system to prevent moisture buildup.

Pick up food morsels that can break down, embed into fabric and cause odors.

Remove and store sweaty workout clothes, wet towels, or musty items elsewhere. The moisture adds to vehicle odors, humidity and mold growth.

Clap wet shoes before entering the vehicle to shake off moisture and remove grime.

Be cautious about using air fresheners and sprays to mask odors. They may simply mask but not eliminate odors. Instead, get to the root cause so that it doesn't persist, which could cause harm to your car's interior and potentially impact your health.
