DROSCC

ARIES (Mar. 21- April 20)

You're in full-throttle mode as the Gemini full moon supercharges your words and decisions. Hesitation evaporates; a plan, pitch, or confession you've delayed suddenly feels urgent and right. Trust the clarity - it's pointing you straight to where your fire burns brightest. TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

A money or intimacy issue reaches a turning point, demanding straight talk instead of sidestepping, Renegotiate, release, or redraw the line - whatever restores your sense of safety. What you settle this week becomes solid ground for everything that follows.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

The full moon in your sign is a personal peak: emotions crest, masks drop, and you finally see the real you. Relationships mirror the shift; someone's honesty helps you drop an old role. Let the truth reshape how you move forward.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Your body and spirit are begging for less noise and more rest. The full moon highlights what's been running in the background - clear it out. Cutting one energy leak this week hands you back the wheel. LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

Joy and connection flood back under a sparkling full moon in your social zone. A creative hit, flirtation, or group vibe reminds you how good it feels to shine. Make space for pleasure - it's recharging your batteries, not wasting time.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 -Sept. 23)

Career or reputation hits a visible high point; recognition or a finished project lands in your lap. Behind the scenes, home or family needs a guick repair - handle both gently. Balance on the outside starts with calm on the inside.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

Your mind is razor-sharp and your words carry weight. A conversation, class, or short trip opens a door you didn't expect. Speak with intention - people are listening harder than usual. SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)

Shared money, deep feelings, or an old debt comes due for resolution. The full moon lights up what's been hidden; face it head-on. Letting go of one thing you've gripped too tightly unlocks surprising freedom.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 -Dec. 21)

Relationships reach full-moon intensity - romantic or professional. Who's truly in your corner becomes crystal clear. Speak your truth without apology; the right ones stay and rise with you.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.- Jan. 20)

Workload and wellness routines ask for ruthless editing. The full moon shows exactly what's draining you - drop it. Efficiency this week isn't about grinding harder; it's about working smarter.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 -Feb. 19)

Creativity, romance, and pure fun take center stage. A spark - artistic or heart-fluttering - reminds you life doesn't have to be so serious. Say yes to whatever makes you remember why you're here.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Home and emotional roots demand attention; a conversation or rearrangement creates the safety you crave. Neptune turning direct in your sign lifts the fog - trust the guiet knowing. Inner peace starts with honoring where you lay your head.

1. Drive safely on slopes. Maintain steady momentum when driving uphill as stopping increases the risk of getting stuck. When descending, apply gentle and consistent braking. Shift to a lower gear before going down a steep hill.

sistent braking. Shift to a lower gear before going down a steep hill.

2. Plan routes carefully. Check weather mobile apps and road reports. Pay special attention to mountain passes and rural highways where weather conditions can change quickly. Make sure to share your route and estimated arrival time with friends or family. Be cautious with GPS directions as they may route you to unplowed or unsafe roads.

Dress in layers. If you're headed to wet or frosty environments, wear a moisture-wicking base layer to stay dry. Add a warm fleece or wool mid-layer and finish with a waterproof or windproof jacket. If you're bringing new boots, break them in at home with socks you plan to wear on the road to help avoid blisters.

3 GREAT REASONS TO ADD RAW GOAT'S MILK TO YOUR DOG'S DIET

Submitted By Patsy Nelson

Raw goat's milk is one of the most complete foods on Earth. Full of trace minerals, vitamins, electrolytes, trace elements, enzymes, protein, & fatty acids. Unpasteurized goat's milk is incredibly easy for our dogs to digest & utilize. Even dogs who have a hard time digesting dairy products derived from cow's milk can do extremely well on milk from a goat. With fat molecules that are 1/5th the size of those found in Bovine milk, digestion happens in as little as 20 minutes.

Here are 3 reasons that you should supplement your dog's diet with goat's milk:

1) Great for Digestion. Raw goat's milk is perfect for dogs who suffer from any number of digestive issues. Let's face it, some dogs just have sensitive stomachs. Whether raw, cooked, or kibble-fed. some dogs simply cannot digest their food well. The result of this can range from an inability to properly assimilate nutrients to gas & loose stool on a regular basis. Chock full of probiotics & enzymes, raw goat's milk can assist your sensitive dog in beating the symptoms of an unerachieving digestive system. Raw goat's milk helps to wipe out bad bacteria in your dog's system & repopulate it with beneficial bacteria. This not only makes in invaluable for dogs with sensitive digestive tracts, but also for dogs that have been subjected to various antibiotics.

2) Lessens Mucous & Inflammation. Raw goat's milk contains both anti-mucous & anti-inflammatory properties. This makes it a perfect supplement for dogs who suffer from allergies of any sort. including food & environmental allergies. Raw goat's milk can help to make the steroids that you are forced to give your pet a thing of the past. As a natural anti-inflammatory, you can be certain that the side effects of drugs such as Prednisolone & Cortisone will never be an issue.

3) Super Immune Booster. Raw goat's milk has tremendous immune boosting properties. By virtue of the sheer amount of vitamins, trace minerals, enzymes, & fatty acids; the overalL health of your dog is greatly enhanced. Raw goat's milk has been shown to help fight any number of common ailments, such as Kidney Issues. Cancers, Liver Diseases, Diabetes, Colitis, Irritable Bowel Syndrome. Heart Disease, Ulcers, & Various Brain & Nervous System Disorders. Goat's milk carries significantly higher amounts of Calcium, Vitamin B-6, Vitamin A, Potassium, Niacin, & the Anti-Oxidant Selenium, than cow's milk all while being FAR easier to digest & utilize.

Whether your dog is fed a raw diet, cooked diet, or kibble diet, supplementing raw goat's milk can help to keep your best friend as healthy as can be, the natural way.
