HOROSCOPE

JANUARY 15 - 21, 2025

ARIES (Mar. 21- April 20)

Momentum continues to build as decisions gain urgency this week. Conversations around goals, authority, or long-term direction require focus and follow-through. Choose steady action over impulsive moves to maintain control and clarity.

TAURUS (Apr. 21- May 21)

Forward-looking plans gain traction as confidence in your direction grows. Discussions around education, travel, or future commitments provide useful perspective. Commit only to what aligns with your evolving priorities.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

Shared resources and deeper obligations remain in focus. Financial decisions or emotional agreements require honest evaluation. Clear boundaries now strengthen trust and long-term balance.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Relationship dynamics continue to evolve through direct interaction. Conversations reveal where emotional needs and practical expectations meet. Mutual understanding grows when compromises are made thoughtfully.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

Daily responsibilities demand consistency and refinement. Adjustments to routines, health habits, or work systems improve efficiency. Staying organized supports sustained energy through the week.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 -Sept. 23)

Creative momentum builds alongside renewed personal motivation. Self-expression offers balance against ongoing responsibilities. You may feel pulled between productivity and pleasure. Making space for inspiration restores emotional clarity and focus.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 -Oct. 23)

Home and family matters remain active and require attention. Practical decisions help stabilize shared environments or responsibilities. Emotional conversations benefit from structure rather than avoidance.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)

Communication remains central as discussions move toward resolution. Important information requires precision, patience, and timing. Listening carefully proves just as powerful as speaking up. Clear expression keeps momentum moving forward.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 -Dec. 21)

Financial priorities and personal values guide decisions this week. Spending or commitments benefit from realistic assessment. Optimism is helpful, but details matter more than usual. Align choices with long-term goals for lasting satisfaction.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22. - Jan. 20)

Personal direction remains in focus as responsibilities deepen. Feedback and reflection help refine next steps. Measured progress strengthens confidence and leadership.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 -Feb. 19)

Attention turns inward as a new personal cycle approaches. Reflection highlights habits or patterns ready for release. Rest and quiet observation support clarity. Clearing space now prepares you for upcoming momentum.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Group efforts and shared goals continue to take shape. Collaboration improves when expectations are clearly defined. You may need to speak up about your role. Unified focus strengthens progress and collective success.

EXPERIENCE THRILLS AND CHILLS
DURING THE 20TH ANNUAL
SPECIAL OLYMPICS
POLAR BEAR PLUNGE IN THE
WILDWOODS ON JAN 17, 2026

Special Olympics New Jersey returns to the Wildwoods to kick off 2026 with a chilling plunge into the Atlantic Ocean during the 20th annual Polar Bear Plunge on Saturday, January 17, 2026, at 1 p.m. on the beach behind the Wildwoods Convention Center. Get ready for a beach day in January and dig out your bathing suit and join in the fun! The Polar Bear Plunge in the Wildwoods is a FREE event for spectators to watch, but plungers pay donations at tiered levels. 'Now I'm Ready Bear' plungers must raise a minimum of $110 by December 31, 2025. The 'Better Late Than Never Bear' plungers must raise $120 minimum by January 16, 2026. Early registration is available online by visiting www.PlungeWildwood.org. Additional registration for the 'Almost Missed It Bear' plungers will be available on-site the day of the event for a minimum donation of $125. All plungers are encouraged to dress up in costume, break out the plunge props, make banners and signs, and most importantly, have FUN! Immediately following the plunge, participants, and children under the age of 12 can enjoy a free lunch inside the warm Wildwoods Convention Center. New for 2026: Celebrate 20 incredible years of the Wildwood Polar Bear Plunge without taking the icy dive! As a Wave Maker, attendees will join a community of passionate supporters who want to make a difference for Special Olympics New Jersey athletes – while staying warm and dry. The Wave Maker registration includes an exclusive 20th Anniversary Commemorative Shirt and recognition as an official event supporter. Please note: Wave Makers do not participate in the plunge and are not eligible for plunger fundraising incentives. This option is perfect for those who want to support the cause and celebrate this milestone year without jumping into the cold Atlantic! The Polar Bear Plunge Wildwood is so much more than an icy swim in the ocean. Special Olympics New Jersey provides year-round sports training, competitions, leadership opportunities, and health screenings for thousands of athletes. All these programs and services are completely FREE thanks to fundraising events like the Polar Bear Plunge in the Wildwoods. The Polar Bear Plunge is a family-friendly event benefiting athletes of Special Olympics New Jersey. There are incentives based on the total funds raised, and there will be special recognition for the top three people who raise the most money, as well as the top three highest fundraising teams. Registration will take place from 10 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. inside the Wildwoods Convention Center. The plunge is at 1 p.m. with lunch immediately following. The New Jersey Law Enforcement Torch Run (LETR) is sponsoring the Polar Bear Plunge in the Wildwoods. The Law Enforcement Torch Run is comprised of law enforcement officers who volunteer and are dedicated to raising funds and awareness for Special Olympics New Jersey. Each year the Law Enforcement Torch Run hosts major fundraising events across the state, along with hundreds of local events, and raises more than $4 million for the athletes of Special Olympics New Jersey. Additional sponsors include the New Jersey Fraternal Order of Police, Wawa, and the Greater Wildwoods Tourism Improvement and Development Authority. Year after year, the Polar Bear Plunge at the Wildwoods Convention Center continues to grow in popularity and is just one of the many FREE events to attend in the Wildwoods. Beat the winter blues by showing support for a worthy cause and come join in the excitement of the January Polar Bear Plunge. CHEF CHIP'S WILD GAME AND SEAFOOD RECIPE

GOAT MEATBALLS

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 lb Ground Goat
- 5 oz Ground Pork
- 2 Large Eggs
- 2 Tbsp Worcestershire Sauce
- 1 Tbsp Apple Juice
- 1 Tbsp Soy Sauce
- 1 tsp Dried Oregano
- 1/2 tsp Dried Ground Thyme
- 1 Tbsp Finely Chopped Fresh Parsley
- 1 tsp Fresh Chopped Rosemary
- 1 Pouch Onion Soup Mix
- 1 tsp Garlic Powder
- 1/4 cup Grated Parmesan Cheese
- 3/4 cup Panko Breadcrumbs
- Kosher Salt & Fresh Cracked Black Pepper To Taste

PREPARATION:

In a large bowl, whisk eggs, worcestershire, soy sauce & apple juice together. Next, whisk in oregano, thyme, parsley, rosemary, onion soup mix, garlic powder, salt and pepper. Add in ground goat & pork. Mix thoroughly by hand. Finally mix in cheese and bread-crumb. Refrigerate for at least 2 hours prior to cooking. Portion out balls by hand while keeping a little cold water on the palm of your hand. Bake in a 350° preheated oven on a sheetpan lined with parchment paper. The meatballs will be done when they have reached an internal temperature of 160°. Remove the balls from the sheetpan to a container of some sort. Loosely cover with foil for 10 minutes. Serve as needed with a sauce or as is. Enjoy! Hint: You can order goat to your door step, make friends with a farmer or go up the mountains & get it fresh.

NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS FOR JANUARY ROAD TRIPS

Test your battery. Cold weather can turn a weak battery into a morning problem. When was the last time you had a battery charge check-up? A simple test of charging capacity can avoid sudden failures while you are traveling away from home. Batteries more than three or four years old are particularly susceptible to failure.

Inspect tire tread depth. For safe traction on slick roads, tread depth should be at least 6/32" (4.5 mm). If you don't have a tire gauge, perform a coin test instead. Place a coin upside down in the tread groove. Is the top of the head on the coin visible? If so, your tires may no longer provide reliable road grip. Call your service advisor for a professional inspection.

Upgrade windshield wipers. Snow, slush and salt can wear down wipers over the season. A service shop can replace them with anti-freezing wiper blades that stay flexible in extreme temperatures. Be sure to top off your washer reservoir with a freeze-resistant formula that keeps your windshield clear in harsh winter conditions.

Oil change and component lubrication. All drivers realize engine oil is crucial to engine performance, but it's easy to forget when preparing for your next winter outing. Make sure your vehicle has clean fluids that are designed to handle cold temperatures for snow-bound adventures. Ask your service advisor about winter-grade oil, designed to handle freezing temperatures and circulate quickly through the engine.

Check coolant and antifreeze levels. Routine replenishment and system flushes keep your vehicle operating properly in winter conditions. Check your owner's manual as radiator flush intervals may vary between two to five years. An inspection of your vehicle's heating and cooling system helps identify issues with leaks, engine performance, the climate control system and passenger comfort.

Get brakes inspected. Brake components—such as pads, rotors and ABS sensors—may have endured weeks of harsh conditions by the time January arrives. Road salt, moisture, corrosion and freezing temperatures affect brake performance. Listen for grinding and squealing noises caused by worn brake pads. Does your vehicle take longer to stop than usual? Ask your service advisor to inspect your vehicle's braking system.

Replace faulty lights. Use a service professional to check your headlights, brake lights and fog lamps to make sure every bulb is working. If your headlights appear cloudy or yellowed, replace the lenses so they can shine brighter and farther. Good lighting improves visibility and increases your reaction time on dark winter roads.

Check your vehicle's AWD system. Make sure your all-wheel or four-wheel drive system is working properly by having a service professional check the transfer case and differential fluid. Keeping these components in good condition maintains maximum traction, especially on wet and icy roads.

Schedule a pre-trip alignment check. Snow covered curbs, deep ice ruts and potholes can knock your wheels out of alignment. Service shops can carry out the necessary checks to reset your wheels and stabilize the vehicle on slippery winter roads. A correct alignment also protects suspension components and saves you money down the road.

Test your exhaust system. Even a small crack or hole can quickly become a serious problem in freezing conditions. Have a service professional check for leaks or damages and ensure carbon monoxide is not seeping into the cabin.

ANAL GLAND PROBLEMS

Submitted By
Patsy Nelson
from The Wagging Tail

So many dogs and some cats are seen by their owners scooting across the floor or carpet, or frequently licking their anal area. Sometimes it could be a dirty butt, sometimes worms, and most times an anal gland issue. Just as with humans, pets need fiber in their diets. I learned early on to feed my horse a lap of hay in the morning first thing to get the digestive juices flowing and get that fiber into her before giving her grain. And think about all the small animals that have the benefit of hay to push out the accumulation of waste. Most commercial dry foods do not have enough fiber to be of much help. Consequently, many dogs need their anal glands expressed by the vet or the groomers. It is also possible for you to learn how to do it yourself, but extreme caution and confidence is required. Also, it can be a nasty smelly experience. Some articles strongly state that no one should express the anal glands. Their opinion is that "your dog shouldn't need his anal glands expressed. All that repeated squeezing and pinching can cause more inflammation, swelling and injury. Regular expressing can make the anal glands dependent and then they won't work on their own." It is also highly recommended by some that you do not have the glands surgically removed, as it can permanently damage the anal sphincter. Do your research and get a second opinion before doing surgery.

As pets age, they develop a variety of health issues, and some chronic diseases may cause a blockage in the anal ducts. Often drugs, chemicals, vaccines (we sure use plenty of them on our pets), and poor nutrition are suspects in poor anal health. I have done my research, and truth be told, many of us are over-vaccinating our dogs and cats. I recommend to my customers, and you the reader, that unless your pet needs antibiotics, DO NOT get any vaccines except rabies; after their initial puppy or kitten shot series. There is much data out there that we are causing more harm with too many vaccines, many of which are not a guarantee that they will protect your pet - like Lyme's vaccine. Think too, of using that money to put quality food into your pet's body. Rescued dogs, in-particular, have a history of impacted anal glands mainly because of poor diet. Preventing anal gland problems really starts with a good quality food free of unnecessary fillers and questionable ingredients and sources of those ingredients. We have many free samples for you to try of family-owned, multi-generational, recall-free foods.

The Wagging Tail attempts to carry products that are as effective as the vet's but easier on your pocketbook. One of those products is called Glandex. Glandex is made in the USA of all-natural ingredients such as pumpkin seed, apple pectin, Quercetin Dihydrate, which is a flavonoid found in many fruits and vegetables and has powerful anti-oxidant, anti-inflammatory, and antihistamine properties. Glandex also has Bromelain extracted from pineapple, and like MCT oil for BD oil, it increases bioavailability. In this case, Quercetin, aids with digestion, and reduces allergies and inflammation. Glandex also contains Lactobacillus Acidophilus: a probiotic useful in improving digestion and immune function. Using Glandex regularly can help resolve the underlying issues of anal gland impaction. Glandex comes in a powder or a chewable form. Come in and check out this great product I use on my pets.
