Release the week of March 15 - 21, 2024

HOROSCOPE

MARCH 14 - MARCH 20 2024

ARIES (Mar. 21- April 20)
Sunday 10th starts the week with the Pisces New Moon and its glimpses and glimmers of magic which are not fully revealed. Mercury steps foot in Aries also on Sunday pulsing you with ideas and intention which don't need to be rushed into action as yet. This year's Aries season includes two eclipses and these powerful energies are going to help you shift your world.

TAURUS (Apr. 21- May 21)
This is a great moment to tune into your wish list – whilst keeping those Taur-rean hooves firmly on the ground! The Spring energies are all about change and what's in the works will be far reaching. For now it's a moment to re-search, prepare and dream whilst getting ready to greet an upcoming sense of excitement and adventure.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)
As the New Moon pulses you with fresh delights and insights designed to help you steer your way in the world your twins are treading a fine line between entering a fantasy world or harnessing inspiration that manifests magic. In the coming weeks situations are rapidly changing yet you are adaptable enough to make the most of the what's on the move.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)
No other sign understands how incredibly useful your side-ways approach can be. For a start, it means you can advance or retreat without people noticing and also observe situations and people without making a wrong move. Although bright lights hover in the most expansive area of your chart you realise the need for caution and canniness. These are your super-powers.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)
You're re-drafting emotional or financial involvements and find yourself in a time when arrangements and ties are shape-shifting. Once you might have rushed to make decisions but for now you need to adopt a wait-and-see approach. There is a wisdom in allowing others to reveal their hand and see how things unfold before jumping to conclusions.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)
Whilst the ball seems to be in someone else's court care of the Pisces New Moon you need time to consider how to approach a situation which requires some fine-tuning. It's not as if things can be resolved in a day and important cosmic activity in the coming weeks will alter the set-up considerably. For now, assess and examine the possibilities.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)
The big event will be the eclipsed Full Moon in Libra on the 25th March. Until then consider everything as tentative and watch a rapidly changing scenario tantalise with promises and then deliver a bottom line. Perhaps more than anything you get to recognise where you have gone along with an illusion and want to work with reality.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
As a water sign, the realm of emotions, intuition and inspiration is very important to you. The Pisces New Moon taps you into this intangible realm which offers a source of spiritual sustenance, connection and creativity. It feeds your soul. Even if you don't have concrete answers at the moment you're going through a valuable process of discovery.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)
You are very used to living in a world of options and possibilities so the recent Pisces New Moon has simply pulsed more inspiration. Not until after the 21st will it be possible to know for sure what's workable. Until then, continue exploring and feeling your way. The experience of allowing yourself to dream is valuable in itself.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.- Jan. 20)
Being a Capricorn you see yourself as the one who adds common sense into other people's flights of fancy. However, right now you're aware that things cannot be rushed and you may have to indulge others a little while longer. In the process you will learn what they glean from the creative process and it might even feel good to linger there yourself and take time out from the 'ordinary' world.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 -Feb. 19)
Cosmic energy focused on the financial area of your chart suggests you may be re-assessing the value of what you have or whether you are being valued correctly by others. Have you got room to change the paradigm? Do you see things as fluid or set in stone? The more you are able to download inspiration and spark sustainable self-worth the richer you will feel.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)
Sunday's New Moon in your sign positioned betwixt Saturn and Neptune in Pisces is destined to take you on something of a journey over the next couple of weeks. There are sparkles for sure. Perhaps too an aura of uncertainty which means you have to steer by your own starlight and listen to your intuition rather than relying on what others have to say. Turn the volume down on the outside world and hear your own inner voice.

St. Patrick's Day Fun Facts & History

- The Real St. Patrick Was Born in Britain. Much of what is known about St. Patrick's life has been interwoven with folklore and legend. Historians generally believe that St. Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland, was born in Britain (not Ireland) near the end of the 4th century. At age 16 he was kidnapped by Irish raiders and sold as a slave to a Celtic priest in the area now known as Northern Ireland. After toiling for six years as a shepherd, he escaped back to Britain. He eventually returned to Ireland as a Christian missionary.
- St. Patrick Was Never Canonized. As you might expect, St. Despite his status as a patron saint, St. Patrick was never actually canonized by the Church during his lifetime. This was primarily because such a process did not exist when he died in A.D. 461. It wasn't until 993 that St. Ulrich of Augsburg became the first saint to be formally canonized, and it was not until the 12th century that the Church established an official canonization process overseen by the Pope. While St. Patrick has not been formally canonized, many consider him to hold saintly status.
- Leprechauns Are Likely Based on Celtic Fairies. The red-haired, green-clothed Leprechaun is commonly associated with St. Patrick's Day. The original Irish name for these figures of folklore is "lobaircin," meaning "small-bodied fellow." Belief in leprechauns likely stems from Celtic belief in fairies—tiny men and women who could use their magical powers to serve good or evil. In Celtic folktales, leprechauns were cranky souls, responsible for mending the shoes of the other fairies.
- The Shamrock Was Considered a Sacred Plant. The shamrock, a three-leaf clover, has been associated with Ireland for centuries. It was called the "seamroy" by the Celts and was considered a sacred plant that symbolized the arrival of spring. According to legend, St. Patrick used the plant as a visual guide when explaining the Holy Trinity. By the 17th century, the shamrock had become a symbol of emerging Irish nationalism.
- The First St. Patrick's Day Parade Was Held in America. While people in Ireland had celebrated St. Patrick since the 1600s, the tradition of a St. Patrick's Day parade began in America and actually pre-dates the founding of the United States.

CHEF CHIP'S WILD GAME AND SEAFOOD RECIPE

ASIAN VENISON JERKY

INGREDIENTS:

- 3 lbs Boneless Venison Hind Quarter,
Cut Against The Grain in 1/8 inch Slices
- 1/2 cup Low Sodium Soy Sauce
- 1/4 cup Teriyaki Sauce
- 2 Tbsp Oyster Sauce
- 2 Tbsp Hoisin Sauce
- 1/4 cup Worcestershire Sauce
- 2 Tbsp Pineapple Juice
- 1/2 cup Brown Sugar
- 1 tsp Onion Powder
- 1 tsp Garlic Powder
- 1/2 tsp Ginger Powder
- 1/8 tsp Cayenne Pepper
- Fresh Cracked Black Pepper to Taste
- Applewood Chips for Smoking

PREPARATION:

In a large bowl, whisk all ingredients together except venison. Place venison slices into a large air tight bag. Pour marinade over the top. Mix the meat and marinade together well. Seal bag air tight and refrigerate for 24 hours. After 24 hours, open the bag. Mix the meat around again, seal the bag and refrigerate for another 24 hours (48 hours total). Remove meat from marinade and dry each piece with a towel. Preheat smoker to 180° with prepared applewood chips. When you start getting a nice smoke, place jerky slices in the smoker. Cook until done through but still bendable with little crackage. Place in a slightly opened unsealed Ziploc bag while warm. After the meat reaches room temperature, seal the bag air tight. Use as needed. There are no added preservatives in this so, it will not have a long shelf life. You can refrigerate or freeze to add shelf life. Enjoy! Hint: You can put 1 tsp of liquid smoke in the marinade if you choose a dehydration or oven baking method.

OUR TOP TIPS FOR MARCH VEHICLE UPKEEP

To ensure a smooth transition into spring and prevent potential issues, here's a comprehensive guide on the different items you should check on your car after the winter months.

Inspect tires and rotate: Start by checking the tire pressure, as cold temperatures can cause tire pressure to drop. Under-inflated tires decrease fuel efficiency and compromise safety. Also, inspect the tread depth for wear and tear. Consider rotating the tires to ensure even wear, extending their lifespan, and improving performance.

Evaluate brake system: The winter season often involves driving on slippery roads, putting extra strain on the brakes. Inspect the brake pads and discs for wear and tear. Unusual noises or reduced responsiveness can be signs of brake issues, and it's crucial to address them promptly to ensure optimal safety on the road.

Check fluid levels and changes: Check all fluid levels, including engine oil, transmission fluid, brake fluid, and coolant. Winter conditions can be harsh on fluids, and ensuring they are at the right levels is vital for the proper functioning of your vehicle. Consider changing the oil and oil filter as part of routine maintenance.

Test battery health: Cold temperatures can be particularly challenging for car batteries. Get a battery test to ensure it's holding a charge effectively. If you notice slow cranking or other signs of a weak battery, consider replacing it to prevent getting stranded unexpectedly.

Examine engine belts and hoses: Inspect the engine belts and hoses for signs of wear, cracks, or leaks. The cold weather can contribute to the deterioration of these components, and addressing issues early can prevent more significant problems later.

Check wiper blades and washer fluid: The winter months often mean increased use of wiper blades and washer fluid. Your wiper blades get plenty of use in the winter. If worn down, replace them to properly wipe away springtime rain, pollen, and dirt. Inspect the blades for any signs of damage or wear and replace them if necessary. Additionally, top off the washer fluid reservoir with a suitable solution to ensure clear visibility during spring showers.

Inspect alignment and suspension: Potholes and rough road conditions during winter can impact the alignment and suspension of your vehicle. If you notice uneven tire wear or experience steering issues, have the alignment and suspension checked by a professional.

Examine exhaust system: Winter conditions can accelerate the corrosion of the exhaust system. Inspect the exhaust pipes and muffler for rust and damage. Addressing issues promptly can prevent exhaust leaks, which can be harmful to both you and the environment.

ARE YOU CONCERNED ABOUT YOUR DOG JUMPING UP?

Submitted by Patsy Nelson
from The Wagging Tail

Are you trying to train a new puppy or a rescue dog not to jump at you or on you, or others? Unfortunately, we owners can be the biggest detriment to successful training as we are not consistent in handling the problem. The puppy or dog is too cute, and it is so easy to pet and show them your attention when you don't have to bend too far. But as they grow bigger or when they become too enthusiastic it can lead to injuries such as scratches, bruises, or falls involving you or your loved ones.

When I come home, especially if I have been gone most of the day at The Wagging Tail, Zoey (10-lbs Maltese) and Ebby (20-lbs Chihuahua Mix) want to vie for my greetings, and it gets a bit out of control. I am guilty of not enforcing a sit on the step rule (our entry way is quite small-the only thing I dislike about our house) until they calm down. Bob never wears long pants-shorts even in winter-and if the dogs' nails have not been recently smoothed with a Dremel, then they easily scratch his age-compromised skin. I see this in our senior customers who have gotten puppies, especially their arms.

The Humane Society on their web page offer some good suggestions when dealing with a behavior problem like jumping. Consistency, of course, is ESSENTIAL.

I like the one that would help me when I arrive home, and the dogs are waiting to pounce.

KEEP GREETINGS QUIET AND LOW-KEY. WHEN YOUR DOGS JUMP ON YOU, IGNORE THEM. TURN AND GO OUT OF THE DOOR. TRY AGAIN. YOU MAY HAVE TO REPEAT THIS DOZENS OF TIMES BEFORE YOUR DOGS LEARN THAT THEY ONLY GET ATTENTION WHEN THEY KEEP ALL FOUR FEET ON THE GROUND. IF YOUR DOG JUMPS ON OTHER PEOPLE, ASK SOMEONE THE DOG LIKES TO PRACTICE WITH YOU. GIVE THE DOG THE "SIT" COMMAND THAT HOPEFULLY YOU HAVE ALREADY TAUGHT WITH SUCCESS. THE GREETER APPROACHES YOU AND YOUR DOG. IF YOUR DOG STANDS UP, THE GREETER IMMEDIATELY TURNS AND WALKS AWAY. ASK YOUR DOG TO "SIT" AND HAVE THE GREETER APPROACH AGAIN. KEEP REPEATING UNTIL YOUR DOG REMAINS SEATED AS THE GREETER APPROACHES, AT WHICH TIME THE GREETER CAN REWARD THE DOG WITH A TREAT.

WHEN YOU ARE OUT WALKING YOUR DOG AND A PERSON APPROACHES, YOU MUST MANAGE THE SITUATION AND TRAIN THE DOG AT THE SAME TIME. ASK THE PERSON TO STOP BY INFORMING THEM THAT YOU ARE TRAINING YOUR DOG. EITHER SLYLY PASS THE STRANGER A TREAT OR HAVE ONE HANDY FOR YOURSELF. ASK YOUR DOG TO "SIT." TELL THE PERSON THEY CAN PET YOUR DOG AS LONG AS YOUR DOG REMAINS SEATED. THE DOG GETS REWARDED WITH A TREAT IF IT HAS OBEYED. IF THE STRANGER SAYS HE DOESN'T MIND IF THE DOG JUMPS UP, THEN DISCOURAGE THAT PERSON FROM INTERACTING.

Ebby has gotten into the habit of wanting to jump up onto my lap and most of the time I don't want her to. THE HUMANE SOCIETY SUGGESTS THAT AS SOON AS YOUR DOG JUMPS UP ON YOU, STAND UP. DON'T TALK TO YOUR DOG OR PUSH THEM AWAY. JUST IGNORE THEM UNTIL ALL FOUR FEET ARE ON THE GROUND. Ebby will also woof at me indicating that she wants to sit with me on my desk chair. I have compromised by letting her lay on the chair behind me and I occupy the smaller section. Or she will be content to have my chair and use the other one-that is not my preference-but she is happy. Oh what we do for our pets.

Thank you for helping a small business stay in business.
