HOROSCOPE

FEBRUARY 1 - FEBRUARY 7, 2024

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

Success in socializing, Aries! A Venus-Jupiter trine on Monday helps you achieve a higher level of professional success through giving and receiving support. Friday's Mercury-Neptune sextile supports you in letting go and finding closure on something career-related. This weekend's Sagittarius Moon in your adventure zone is a joyful and exhilarating one, so enjoy!

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

That was then, this is now, Taurus. Monday's Venus-Jupiter trine supports you seeing people as they are in the present, not for who they were in the past—or for who other people were in the past. Friday's Mercury-Neptune sextile invites you to reconnect with your friends so you can support each other's dreams. This weekend's Sagittarius Moon in your intimacy zone helps you see eroticism and sexuality more powerfully.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

Feel it to heal it, Gemini. Monday's Venus-Jupiter trine inspires you to run towards the emotion you've been avoiding. Only when you face this feeling can you heal it. Friday's Mercury-Neptune sextile brings a burst of imagination and vision to help you approach your career with new ideas. This weekend's Sagittarius Moon is a romantic one, so let yourself connect with the most loving parts of your personality.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Blend friendship and love, Cancer. Monday's Venus-Jupiter trine wants you to bring more levity to love and vice versa. It's all about integrating the best of friendship and romance. Friday's Mercury-Neptune sextile helps you experience trust differently. This weekend's Sagittarius Moon helps you stay mindful and in tune with the details for greater wellbeing.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

Small career goals only, Leo! Monday's Venus-Jupiter trine is validating the career changes you want to make—but to achieve them, you need to move carefully, focusing on small goals over time. Friday's Mercury-Neptune sextile wants you to crawl before you sprint. This weekend's Sagittarius Moon puts a fire in your heart, so express yourself and follow your bliss!

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

Think again, Virgo! Monday's Venus-Jupiter trine helps you see yourself differently. Lean into confidence and talk to yourself more positively. Friday's Mercury-Neptune sextile inspires you to have more self-compassion and positive self-talk. The weekend's Sagittarius Moon in your home/family zone connects you to the people and places that give you safety.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

What's your truth, Libra? Monday's Venus-Jupiter trine wants you to be more direct with your desires. Try to express your authenticity in clear, compassionate ways. Friday's Mercury-Neptune sextile gives you clues about your emotional wellbeing and who heals you. This weekend's Sagittarius Moon in your cognition zone wants you to follow curiosity for curiosity's sake.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)

Speak up, Scorpio! Monday's Venus-Jupiter trine challenges you to use your words a bit faster in relationships so you can maximize clear understanding, agreements, and expectations. Friday's Mercury-Neptune sextile helps your fluency in the nonverbal language. This weekend's Sagittarius Moon in your embodiment zone helps you connect to pleasure and somatic wisdom.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

Live into your values, Sag! Monday's Venus-Jupiter trine wants to help your worry by inspiring you to practice your values. There's no clarity like knowing you are who you say you are. Friday's Mercury-Neptune sextile motivates you to check your money mindset. This weekend offers you a Sagittarius Moon so you can live out loud and express your strengths.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22- Jan. 20)

Reveal, don't conceal, Capricorn. Monday's Venus-Jupiter trine reminds you that you can only get to intimacy and connection through vulnerability and sharing your feelings. You can do it! Friday's Mercury-Neptune trine reframes your relationship to emotions. This weekend's Sagittarius Moon wants you to take time to rest and retreat for contemplation and introspection.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

Happy birthday, Aquarius! Monday's Venus-Jupiter trine helps you set yourself free from people and patterns from the past so you can love more bravely in the present. Friday's Mercury-Neptune trine inspires you to initiate a conversation for closure. This weekend's Sagittarius Moon is a friendly, social one, so reunite with your community and celebrate each other!

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Emotions are confusing, Pisces. Monday's Venus-Jupiter trine blurs the lines between lover, friend, and the in-between. Stay curious, flexible, and unattached to outcomes. Friday's Mercury-Neptune trine is your moment to live into your values with your friends and see who honors that. This weekend's Sagittarius Moon is a productive one, so see where it takes you!

CHEF CHIP'S WILD GAME AND SEAFOOD RECIPE

GRILLED BUFFALO/BISON CRAB BURGER

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 Lb Ground Buffalo or Bison
- 4 oz Lump Crab Meat
- 2 oz Softened Boursin Cheese
- 1/4 tsp Worcestershire Sauce
- 1/4 tsp Old Bay Seasoning
- 4 Slices Cooked Applewood Bacon
- 2 Pretzel Buns
- Kosher Salt & Fresh Cracked Black Pepper To Taste

PREPARATION:

Preheat grill to medium high heat. Season buffalo/bison with salt and pepper. Make two 8 oz patties from the meat. Spray the grill with nonstick spray. Place the patties on the grill. While the patties are cooking, mix the Boursin cheese, Worcestershire and Old Bay together by hand. Using your hands, gently mix the crab with cheese mixture. When the burgers are close to desired doneness, top with cheesy crab mix. Press the mix down to cover the burgers and close the grill lid for about 2 minutes to allow mixture to melt down. Place burgers on buns, top with bacon & serve with sides of lettuce, tomatoes, onions, ketchup, mustard, etc... Enjoy!

HOW TO TRAVEL WITH FURRY WINTER COMPANIONS

Before you hit the road with your pooch, ensure you are well prepared with these helpful tips for traveling with your dog in winter.

- BRING PROPER WARM WINTER GEAR - Just as you would pack a blanket and warm jacket for yourself during winter travels, do the same for your dog.
- PET SHOES - Not just as a cute accessory for your dog, pet shoes are important if you live or are traveling to an area with frequent snow and ice during winter. Shoes can help protect their paws against frostbite, and the salt or chemicals use for de-icing roads and sidewalks. If your dog refuses to wear dog booties, the SPCA suggests massaging petroleum jelly into their paw pads before going outside. This will help protect them against frostbite and chemical agents on the ground.
- PACK PLENTY OF WATER AND FOOD - In addition to winter weather gear, be sure to pack plenty of water and food. Bring an extra gallon of water, along with non-perishable food items.
- PLAN PLENTY OF PIT STOPS - Depending on how long your drive is, plan scheduled bathroom breaks every couple of hours. Plan ahead and map out dog-friendly parks and rest stops.
- AVOID LETTING THEM OFF THE LEASH - While its generally a good rule of thumb to keep your dog on its leash, it is particularly important in winter where there is a lot of snow. It is much easier for a dog to lose their scent during a snowstorm, so its best to always keep a close watch during playtime and pitstops. Plus, if their paws aren't protected, it is not a good idea to let them run wild.
- SCHEDULE MAINTENANCE FOR YOUR CAR - this sounds like a no brainer, but before heading out on your road trip, be sure to schedule a maintenance check up on your car. The last thing you want is to be stranded with your dog in tow on the side of the road.

Be sure to check your battery, tires, brakes and anything else that could be a problem.

LIMBER TAIL SYNDROME
Submitted By
Patsy Nelson
from The Wagging Tail

Recently a customer relayed this syndrome as it had been diagnosed for her dog. I had not heard of it previously, so I told her I was going to research it. The medical term is Acute Caudal Myopathy. This is a syndrome usually reserved for larger hunting, swimming dogs like labs, retrievers, setters, pointers, and foxhounds. But any dog with a tail can succumb to this condition.

Other names for this include frozen tail, swimmer's tail, cold water tail, dead tail, limp tail, rudder tail, broken wag, flaccid tail syndrome, sprained tail, lab tail. It can cause mild, or excruciatingly painful results. If you imagine twisting your ankle. You may just limp for a few days and take some Tylenol. Or if you really sprain it you may have to rest and wear a boot. This applies to the base of a dog's tail where overuse of the tail causes the muscle groups at the base to be strained or sprained. Suddenly your dog's tail hangs limply, he may have trouble getting up because the tail is used for balance and he is in too much pain, he reacts negatively to having his tail touched, and may have problems with defecating, (or urinating for female dogs.) He may seem restless and unable to lie down comfortably.

It is nice outside, so you decide to take your dog for a run or a swim in the cold ocean or pool. Or you give your dog a bath outside with cold water. Or it is very cold outside, and your dog has no clothing on to keep him warm and again you exercise him. If you yourself exercise, especially for a marathon, or strenuous hiking, you prepare your body with daily stretches, and increasing endurance. If you decide to include your dog, have you prepared him accordingly? Probably not. Yet, Limber Tail Syndrome can also result from a bath. When you are submerged in water, you know that you can exert more pressure on your extremities because you are buoyed by the water. Same with a tail-wagging dog. They tend to not realize how strenuously they may be using their tail muscles. Same during rigorous play. Hence, they can end up with Limber Tail Syndrome. They may seem fine until the next day when the pain sets in. The tail may simply lay limp or stand straight a bit and then droop down.

It is best to take your dog to the vet for a proper diagnosis. Limber Tail Syndrome may mimic a lower back or spinal cord problem, a tail fracture or dislocation, infection or inflammation of the anal glands, the onset of prostate disease, or an underlying inflammation around the base of the tail. Therefore, it is best to have an evaluation by a vet.

A mild case may involve some pain medication, Gabapentin, or Meloxicam and plenty of rest. Some dogs have found quick response to dog chiropractic treatment. When resting, refrain from visitors (even your Childrens' friends) or excited activity around the dog that would have him want to wag his tail. Do everything passively and quietly. Most dogs recover within a few days and have no reoccurrence. But not all. Regardless, don't treat your dog like an invalid once he seems to have recovered. Do all the things he loves but in moderation and supervision. Be mindful of excessively cold weather, cold water, and sudden humidity changes.
