RELIVE THE MUSIC AND MAGIC OF THE '50S, '60S, AND '70S IN THE WILDWOODS - OCTOBER 17 & 18

Get ready to travel back in time with a night of unforgettable music at the Oceanfront Arena inside the Wildwoods Convention Center. The Greater Wildwood Chamber of Commerce presents the 20th annual '50s, '60s and '70s Weekend on Friday, October 17 and Saturday, October 18, 2025, in the Wildwoods, New Jersey. This two-day extravaganza celebrates the iconic eras of the 1950s and beyond, while also honoring the pivotal role the Wildwoods played in the birth of Rock 'n Roll music. The weekend kicks off on Friday night, October 17, inside the Wildwoods Convention Center with a '50s Dance Party featuring The Cameos, who will have you dancing the night away to classic oldies. The Dance Party, reminiscent of the Sock Hops of the '50s and '60s, takes place 6:30-10:30 p.m. and admission is $20 per person. Saturday, October 18, will feature a full day of outdoor fun and music during the FREE Street Fair at Fox Park, located across from the Wildwoods Convention Center on Ocean Avenue, from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. The Street Fair will include live entertainment throughout the day featuring the great sounds of the '50s, '60s and '70s with Animal House, Living Proof, and The Deck Band performing. Enjoy a variety of vendors offering memorabilia, merchandise, many delicious food options, and much more. A classic car show will be held at the circle in front of the Wildwoods Convention Center across from Fox Park from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. The highlight of the weekend is the '50s, '60s and '70s Concert taking center stage at the Oceanfront Arena in the Wildwoods Convention Center on Saturday, October 18, at 7 p.m. This star-studded musical lineup features The Pointer Sisters performing hits like "I'm So Excited," "Automatic," "He's So Shy," "Slow Hand," "Jump," "Dare Me," and many more! Also gracing the stage are The Spinners, known for their classics, "I'll Be Around," "Mighty Love," "The Rubberband Man," "Could It Be I'm Falling in Love," and more! The event is hosted by The Voice of Tribute, starring Tommy Cono as the voice of Frankie Valli, Lou Christie, Bobby Darren, and Frank Sinatra. Expect Tommy C. to sing timeless classics from each of these iconic artists. Doors open at 5 p.m. for the concert and an unforgettable night of music and nostalgia. For those eager to secure their tickets or gather additional information, stop by the Greater Wildwood Chamber of Commerce at 3306 Pacific Avenue in Wildwood, visit www.Wildwoods.com, or call 609-729-4000. Tickets are also available through Ticketmaster at www.ticketmaster.com and all Ticketmaster locations. A limited number of tickets will be available at the Wildwoods Convention Center Box Office the weekend of the event. For additional information, visit www.gwcoc.org or call 609-729-4000. For additional information about the Wildwoods, visit www.WildwoodsNJ.com or call 800-992-9732.

HOROSCOPE

OCTOBER 9 - OCTOBER 15, 2025

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

Tension is building - but so is clarity. A relationship or work dynamic could hit a turning point, especially if you've been avoiding a decision. This week asks for honest action, not just impulse. You don't need to burn it down to move forward - just light the right spark.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

You're ready to clean up your routine, but life might toss a few surprises into the mix. Keep your eyes on the long-term benefits instead of getting caught in temporary chaos. Real progress comes from flexibility, not control. What matters most is how you bounce back.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

Your creativity and confidence are back online - and someone is definitely paying attention. A romantic or artistic breakthrough is possible if you stop second-guessing yourself. This week, boldness pays off. Let joy be your north star, even if it's messy.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Things feel a little heavier than usual, and home or family matters may be weighing on your heart. Instead of retreating, try setting firmer boundaries and asking for help where needed. You're allowed to take up space in your own life. Self-care isn't selfish - it's a reset button.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

You're speaking your truth louder now - but be mindful of how it lands. A message or decision may need to be rephrased to avoid unnecessary drama. This week is about impact, not just expression. Say less, mean more.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

Your values are shifting, and you're starting to see where you've been over-giving - or undercharging. This is a wake-up call to advocate for what you're worth. A financial or emotional boundary might need reinforcement. You're not being difficult - you're being self-respecting.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

You're in the spotlight, and the pressure may be mounting. A personal or professional decision could feel weightier than usual. Remember: grace isn't about avoiding conflict - it's about handling it with poise. You're allowed to take yourself seriously.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

You're not saying everything, and that's okay - but don't confuse privacy with avoidance. This week brings an opportunity to confront what's been festering below the surface. A release is coming, whether you initiate it or not. Better to be in charge of the truth than buried by it.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

You're being pulled toward bigger-picture goals, but the details still need attention. A community, team, or collaboration could offer the structure you didn't know you needed. Don't dismiss help just because you're used to flying solo. This week, alignment beats independence.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22-Jan. 20)

You're stepping into a leadership moment, but pressure may challenge your confidence. Own your expertise without needing external validation. A public or career shift is underway - how you show up matters. Trust yourself to take the reins, even if your hands are shaking.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

It's time to look beyond what's familiar - even if that means facing uncertainty. A new opportunity could shake your beliefs or stretch your comfort zone. Say yes, even if your inner critic whispers no. You're not lost - you're expanding.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Emotional or financial truths come to the surface this week - and they may hit harder than expected. Don't shy away from what needs healing or balancing. A release is inevitable, but it also brings relief. Transformation isn't always pretty - but it's always powerful.

CHEF CHIP'S WILD GAME AND SEAFOOD RECIPE

VENISON CHEESESTEAK

INGREDIENTS:

- 1.5 LB. Shaved / Chipped Venison
- 1/2 White or Yellow Onion, Julienne Cut
- 2 TBS. Whole Unsalted Butter
- About 8 Mild Banana Pepper Rings
- 1 TBS. Worcestershire Sauce
- 1 TBS. Low Sodium Soy Sauce
- 6 Slices Cooper Sharp Cheese
- 1 (12 inch) Sub Roll, Sliced
- Smoked Sea Salt & Fresh Cracked Black Pepper To Taste

PREPARATION:

Preheat griddle or a large pan on high. After preheating, add 1 TBS. of butter. Next, saute the onions in the butter & allow them to brown up. Remove onions & set aside. Add another TBS. of butter to the same pan or griddle. Saute in the Venison. When the Venison is almost fully cooked, add in Worcestershire & Soy sauce. After mixing in the sauces, add the onion, pepper rings, salt & pepper into the meat. After mixing everything evenly, make a roll shape with the mix. Lay your cheese on top. Spread the roll apart slightly. Cover the mix with roll. Allow cheese to melt. Remove by placing a spatula underneath & one hand on the roll. Flip it over to the counter, slice & go with your favorite condiment. Enjoy!

Hint: Be careful with the amount of salt you use. Add a little at a time & re-taste. Special thanks to everyone at Originusa Company. This recipe is dedicated to them.

WHAT IS PYOMETRA?

Submitted By Patsy Nelson
from The Wagging Tail

Pyometra, the Latin name meaning "pus-uterus" refers to one of the most frequent occurrences in the reproductive system. It is a life-threatening infection of the uterus, and typically affects older non-spayed female dogs. As an in-tact female dog ages, the hormones that fluctuate during heat cycles cause the uterus to become "thicker and engorged with excess tissue," making the uterus more at risk for infection and less likely to ward off the infection. Infections are most likely to be noticed one to two months after each menstruation. While the uterus is usually at its core a healthy organ, the vagina is full of bacteria, which are healthy bacteria unless they cross the cervix and enter the uterus. The symptoms an owner may witness in an older un-spayed female are, lethargy, loss of appetite, and an increased need for hydration and subsequently, more urination. An owner of such a dog may see pus coming out of the vagina, but in some cases the cervix is so tight that there is no escape for the pus and so no obvious presence of infection. These are more dangerous scenarios. In the worst cases where the pus does not come out, the uterus may rupture and the pus will enter the abdomen. When one is able to have a sense of the dog's condition in early stages, the uterus can be removed. But if the pus stays contained, more aggressive surgery and future management will ensue. The outcome for a dog with a ruptured uterus is most dire.

Once the dog has been brought to the hospital, certain procedures will help the vet diagnose the problem and the severity. Blood work will be necessary which may show dehydration, high white count (because of the infection) and it will evaluate blood sugar and kidney and liver values. X-rays will show if the uterus is distended, gas filled, and if it is draining pus. An ultrasound may be the last resort in determining the seriousness of the situation. Ultrasounds enable the vet to accurately see the uterus and assess its degree of abnormality.

When a diagnosis has been ascertained, the pet will be catheterized, and depending on how sick she is, she will receive intravenous fluids and pain meds. Antibiotics may also be administered. Once she is stable enough (proper heart rate, blood pressure, and mentation) she will be operated on to remove the uterus and the ovaries. Females who have not gotten to the point of sepsis, or have had a rupture, will feel better and recover substantially quicker and without incidence. It appears that Pyometra is most common among bitches who are kept in tact longer for breeding purposes. It is necessary to breed the dog during the next heat cycle, once it has overcome Pyometra, but most are unable to carry to term. It seems to me that it would be most fair and humane to just remove the dog's uterus and adopt her to a loving family.

According to Emily Finn, of Angell's Emergency/Critical Care service, whose article I used, "The best and only prevention for pyometra is to have your dog spayed." A complete hysterectomy is not necessary if the ovaries are removed. "The current recommendation is to have female dogs spayed prior to their first heat cycles, but most older dogs are also good candidates for undergoing the spaying procedure." While researching this article I did encounter ones which advocate natural remedies. So as an owner of a dog with Pyometra or potential Pyometra, you could check them out on the web. Just found out that my friend's brother's chow-chow died to his total devastation!!
