ANAL GLAND PROBLEMS

Submitted By Patsy Nelson
formerly of The Wagging Tail

So many dogs and some cats are seen by their owners scooting across the floor or carpet, or frequently licking their anal area. Sometimes it could be a dirty butt, sometimes worms, and most times an anal gland issue. Just as with humans, pets need fiber in their diets. I learned early on to feed my horse a lap of hay in the morning first thing to get the digestive juices flowing and get that fiber into her before giving her grain. And think about all the small animals that have the benefit of hay to push out the accumulation of waste. Most commercial dry foods do not have enough fiber to be of much help. Consequently, many dogs need their anal glands expressed by the vet or the groomers. It is also possible for you to learn how to do it yourself, but extreme caution and confidence is required. Also, it can be a nasty smelly experience. Some articles strongly state that no one should express the anal glands. Their opinion is that "your dog shouldn't need his anal glands expressed. All that repeated squeezing and pinching can cause more inflammation, swelling and injury. Regular expressing can make the anal glands dependent and then they won't work on their own." It is also highly recommended by some that you do not have the glands surgically removed, as it can permanently damage the anal sphincter. Do your research and get a second opinion before doing surgery.

As pets age, they develop a variety of health issues, and some chronic diseases may cause a blockage in the anal ducts. Often drugs, chemicals, vaccines (we sure use plenty of them on our pets), and poor nutrition are suspects in poor anal health. I have done my research, and truth be told, many of us are over-vaccinating our dogs and cats. I recommend to my customers, and you the reader, that unless your pet needs antibiotics, DO NOT get any vaccines except rabies; after their initial puppy or kitten shot series. There is much data out there that we are causing more harm with too many vaccines, many of which are not a guarantee that they will protect your pet - like Lyme's vaccine. Think too, of using that money to put quality food into your pet's body. Rescued dogs, in-particular, have a history of impacted anal glands mainly because of poor diet. Preventing anal gland problems really starts with a good quality food free of unnecessary fillers and questionable ingredients and sources of those ingredients. We have many free samples for you to try of family-owned, multi-generational, recall-free foods.

The Wagging Tail attempts to carry products that are as effective as the vet's but easier on your pocketbook. One of those products is called Glandex. Glandex is made in the USA of all-natural ingredients such as pumpkin seed, apple pectin, Quercetin Dihydrate, which is a flavonoid found in many fruits and vegetables and has powerful anti-oxidant, anti-inflammatory, and antihistamine properties. Glandex also has Bromelain extracted from pineapple, and like MCT oil for BD oil, it increases bioavailability. In this case, Quercetin, aids with digestion, and reduces allergies and inflammation. Glandex also contains Lactobacillus Acidophilus: a probiotic useful in improving digestion and immune function. Using Glandex regularly can help resolve the underlying issues of anal gland impaction. Glandex comes in a powder or a chewable form. Come in and check out this great product I use on my pets.

Articles are also on my Facebook page, Patricia Robinson Nelson. I would love your comments. Email me at patsy-rob1@gmail.com with concerns.

HOROSCOPE

MAY 7-13, 2026

ARIES (Mar. 21- April 20)
The pace around you quickens, but your best move is to simplify. Focus on one clear priority instead of trying to manage every moving part. A confident choice creates more progress than chasing every option.

TAURUS (Apr. 21- May 21)
Security takes center stage in a practical way. Review what needs attention before adding anything new. A small correction now can protect your comfort later. Steady choices help you feel more in control.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)
Fresh information changes the tone of a conversation. Ask better questions before deciding where you stand. Listening closely gives you the edge this week. The right answer may come through what someone reveals indirectly.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)
A familiar responsibility may need a cleaner boundary. You can care without carrying the whole weight yourself. Protecting your peace makes you more effective, not less available. Choose support over self-sacrifice.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)
Recognition may come through consistency rather than performance. Keep showing up with confidence, but let your work prove the point. Quiet authority will land better than trying to impress. Your strength is in staying steady.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)
Loose ends are ready to be organized, but not everything needs to be solved at once. Start with the piece that has been draining the most energy. Order returns when you stop treating every task as equal. Prioritizing is its own kind of progress.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)
An agreement or connection may need a more honest read. Pay attention to whether the effort feels mutual. Harmony is strongest when it is built on reality, not avoidance. Choose fairness over keeping things pleasant.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
Private insight helps you understand what others are missing. Use that awareness carefully instead of revealing too much too soon. The right move becomes obvious when you let the full picture emerge. Patience gives you leverage.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)
Adventure calls, but responsibility still needs a seat at the table. Explore the possibility without ignoring the details. A grounded plan makes freedom easier to enjoy. Let excitement lead, but let practicality steer.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.- Jan. 20)
Progress depends on what you are willing to streamline. Cut the extra steps, extra worries, or extra obligations that slow you down. Efficiency gives you room to breathe. The simpler path may be the stronger one.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 -Feb. 19)
A new perspective may arrive through an unexpected exchange. Let the conversation challenge your assumptions without pulling you off center. Openness leads to a better solution. Stay curious, but keep your footing.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)
Your energy improves when you stop chasing everything at once. Choose the rhythm that actually supports your well-being. A calmer pace helps you make better choices. Peace becomes easier when you stop rushing your own process.

MOTHER'S DAY SUNDAY, MAY 10
 Mother's Day is a tradition of recognizing the women in our lives who raised us, dried our tears, and well, mothered us. Everyone has one or has someone who is like a mother to them. On the second Sunday of May, we honor those women who are our mothers. Whether we shower her with gifts, take her to a fancy dinner or make her a homemade card, what moms want most is to be surrounded by the love of her family. For those of us whose moms are no longer with us, spend some time remembering the woman you miss.

CHEF CHIP'S WILD GAME AND SEAFOOD RECIPE

CLAMS & PANCHETTA with LINGUINE

INGREDIENTS:

- 1/4 cup Small Diced Panchetta
- 1 Tbsp Minced Garlic
- 1 Tbsp Minced Shallots
- 1/2 tsp Dried Oregano
- 1 Bay Leaf
- 1 tsp Chili Pepper Flakes
- 1 Tbsp All-purpose Flour
- 1/2 cup White Wine
- 3 cups Clam Juice
- 1 cup Chopped Clams
- 1 lb Cooked Linguine
- 2 Tbsp Cold Whole Unsalted Butter
- Kosher Salt if Needed

Garnish:

- Fresh Chopped Parsley, Shaved or Grated Parmesan Cheese, Fresh Cracked Black Pepper & Lemon Wedges

PREPARATION:

Heat a pot over medium heat. Add panchetta and cook through but not to crispy. Add in garlic, shallots, oregano, bay leaf and chili peppers. Stir and cook until translucent, not browned. Whisk in flour and allow it to lump up in the pot. Cook for another minute while stirring. Slowly whisk in white wine and allow liquid to reduce by half. Slowly whisk in stock and reduce liquid by 1/3. Add in clams and simmer on low for 5 minutes. Remove from heat and whisk in cold whole unsalted butter with fresh parsley. Toss with cooked hot linguine, plate in a pasta bowl and serve with garnish. Enjoy! Hint: Be careful using extra salt with this recipe. There is a lot of salt in clams and clam juice.

VEHICLE ACCESSORIES:

WHEN IT'S NOT QUITE SUMMER YET, PT 2

Here are 13 practical essentials and convenient accessories to take along on your spring outing.

7. Disinfecting wipes and hand lotion: Prevent the spread of germs after visiting road stops. Use wipes to clean hands, door handles, sticky spills and surfaces. Frequent cleaning can dry out your skin, so use hand lotion to keep your hands soft and hydrated throughout the trip or look for wipes with a mild scent and a fast-absorbing lotion that won't leave your hands greasy while driving.

8. Wet bag or separate laundry pouch: Hikes, beach stops and playful pets can leave you with damp or dirty clothes. A wet bag or separate laundry pouch keeps moisture and odor from spreading to the rest of your luggage. Look for options made from ripstop nylon or polyester with a waterproof PUL lining to trap moisture and odors effectively.

9. Portable electric cooler: Keep drinks and snacks chilled without messy ice packs. It helps you stay refreshed and reduces frequent stops for cold beverages. Durable ABS plastic or stainless steel with efficient insulation prevent condensation and leaks. Stock drinks with reusable and insulated water bottles that keeps water cold for hours and cuts down single-use plastics.

10. Cordless vacuum cleaner: Maintain a clean and organized vehicle with a handheld automotive vacuum. Choose one with strong suction, long battery life and a compact design to reach tight spaces between seats, cup holders and floor mats.

11. Car organizer: Keep essentials like sunglasses, maps, water bottles and even allergy medication neatly placed with a car organizer. Look for organizers made from durable materials like polyester and reinforced fabric. Designate compartments for specific items so that everything is within arm's reach.

12. Collapsible garbage bin with odor-seal lid: These bins expand to hold more trash but fold flat when not in use. The odor-seal lid helps trap smells and keeps your cabin atmosphere fresh and pleasant throughout the trip. Some products come with leakproof liners, so you don't have to worry about spills from drink cups or sticky snack bags. Or consider inserting a disposable bag to prevent the bin from getting soiled. Simply discard the liner at your next pit stop.
