FEBRUARY IS NATIONAL PET DENTAL HEALTH MONTH

Submitted By
Patsy Nelson
from The Wagging Tail

The American Veterinary Dental Society (AVDS) which was established in 1976, launched the "National Pet Dental Health Month" in 1993. The aim still is to create awareness of the necessity of good oral hygiene. There is a high incidence of dental disease in pets; 44-86% of dogs and 50-90% of cats suffer from either gingivitis or periodontitis by the age of three or four. All pets begin dental problems with plaque, a sticky substance that adheres to the teeth and begins to turn the teeth yellow and is caused by saliva, bacteria, and debris. At this stage, the problem is considered reversible with proper dental attention as in brushing, oral gels, supplements like PlaqueOff powder by Proden, and dental chews. The most notable signs of gingivitis are bad breath, plaque, and swollen gums. Periodontitis is an advanced stage and can lead to irreversible damage. It can result in the destruction of the teeth, the periodontal ligament and jawbone. The most obvious sign is heavy brown tartar (calculus.) The worst stage of dental disease, tooth resorption, affects mainly cats; 75% of cats over five. This disease manifests itself in drooling, dropping food and favoring chewing on only one side because of the destruction of teeth below the gumline. I noticed our cat, Connie, chewing on one side. She had two rotten teeth. She got her teeth cleaned and two extractions and cat Carly got her teeth cleaned as well. Dental disease is most serious because bacteria from unclean or infected teeth and gums can enter the bloodstream, resulting in systemic health problems involving the heart, kidney, and liver function. Brushing a pet's teeth is the least go-to option for pet owners. Data shows that only 7%-8% of dog owners brush their pets' teeth, and not regularly, and 4% of cat owners. The reluctance stems from either the pet's dislike, aggressive reactions, fear of injuring the pet, and inconvenience. I have never brushed my pets' teeth for all the above reasons. I have found that the best alternative is a quality gel. My ten-pound Maltese, Zoey has a tiny mouth and yet at nine years of age, she only has a little plaque on her upper fangs which can be scraped at her next wellness checkup. Otherwise, her teeth are like that of a one-year-old. Ebby, who is 8 years old and still reactive, especially when inserting my finger in her mouth, came with dental issues and I had to have her teeth professionally cleaned. It is costly and is not a permanent fix. I use the gel at least every other day on Zoey. I also add PlaqueOff to their food nightly. (I would like to be able to give it to my two cats, but they don't like it.) The dogs get a bedtime dental treat as well. Experts liken giving dental chews only, as brushing without toothpaste. And don't waste your grooming money for a toothbrushing service. Something done that infrequently, and who is to tell how well it is done, is worthless. And don't rely on dry kibble to help clean teeth. Dogs who like the meal you give to them or have competition in the presence of other dogs will scarf it right down. That is another good reason to add cool water to a pet's kibble.

HOROSCOPE

FEBRUARY 26 - MARCH 4, 2025

ARIES (Mar. 21- April 20)

Momentum shifts as priorities reorganize themselves late in the week. Decisions tied to career direction or leadership responsibilities require a steadier hand. Instead of reacting quickly, pause to measure impact.

TAURUS (Apr. 21- May 21)

Broader goals come back into focus as details demand refinement. Conversations about travel, expansion, or future plans need practical follow-through. Adjust expectations to match real timelines. Patient groundwork strengthens what you build next.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

Financial and shared commitments require careful review as subtle shifts emerge. Discussions may reveal overlooked terms or assumptions. Address small imbalances directly rather than postponing them. Clear agreements protect both trust and stability.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Relationship dynamics continue evolving as clarity replaces uncertainty. Emotional conversations benefit from steadiness rather than intensity. Express what you need without overexplaining. Balance strengthens when both sides feel heard.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

Daily demands increase, calling for disciplined organization. Tasks that once felt manageable may need restructuring for efficiency. Protect your energy by eliminating unnecessary distractions. Consistency now prevents burnout later.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 -Sept. 23)

Creative energy rises as inspiration competes with responsibility. A small personal project or idea deserves focused attention. Carve out space for enjoyment without sacrificing obligations. Thoughtful pacing keeps both productivity and passion intact.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

Home and family matters settle into clearer patterns. Decisions regarding shared routines benefit from transparent communication. Address lingering tension calmly to restore equilibrium. Stability builds through practical cooperation.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 -Nov. 22)

Strategic conversations unfold as timing becomes essential. Information shared this week may alter your next move slightly. Ask direct questions before finalizing plans. Measured responses maintain your advantage.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

Spending and resource management come under sharper focus. Reevaluate where energy and money are flowing most freely. Prioritize long-term gain over short-term reward. Discipline strengthens confidence.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.- Jan. 20)

Personal direction gains clarity as outside feedback sharpens perspective. Adjustments made now strengthen authority rather than weaken it. Stay grounded while refining expectations. Progress builds through steady alignment.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

Quiet insight replaces recent external pressure. Reflection reveals what deserves continued investment and what does not. Release distractions that no longer serve your focus. Subtle resets position you for stronger forward motion.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Team efforts move forward as responsibilities become more clearly defined. Group discussions benefit from practicality over idealism. Set realistic boundaries while maintaining supportive cooperation. Shared goals advance through consistency.

CHEF CHIP'S WILD GAME AND SEAFOOD RECIPE

SHRIMP STEW

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 lb Large Shrimp P & D / Tail Off
- 8 oz Smoked Bacon, Diced
- 2 Tbsp Whole Unsalted Butter
- 1/4 cup Small Dice Yellow Onion
- 1/4 cup Small Dice Celery
- 2 Cloves Fresh Minced Garlic
- 1/2 cup White Wine
- 2 cups Tomato Juice
- 1 cup Shrimp Stock
- 1/2 cup Diced Stewed Tomatoes
- 1/4 cup Small Dice Carrots
- 4 oz Cooked, Sliced (1/8" thick), Andouille Sausage
- 1/4 cup (1/2" diced) Red Bliss Potatoes

- 1 Bay Leaf
- 1 Tbsp Fresh Finely Chopped Thyme
- 1 tsp Fresh Finely Chopped Rosemary
- 1 Tbsp Sherry Wine
- Old Bay Seasoning & Fresh Cracked Black Pepper To Taste

PREPARATION:

Place pot over medium heat. Add bacon and stir constantly. Cook soft not crispy. Remove bacon to a paper towel. Add butter to bacon fat in pot. When the butter melts, add in onion, celery and garlic. Cook until soft and translucent, not brown. Add in white wine and bay leaf. Reduce liquid by half. Next, add tomato juice, stock, tomatoes, carrots, potatoes, seasoning and herbs. Bring to a boil and then drop down to a simmer. When the potatoes and carrots are almost done, add in sausage, shrimp and bacon. Finish cooking 3-5 minutes. Finish by stirring in sherry wine. Serve in a bread bowl or over rice or pasta. Enjoy!

FIGHT BACK AGAINST WINTER GRIME

Winter road grime (salt, dirt, oil, and harsh chemicals) can bond to your car's paint and wheels if left on too long, leading to staining, etching, and permanent damage. Regular washing throughout winter is the best way to preserve your vehicle's finish and make spring cleanup easier. Adding a protective wax creates a barrier against contaminants—traditional carnauba wax needs more frequent reapplication, while hybrid ceramic waxes can provide season-long protection.

Key winter car care tips:

- Rinse the undercarriage and door jams to remove built-up salt and grime (keep pressure washer nozzles a few inches away).
- Wash frequently to prevent pitting and staining, especially on wheels.
- Use wheel-specific cleaners and brushes to avoid scratching.
- Never use wheel wash mitts on painted surfaces.
- Brake dust is acidic and can damage paint and finishes.
- Dry with microfiber towels to prevent swirl marks and scratches.
- Apply a protective layer of carnauba or hybrid ceramic wax; follow directions to avoid streaking or hazing.
- Use automated washes when short on time, then touch up missed spots and reapply wax at home if needed.
