COMMON SIGNS OF STRESS IN YOUR DOG

Submitted By Patsy Nelson
from The Wagging Tail

This is mostly extracted from AKC Family Dog Magazine, the internet, and personal experience.

These signs include:

*Wide, darting eyes. When you see the eye whites, something is not right. This is sometimes called whale eye; turning the head while keeping the eyes fixed. When I brought Ebby, a twenty-pound mix with a lot of chihuahua and terrier in her to our house after her owner died, she was a reactive fear biter. This month will mark our 5th year with her, and she doesn't exhibit what I call "scary eyes" nearly as often. And she is much more comfortable with strangers, though I ask them not to hug her.

*Humping. Frequent humping of other animals, pillows, toys, furniture, or your legs can be a signal that your dog is stressed. Of course, some dogs who are not neutered may do this, or dogs with excessive hormones, but it also can be stress related.

*Obsessive licking. If your dog seems fixated on licking objects, himself, or you, he may be doing it as a desperate attempt to relieve anxiety. I've had many customers who had a problem with their dog licking itself. Sometimes it is allergies. Sometimes it becomes a habit. I see that habit with our nine-year-old Maltese, Zoey. She also likes to lick her lambchop toy. When she starts licking her front paws while we sit on the sofa watching TV, I'll put her lambchop in front of her nose and she usually starts licking that instead. It is suggested to rule out anxiety by trying a calming solution. Both dogs get some CBD in their food nightly. And they both still have their quirks. Ebby is generally more nervous and licks a lot too.

*Shaking. This sign could also mean that your dog is cold or in pain. It could also mean, as with our dogs, that they may need to poop-like when they are in their car seats when we take them for a ride. At any rate, if your dog does this, find out the cause and avoid or desensitize the pet, or see a vet. Ebby has been acting on edge lately and has periods of shaking. I want to check if it could be her medicine.

*Stillness. A dog that suddenly freezes in an uncomfortable situation is not "being patient." That is his way of saying, "back off." Watch your dog's body language, and that of any strange dogs which you encounter.

*Yawning. Often mistaken for sleepiness, yawning can also be a signal that a dog is frustrated or becoming anxious. When Ebby yawns I always evaluate the situation to check if it is stress related.

*Pacing and panting behaviors should be monitored. Like people, dogs may act restless or distracted when stressed. Panting, also a sign of excitement, exertion, and feeling hot, could be attributed to emotional discomfort. Only you can be the judge of that.

*Hiding or freezing in place, or tucking the tail, shrinking low to the ground. Zoey is a more confident dog, and I know her history and we have had her since she was 9 months old. I had heard tales that Ebby may have suffered some abuse in her home life, and I see how quickly sounds or movements still frighten her. Rustling papers, using the tape gun, cooking timer, etc. Lately she has been retreating in the upstairs guest room unless she can be with me when I am doing something quiet, like reading.

Did you know? A recent study found that extreme stress can make dogs' muzzles go gray prematurely.

Articles are also on my Facebook page, Patricia Robinson Nelson. I would love your comments. Email me at patsyrob1@gmail.com with concerns. THANK YOU!

HOROSCOPE

AUGUST 6 - 12, 2026

ARIES (March 21 – April 20)

A burst of energy helps you tackle projects that have been sitting on the back burner. Your confidence inspires others to follow your lead. By the weekend, a spontaneous outing or invitation brings plenty of laughs and a welcome change of pace.

TAURUS (April 21 – May 21)

Patience pays off as something you've been waiting on finally begins to fall into place. Take time to enjoy life's simple pleasures and reconnect with someone you've missed. A thoughtful decision now will benefit you in the weeks ahead.

GEMINI (May 22 – June 21)

Your curiosity opens the door to an exciting opportunity this week. Don't hesitate to ask questions or explore a new interest. A conversation with a friend or coworker could lead to unexpected inspiration and a fresh perspective.

CANCER (June 22 – July 22)

Focus on creating balance between your responsibilities and personal time. Someone close to you appreciates your support more than you realize. A relaxing evening at home helps recharge your energy and prepares you for what's next.

LEO (July 23 – August 22)

The spotlight naturally finds you this week, making it an excellent time to share your ideas or take the lead. Your enthusiasm is contagious, and others are eager to join your plans. Celebrate even the small victories.

VIRGO (August 23 – September 23)

Organization becomes your greatest strength as you make steady progress on a lingering task. Don't overlook opportunities to ask for help when needed. A pleasant surprise reminds you that not everything has to be planned perfectly.

LIBRA (September 24 – October 23)

Relationships take center stage, bringing opportunities to strengthen friendships and family ties. A kind gesture goes a long way, and an invitation you almost decline could turn into one of the week's best moments.

SCORPIO (October 24 – November 22)

Your determination helps you overcome a challenge that once seemed overwhelming. Trust your instincts when making an important choice. As the week winds down, you'll gain a clearer picture of the direction you want to take.

SAGITTARIUS (November 23 – December 21)

Adventure doesn't have to mean traveling far. Trying something new close to home brings excitement and fresh inspiration. Stay open to unexpected invitations - they may introduce you to people or experiences you'll truly enjoy.

CAPRICORN (December 22 – January 20)

Consistency continues to work in your favor. The effort you've invested begins to show noticeable results, especially in work or financial matters. Take a moment to acknowledge your progress before setting your next ambitious goal.

AQUARIUS (January 21 – February 19)

Fresh ideas arrive when you least expect them, so keep a notebook or phone handy. A change in routine leads to a welcome discovery. Honest communication helps smooth over a misunderstanding and strengthens an important relationship.

PISCES (February 20 – March 20)

Your creativity is flowing, making this a wonderful week to start a new project or revisit an old hobby. Trust your instincts when making decisions, and don't underestimate how much your positive outlook encourages those around you.

*This restaurant deserves five stars all around!
The service was great. The atmosphere is quaint.
But the food is definitely spot on. Everything from the appetizers right through to the dessert was amazing. No complaints had by anyone at the dinner table, and we went with a big group.
I would definitely recommend if you're looking for a more luxurious meal.*

Boys youth teams compete in a fun yet competitive atmosphere, with the sound of crashing waves and the salty ocean breeze adding to the experience. Sponsored

DRIVING TIPS FOR HOT DAYS, HOT NIGHTS ON THE ROAD, PT 3

Preparing for a road trip with your pet

- Microchips. Most pet adoption places automatically do this as well as some breeders. Police and animal control offices scan to identify your pet and find the owners.

- Check your dog's tags and collar. Make sure the tags are up-to-date and that the collar is in good condition. As an added security step, you could even print temporary tags. These tags include the information of where you will be staying during your trip. Pet stores offer an easy way to print cheap temporary tags for vacations.

- Packing. Bring along your pet's favorite toys, bedding, and food. Don't forget to pack water, food bowls, leashes, and waste bags.

- GPS tracking tag. A rugged, waterproof, GPS collar tag can help locate your pet using an app on your mobile phone. Via Bluetooth when in range or a GPS network when out of range, a GPS tracker gives your pet an added level of security.

- Pet emergencies. Bring a first aid kit for your pet and research emergency vets along your route just in case.

- Pet behavior. Watch your pet frequently for signs they are comfortable and relaxed. Panting is the way dogs cool off and also is an important sign they are getting too warm or under stress.

- Crates and carriers. A well-ventilated crate or carrier. is the safest option in case of an accident. Make sure it is large enough for your pet to stand, sit, lie down and turn around in. Secure the crate so it doesn't slide or shift during abrupt stops.

- Prevent eye damage and head injury. Don't allow pets to ride with their head outside the window.

- Prep a pet-friendly travel kit. Bring food, a bowl, leash, waste bags and grooming supplies. Include a favorite toy or pillow.

- Feeding and watering. The ASPCA recommends a light meal three or four hours before travel. Be sure to pack plenty of water, and avoid feeding your pet in a moving vehicle. Use bottled water whenever possible—it's safer than standing water or tap water that may not be properly treated.

- Travel documents. Border crossings require official pet vaccination and other documents. Check with the destination county before leaving town and keep a copy in your glove box.

- Do not leave your dog unattended in a parked vehicle. Mild summer temperatures climb to deadly levels even with the windows open in parked vehicles. Pet heatstroke is common. Find a cool spot outside the vehicle where your pet can wait with one of your human travel companions.
