ALPHA-GAL SYNDROME

Submitted By Patsy Nelson
formerly of The Wagging Tail

Yesterday I got a call from the County Health Department, and I am now a tick-borne disease statistic. About 10 weeks ago I pulled the remains of a tick head out of my skin around my waistband. "Oh st," I said. I wasn't thinking about Lyme disease, I was thinking about the itching that I was going to suffer for the next few weeks as I do whenever I have gotten a tick or spider bite. But the bump and itching continued being problematic for more than two months. When I mentioned it to my primary doctor, he suggested a Lyme test. When I mentioned it to my vet, he insisted I get a Lyme's test. As it happened, I was due for some bloodwork from my rheumatologist and so I requested to get the Lyme's test at the same time. That was about a week ago. Now I must see an allergist. No appt. available until September 8th because I will be away for my 80th birthday. (Can you believe that!) However, I have done my research today.

Essentially, alpha-gal syndrome is a condition triggered by a bite from all life stages of the lone star tick, although other ticks have been implicated worldwide. Alpha-gal syndrome is best known as a red meat and dairy allergy. (I thought pork was called the other white meat.) However, I cannot for the foreseeable future have any beef, pork, lamb as well as dairy (I am luckily already lactose intolerant) or gelatin-particularly gelatin coated supplements and other pills which may contain mammal-derived byproducts. This includes certain suppositories. Avoid carrageenan as its molecular structure contains a sequence that mimics or contains the alpha-gal epitope (a mammalian sugar molecule), triggering a similar allergic reaction. No products cooked with mammal fat, like lard, tallow, or suet. Likewise, meat broth, bullion, stock, or gravy. Symptoms of AG occur 2-6 hours after eating. I have been unwittingly suffering from some of the symptoms like increased brain fog, fatigue and low energy, breakout of raised bumps from my shoulders to my stomach, itchy weird rashes and blotches especially on my back, digestive issues including increased heartburn and reflux, a cough, moments of shortness of breath, dizziness, and increased severe knee pain as well as overall stiffness, and muscle aching. AGS does affect your knee joints but not your hands or your hips. Other symptoms include diarrhea, severe stomach pain, nausea and vomiting, a drop in blood pressure, and swelling of the lips, throat, tongue, or eye lids. Also, a combination of symptoms which is known as anaphylaxis and is potentially life-threatening. The allergist will consult with me as to any other care I might need and when I should be retested; according to Google, the recommended time for rechecking IgE antibody titers is every 6 to 8 months when your numbers are as low as mine. Weekly quote: Don't accept your dog's admiration as conclusive evidence that you are wonderful. -Ann Landers.

HOROSCOPE

AUGUST 20 - 26, 2026

ARIES (March 21 - April 20)

A burst of energy helps you finally get moving on something you've been putting off. Trust yourself when an opportunity comes your way, even if it feels a little outside your comfort zone. The weekend brings a chance to celebrate a small win.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21)

A conversation this week may help you see a situation from a completely different perspective. Don't be too attached to doing things the usual way. A little flexibility could lead to an easier and more enjoyable week.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)

Your calendar may fill up quickly, but not every invitation needs an immediate answer. Make room for the people and activities that genuinely make you happy. A spontaneous plan could turn into one of the week's best memories.

CANCER (June 22 - July 22)

You've been giving plenty of attention to everyone else, so this week it's time to focus on yourself. Setting one simple boundary could bring a surprising sense of relief. By the weekend, you'll feel more balanced and refreshed.

LEO (July 23 - August 22)

The spotlight is still on you, and your confidence is opening doors. Don't hesitate to put yourself forward when an exciting opportunity appears. A fun gathering or unexpected compliment could make your birthday season even sweeter.

VIRGO (August 23 - September 23)

Something that seemed complicated may turn out to have a much simpler solution. Stop second-guessing yourself and trust the work you've already put in. A productive week leaves you with more time to relax and enjoy yourself.

LIBRA (September 24 - October 23)

A little excitement breaks up your routine this week. Someone may invite you somewhere unexpected, giving you a reason to put your plans aside for a while. Say yes when you can—you may discover something you didn't know you needed.

SCORPIO (October 24 - November 22)

You're getting closer to an answer you've been searching for. Pay attention to what happens behind the scenes rather than forcing things to happen too quickly. By the weekend, a decision should feel much clearer.

SAGITTARIUS (November 23 - December 21)

This is a great week to get out, explore and break away from your normal routine. A new place or activity could introduce you to someone interesting. Don't overplan the experience—leave room for something unexpected.

CAPRICORN (December 22 - January 20)

A busy week calls for better balance between responsibilities and relaxation. Finishing one lingering task will give you a welcome sense of accomplishment. Make sure you reward yourself with some downtime once the work is done.

AQUARIUS (January 21 - February 19)

An unexpected idea could have more potential than you realize. Write it down, talk it through and see where it takes you. A change in your routine may also bring a refreshing boost of energy this week.

PISCES (February 20 - March 20)

Your creativity is especially strong, making this a good week to try something just for fun. Don't worry about getting everything perfect—enjoy the process instead. A thoughtful message or unexpected invitation could brighten your week.

*This restaurant deserves five stars all around!
The service was great. The atmosphere is quaint.
But the food is definitely spot on. Everything from the appetizers right through to the dessert was amazing. No complaints had by anyone at the dinner table, and we went with a big group.
I would definitely recommend if you're looking for a more luxurious meal.*

National Dog Day

National Dog Day is celebrated annually on August 26, honoring all dogs and raising awareness for dog rescues and adoption.

Origins and Purpose:

National Dog Day was founded in 2004 by Colleen Paige, an animal welfare advocate and pet lifestyle expert, who adopted her first dog from a shelter on August 26 when she was 10. The date was chosen to mark that personal milestone.

The day's mission has two main goals:

- Rescue awareness — to highlight the millions of dogs in U.S. shelters and rescues each year, many of whom are waiting for loving homes.
- Honoring working dogs — including service, detection, and search-and-rescue dogs who risk their lives to protect people and communities.

Why It Matters:

In 2025, about 5.8 million dogs and cats entered U.S. shelters, with roughly 2.8 million dogs. Many are abandoned due to lifestyle changes, unmet expectations, or lack of proper care. National Dog Day encourages adoption over buying from puppy mills or irresponsible breeders, promoting responsible pet ownership.

D-DAY VETERAN C-47 "PLACID LASSIE," ME 262 AND HISTORIC WARBIRDS HEADLINE AIRFEST 2026

Naval Air Station Wildwood Aviation Museum is excited to announce the return of AirFest 2026, the museum's signature event and largest annual fundraiser, taking place Thursday, September 3 through Sunday, September 6, from 10am to 4pm daily at Cape May Airport. While aircraft are at the heart of AirFest, the four-day event will also feature military vehicles, fire trucks, living-history reenactors, aviation and STEM exhibits, historical organizations, family activities, vendors, food, live music, caricatures and face painting, beer & wine garden, food trucks, and more. Admission is $18 for adults and $14 for children ages 3-12. NASW Aviation Museum members, active duty military and children ages 3 and under are admitted free. Free parking is available, with shuttle service around the Cape May Airport complex on Saturday and Sunday.

Historic Aircraft & Flying Legends

Each year, AirFest welcomes an ever-changing lineup of operational historic aircraft from museums, foundations, aviation organizations, and private owners.

Messerschmitt Me 262 - Military Aviation Museum

Representing the world's first operational jet fighter, the Me 262 was one of the most revolutionary aircraft of World War II and helped influence the future of military aviation.

C-47 "Placid Lassie" - Tunison Foundation

Built in 1943, Placid Lassie is a genuine World War II combat veteran that crossed the English Channel twice on D-Day and later participated in Operation Market Garden, the Battle of the Bulge, and Operation Varsity.

TBM Avenger "Doris Mae" - Commemorative Air Force Capital Wing

One of the U.S. Navy's most recognizable carrier aircraft of World War II, the TBM Avenger carried torpedoes and bombs from American aircraft carriers throughout the conflict.

Japanese A6M Zero Replica - Commemorative Air Force Capital Wing

This flying replica represents one of Japan's most recognizable World War II fighters and was converted from an American military trainer for the 1970 film Tora! Tora! Tora!

Fuji LM-1 - Commemorative Air Force Capital Wing

Developed from the Beechcraft T-34 Mentor, only 27 Fuji LM-1s were built. The visiting aircraft is one of only a handful believed to remain flying.

Beechcraft T-34 Mentor - Commemorative Air Force Capital Wing

The T-34 Mentor trained generations of military aviators and gives visitors the unusual opportunity to compare the original design with the Japanese Fuji LM-1 developed from it. And more!

For the latest AirFest 2026 announcements and upcoming daily schedule, follow Naval Air Station Wildwood Aviation Museum on Facebook and Instagram or visit usnasw.org/airfest.

CHEF CHIP'S WILD GAME AND SEAFOOD RECIPE

PAN SEARED CARIBBEAN MAHI-MAHI WITH PEACH PICO DE GALLO

INGREDIENTS:

- | | |
|--|---|
| Peach Pico De Gallo:
• 2 NJ Fresh Peaches,
Small Dice with Skin On
• 1/4 cup Red Onion, Small Dice
• 1/4 cup Jalapeño Peppers,
Small Dice
• 1/4 cup Jersey Tomatoes,
Small Dice
• 1 Tbsp Minced Garlic
• 2 Tbsp Fresh Cilantro,
Finely Chopped
• 1/4 Cup Cider Vinegar
• 2 Tbsp Extra Virgin Olive Oil | • 1/4 tsp. Hank's Hot Sauce
(Cilantro Flavor)
• 1 tsp Fresh Squeezed Lemon
Juice
• 1 tsp Fresh Squeezed Lime Juice
• 1 Tbsp Granulated Sugar
• Kosher Salt To Taste
Fish:
• 1 Average Size Mahi-Mahi,
Skin Off
• 1/2 Cup Caribbean Jerk
Seasoning
• Coconut Oil For Pan Frying |
|--|---|

PREPARATION:

For pico, pour vinegar, lemon juice, lime juice, hot sauce and sugar into a bowl. Slowly whisk in olive oil (EVOO). Toss in remaining ingredients and mix well. Place in an air tight bag and refrigerate for at least four hours. For fish, preheat a cast Iron skillet to medium high heat. While the pan is pre-heating you can prepare the fish. First, cut the fillets down into 4-6 oz. pieces horizontally. Next dry the fish with paper towels. Heavily season only the flesh side of the fish and pat it in with your hand. Pour enough oil into the pan to coat it. Place the fillet sections into the hot oil flesh side down (jerk spice side). Allow the fish to cook until it starts to get a light black char to it, not burnt. Add a little more oil to coat the bottom of the pan again. Flip the fillets, drop the temperature to medium, cover and allow to finish cooking to an internal temperature of 145°. Plate and top with peach pico de gallo. Enjoy! Hint: You can serve this over a bed of arugula, some rice or couscous.

THE NEW ROAD HAZARD: E-BIKE CRAZE HITS CITY STREETS, PT 1

Teen drivers and experienced motorists are encountering a rapidly growing roadway hazard that is contributing to more crashes and fatalities. The increasing popularity of e-bikes has changed the traffic landscape, particularly near schools and residential neighborhoods.

With more kids and teens riding e-bikes to school, parks and running errands around town, young drivers must learn how to safely share the road with riders whose speed and unpredictable movements can make them difficult to anticipate.

"One of the biggest adjustments drivers need to make is recognizing that an e-bike doesn't behave like a traditional bicycle," said Nancy Pullen-Seufert, director of the National Center for Safe Routes to School.

There were over 54,000 traffic crashes involving vehicles and cyclists, according to one survey by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.

NHTSA officials say many of those crashes could have been prevented if motorists were alert and looked out for cyclists and did not misjudge their movements.

As e-bikes become increasingly common in school zones and neighborhoods, teen drivers should expect young e-bikers to travel at speeds that can be difficult to judge at first glance.

"Its higher operating speed changes how quickly gaps close at intersections and driveways, making it essential for motorists to reassess before turning or pulling into traffic," said Pullen-Seufert, an advocate of road safety for more than two decades.

Pullen-Seufert has led national initiatives focused on school zone safety, driver awareness and educating teen drivers about safely sharing the road with the growing number of e-bike riders.

The following tips help teen drivers safely share the road with e-bikers of all ages:

1. Be extra alert during the first weeks

At the beginning of a new school year, many students will still be settling back into their daily routines and safe riding habits.

This is a good time for both teen and adult drivers to reset their own driving habits by slowing down, scanning intersections more carefully and expecting heavier e-bike traffic along school routes.

2. Don't underestimate an e-bike's approach speed.

Many e-bikes can travel between 20 and 28 mph, allowing students to move through school zones and neighborhood streets much faster than drivers may expect.

Before pulling out from a stop sign, driveway or parking lot near a school, take an extra moment to judge an approaching rider's speed. An e-bike that appears to be a safe distance away can reach your path much sooner than a traditional bicycle.

A Slice of WILDWOOD History

GREETINGS FROM WILDWOOD
NEW JERSEY
SINCE THE 1960's

Back in the 1960s, when the boardwalk lights stayed on late and the music never seemed to stop, Wildwood was coming alive in a whole new way.

- ★ The sounds of rock & roll filled the air, with legends like Bobby Rydell, Chubby Checker, Bill Haley & His Comets, The Drifters and many others, turning this town into one of the hottest spots on the East Coast.

Right in the middle of it all, Al and Anna Martino made their way from New York to Wildwood with a dream and the kind of work ethic that built something special.

★ THAT DREAM BECAME ★ AL THE STEAK KING

As Wildwood thrived, so did Al's place. What started as a simple spot for great food quickly became part of the rhythm of Wildwood.

- ★ After a day on the beach,
- ★ a night on the rides,
- ★ or dancing to the music that
- ★ defined a generation...

...it was always time for Al the Steak King!

The Martino family kept the grills hot and the good times going, serving up cheesesteaks, pizza, and memories that became part of summer for so many.

Then came Jon.

Taking the reins and running both the boardwalk location and the 25th & New Jersey Avenue spot, Jon brought a whole new energy, especially after dark.

ONLINE ORDERING

Late nights in Wildwood had a rhythm, and if you were there, you remember it...

- ★ The hum of the streets.
- ★ The glow of the lights.
- ★ And those red delivery vans rolling through town bringing hot food straight to your door when nothing else was open.

For a lot of people, that was Wildwood.

Like many great shore stories, things eventually took a pause, but the music, the memories, and the feeling never faded.

BECAUSE IN WILDWOOD,
THE GOOD TIMES DON'T DISAPPEAR...
THEY JUST WAIT FOR THE RIGHT MOMENT TO RETURN.
AND THAT MOMENT IS NOW!

With Jon leading the way once again, Al the STK & Pizza King begins its next chapter, bringing back the classic flavors you remember, introducing new favorites you'll love, and yes...

the red delivery vans are rolling once again.

★ Welcome back to Al's ★
