SHE WAS BITTEN BY A RESCUE DOG

Submitted By Patsy Nelson
formerly of The Wagging Tail

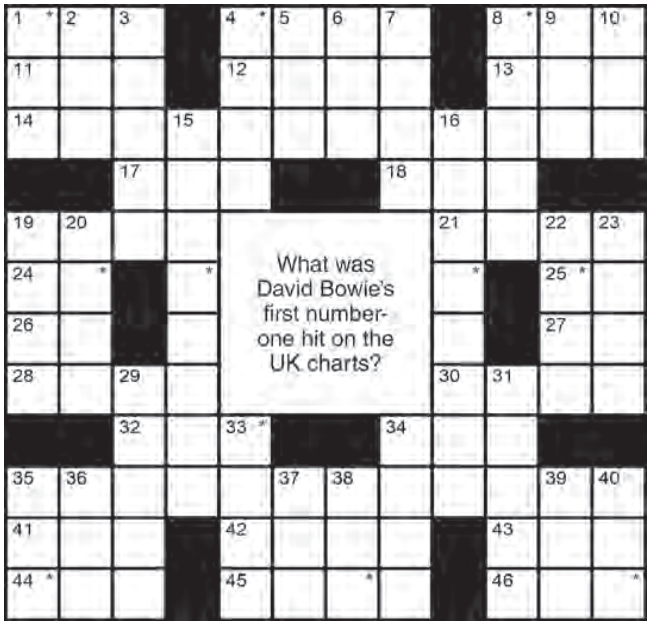

My beautiful, great niece was visiting the home of a friend. Their relatively new rescue dog, a larger size dog, sat next to her on the sofa. She quietly petted him. Then she stopped. Suddenly the dog lunged at the side of her face and when she put up her hand to defend herself, the dog bit her finger to the bone. It became knowledge afterwards that the same dog had bitten the new owner. Perhaps the owners thought that it was a one-time event. I have not collected all the particulars, but I know that it was a horrific experience for my niece and her friends who witnessed it. The injury required over thirty stitches. And, I know from experience, that the trauma may last a lifetime.

Some of my readers may remember that I was attacked at the back of the store when I went into the dog park I was attempting to establish; for small dogs. A worker who owned a male intact pitbull was in the park area. I had told him that the dog was to be always muzzled and leashed when on my property. (In retrospect I should have banned the owner and the dog.) I know many human-loving, trustworthy pitbulls. This was not one. When the dog sighted me, he began running towards me, so I turned my back on him. He bit me in the butt then tore my arm open, and I am certain, if the owner had not gotten to him in time, he would have gone for my throat. I have since experienced moments of PTSD when any dog acts aggressive towards me or my dogs. One day walking my dogs around the circle, there was a long RV parked in a neighbor's driveway. I could not see her dogs. Suddenly, they saw us and ran barking, and I could not stop my hysterical screaming. I was not afraid for myself, but I thought there could be a confrontation between the four dogs about which I would have little or no control. My rescue Ebby, is a 20-pound Chihuahua Mix that I brought into our home after the local owner died. I did not know much about her history. She was very fond of my Maltese, Zoey, otherwise, it was a rough go from the beginning. The first day she bit Bob who had to go on antibiotics. It has been a long 5 years, but now no serious snaps and nary a growl.

The most important thing I learned was to FORBID HER ON THE SOFA OR BED WITH US, which gives some dogs a territorial advantage that is not wise when they cannot yet be trusted. Ebby is a reactive fear biter. She is much better, but early on if we moved our arm or our leg or in any way alarmed her there could be an aggressive reaction. Although she has become cuddlier and more affectionate, and we do love her very much, we are always alert and always with strangers, warning them not to crowd her. She was surprisingly good to my brother's 8-month-old female Yorkies. I was much more on edge than he was, when all four dogs first began running around in our big back yard. She has never gone after any delivery person and there are many. I let them interact with her. Yesterday afternoon our neighbors started up their golf cart, and she was outside with me to say good-bye to them. She began going after the tires. I usually have her on a leash. No doubt she'd be a bike chaser. I had to pick her up so they could leave!

Articles are also on my Facebook page, Patricia Robinson Nelson. I would love your comments. Email me at patsyrob1@gmail.com with concerns. THANK YOU!

HOROSCOPE

SEPTEMBER 10 - 15, 2026

ARIES (March 21 – April 20): A burst of motivation helps you make progress on something that's been sitting on the sidelines. Take action while your energy is high. A small win later in the week could lead to an even bigger opportunity.

TAURUS (April 21 – May 21): Patience works in your favor as plans begin falling into place. Stick with what feels reliable and avoid unnecessary pressure. A pleasant surprise toward the weekend gives you something worth celebrating.

GEMINI (May 22 – June 21): Your communication skills are especially sharp, making this a great week for conversations and new connections. Speak up and share your ideas. An unexpected message or invitation could brighten your plans.

CANCER (June 22 – July 22): A little extra focus helps you settle something that has been weighing on your mind. Trust what feels right and move forward confidently. The weekend brings a welcome chance to relax and reconnect.

LEO (July 23 – August 22): Your natural confidence puts you in a strong position to make things happen. Don't hesitate to take the lead or share an idea. Someone's reaction may remind you just how much influence you have.

VIRGO (August 23 – September 23): Getting organized early makes everything else easier this week. Handle the details before they become distractions. Once the important work is finished, you'll have more room for something fun or spontaneous.

LIBRA (September 24 – October 23): Fresh energy surrounds your social life and relationships. Reach out, make plans and stay open to meeting someone new. A simple conversation could develop into something much more interesting than expected.

SCORPIO (October 24 – November 22): Your determination helps you push through an obstacle that once seemed frustrating. Stay focused and let results speak for themselves. By the weekend, you may finally see signs that your persistence is paying off.

SAGITTARIUS (November 23 – December 21): Adventure is calling, even if it comes in a small or unexpected way. Break from your usual routine and follow your curiosity. A spontaneous decision could become the highlight of your week.

CAPRICORN (December 22 – January 20): Progress comes from focusing on one priority instead of trying to handle everything at once. Keep your plans practical and manageable. A productive start leaves more time to enjoy yourself later in the week.

AQUARIUS (January 21 – February 19): A fresh perspective helps you see possibilities you may have overlooked. Follow an unusual idea and don't worry about doing things differently. An unexpected connection could point you toward an exciting opportunity.

PISCES (February 20 – March 20): Your intuition is especially strong, helping you recognize what deserves your attention. Make time for creativity and the people who lift your spirits. A relaxing weekend could bring inspiration for what comes next.

WILDWOOD TO MARK 25TH ANNIVERSARY OF SEPTEMBER 11TH WITH SOLEMN REMEMBRANCE CEREMONY AT BYRNE PLAZA

The Wildwood Business Improvement District invites the community to gather at Byrne Plaza on Friday, September 11, 2026, at 10:00 a.m. for a Solemn Remembrance Ceremony commemorating the 25th anniversary of the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks. Twenty-five years after the events that forever changed our nation, the ceremony will provide an opportunity for residents, visitors, first responders, community leaders and families to come together to remember the nearly 3,000 lives lost on September 11, 2001, honor the courage and sacrifice of first responders, and reflect on the spirit of unity that brought Americans together in the days that followed. The ceremony will include participation by the City of Wildwood Color Guard, Wildwood Police and Fire Departments, along with the Mayor and Commissioners of the City of Wildwood. Local civic and religious leaders will also take part in the observance, offering reflections and joining the community in remembrance. The 25th anniversary carries special significance as a generation has now passed since the attacks. The Wildwood Business Improvement District encourages members of the community of all ages to attend, both to honor those who lost their lives and to ensure that the events and sacrifices of September 11 are never forgotten. The September 11th 25th Anniversary Solemn Remembrance Ceremony will be held Friday, September 11, at 10:00 a.m. at Byrne Plaza, 3400 Pacific Avenue in Downtown Wildwood. The event is sponsored by the Wildwood Business Improvement District and is open to the public.

This restaurant deserves five stars all around! The service was great. The atmosphere is quaint. But the food is definitely spot on. Everything from the appetizers right through to the dessert was amazing. No complaints had by anyone at the dinner table, and we went with a big group. I would definitely recommend if you're looking for a more luxurious meal.

STRETCH YOUR TANK: SIMPLE WAYS TO SAVE GAS

Between commuting, school drop-offs, weekend trips and everyday errands, those miles can add up quickly. The good news is that a few simple driving and maintenance habits can help you get more miles from every tank.

KEEP TIRES PROPERLY INFLATED

Underinflated tires create additional rolling resistance, forcing your engine to work harder. Check tire pressure regularly—especially as temperatures begin dropping—and use the pressure recommended by your vehicle manufacturer.

EASE UP ON THE PEDAL

Rapid acceleration, hard braking and excessive speeding can burn fuel unnecessarily. Smooth acceleration and anticipating traffic ahead can improve efficiency while reducing wear on your brakes and tires.

LIGHTEN THE LOAD

Still carrying beach chairs, coolers or other summer gear in the trunk? Take out items you no longer need. Extra weight means your vehicle needs more energy to get moving. Roof racks and cargo carriers can also increase aerodynamic drag.

DON'T IDLE UNNECESSARILY

Waiting outside school, a store or someone's house? Extended idling uses fuel while getting you zero miles per gallon. When appropriate and safe, shutting the engine off during longer waits can conserve gas.

COMBINE YOUR ERRANDS

Instead of making several separate trips, plan a route that handles multiple stops at once. A little organization can reduce total mileage and save both fuel and time.

KEEP UP WITH MAINTENANCE

Follow your vehicle's recommended schedule for oil changes, air filters, spark plugs and other routine service. A properly maintained engine generally operates more efficiently and can help prevent costly problems down the road.

WATCH YOUR SPEED

Fuel economy typically decreases as highway speeds climb. Maintaining a steady, reasonable speed—and using cruise control when conditions allow—can help reduce unnecessary fuel consumption.

SAVE A LITTLE ON EVERY MILE

There isn't one magic trick that dramatically cuts fuel costs. Instead, small habits add up. Proper tire pressure, smoother driving, fewer unnecessary trips and regular maintenance can help make every gallon go a little farther.

With fall activities getting underway and families spending more time on the road, now is a great time to adopt a few fuel-saving habits. Your vehicle—and your wallet—may thank you.
