HOROSCOPE

NOVEMBER 23 - NOVEMBER 29, 2023

ARIES (Mar. 21 - April 20)

Expect to be booked and busy, as you're going to need to turn down a number of invites to soirées. It's crucial that you carve out time for yourself to recharge so you don't risk running on empty.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)

We already know how wide and eccentric your circle can be, but consider inviting someone in who can guide you to the next stage of your journey. Mingle outside of your usual social sphere.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)

You're gearing up to seize the reins of control when it comes to who and what is wielding power over you. If you've been feeling captive by an external authority, play the game to win your freedom.

CANCER (June 22 - July 22)

It's high time for a complete overhaul of your career framework. If you can't remember the last time you had a creative breakthrough at work, it's wise to take a step back and redesign your goals.

LEO (July 23 - Aug 22)

Play dates never go out of style, no matter the age. If a date fails to awaken the childlike joy within you, is it truly the connection you seek? You wouldn't let your friends settle, so why would you?

VIRGO (Aug. 23 - Sept. 23)

You might feel as though you've been carrying some heavy weight on your shoulders, so leave your commitments at the doorstep for a brief respite. Go on, surrender to the rhythm of the dance floor.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)

Waiting for a pot of gold to fall from the sky isn't such a proactive plan. Seize the opportunity to assert your desires and actively pursue them rather than hoping they'll come to you.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)

An impulsive urge to splurge may end up dominating your budget, so ensure that whatever you spend your money on is an investment that fills your own cup. New nuggets of knowledge can reveal new horizons.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 21)

This week may feel like a game because you're well prepared for the chase and the kill. If you haven't prioritised your own joy for a while, this is your opportunity to risk your pride and challenge yourself.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22 - Jan. 20)

A mediocre lifestyle just isn't your thing, so if you've been coasting, it's time to extend your efforts and ambitions. Pick yourself back up and pivot if a plan has not reached its full potential.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)

Where does your focus and devotion lie? Perhaps you've been trying to tick off boxes instead of feeling inspired by what you originally set out to do. Make room for new creative explorations.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar. 20)

It's time to make bold decisions and statements to your boss. Now, more than ever, is the moment to shatter the glass ceiling that can help you secure your legacy status.

By Alex Hendry

Questions:

DON'T LET YOUR THANKSGIVING ROAD TRIP BE A TURKEY

One way to avoid a turkey of a Thanksgiving road trip is to make sure the vehicle you will be driving is running well. A 10-minute pre-trip check is a quick and easy way to help avoid the inconvenience of a breakdown many miles away from home, says the non-profit Car Care Council.

The Car Care Council suggests the following pre-trip check to help ensure safety and reliability on the road:

1. Check all fluids, including engine oil, power steering and brake and transmission, as well as windshield washer solvent and antifreeze/coolant.
2. Check the hoses and belts that can become loose, cracked, brittle, frayed or showing signs of excessive wear. These are critical to the proper functioning of the electrical system, air conditioning, power steering and the cooling system.

3. Check the tires, including tire pressure and tread. Uneven wear indicates a need for wheel alignment. Tires should also be checked for bulges and bald spots.

4. Check lighting to identify any problems with exterior and interior lighting as the chance of an accident increases if you can't see or be seen.

5. Check wipers. Wiper blades should be replaced every six months. Make sure the windshield wipers are working properly and keep the reservoir filled with solvent.

"A pre-trip vehicle check provides peace of mind," said Nathan Perrine, executive director, Car Care Council. "Taking proper precautions provides an opportunity to have any repairs performed by one's own trusted technician before hitting the road, reducing the chance of costly car trouble away from home."

To save on fuel costs during the trip, the Car Care Council suggests that motorists avoid aggressive driving, observe the speed limit and avoid excessive idling. Gas caps that are damaged, loose or missing should be replaced to prevent gas from spilling or evaporating. The council also recommends that car owners restock their roadside emergency kit.

PHENOBARBITAL IN COMPARISON TO CBD FOR EPILEPSY

Submitted By Patsy Nelson
from The Wagging Tail

I used several searches for the following information. For most of the description of Phenobarbital I used an article written by Stephanie Howe, DVM from the petMD website.

Phenobarbital is an anti-convulsant, barbiturate (sleep-inducing) medication used for humans and for many animals suffering from "epilepsy, brain tumors, infectious disease processes and even some toxins." These include dogs, cats, horses, rabbits, cattle, and ferrets. Although it is approved by the FDA for human use, it has not been approved as a veterinarian medication for animals. However, veterinarians can legally prescribe human medications to pets in certain circumstances like epilepsy. Because it is considered a prescribed substance, it is illegal to share or give away Phenobarbital.

Phenobarbital is generally given at the same time every day. Taken with food it may reduce the risk of stomach upsets. If you miss a dose, talk to your vet, but never double dose. Other side effects may include lethargy (especially when beginning treatment), vomiting, diarrhea, loss of appetite, agitation, increased thirst and urination, increased appetite, liver toxicity with prolonged use and in cats, particularly, excessive itching of the face. Usually administered in pill form, cats can get a compound liquid form (Reef Pharmacy) or a gel that is applied to the hairless section of the inner ear. Pills or tablets should be stored at temperatures between 68-77° F, while the liquid version of phenobarbital should be stored at temperatures between 59-86° F. "Keep the container tightly closed in order to protect the contents from moisture and light." Overdoses can be life threatening. Contact your vet immediately or call the Pet Poison Hotline (855)764-7661.

ON THE OTHER HAND... the anticonvulsant effect of CBD has been confirmed for both humans and animals. The studies have been so promising that The American Kennel Club Canine Health Foundation is conducting their own research on CBD's effectiveness at treating seizures in dogs through Colorado State University. Cannabinoids have been used medicinally, including for epilepsy, since about 2700 BCE (before the common era) which translates to about 5,000 years ago, near the time the Egyptians built their first pyramid. It has only been in the last decade that recognition of its efficacy in humans and animals has been explored and has been used to supplement phenobarbital or to replace Phenobarbital. What is even more "radical" is the fact that there are NO BAD SIDE EFFECTS, as there are with Phenobarbital.

The body is full of receptors, and CBD is like a magnet pulled by the areas where your pet may be suffering. LACK OF APPETITE (I give it nightly to Zoey who has Addison's Disease,) SEPARATION ANXIETY, EXCESSIVE BARKING, NAUSEA FROM CAR RIDES OR STOMACH UPSET, GI TRACT ISSUES, LACK OF VITALITY OR ENERGY, TRIPS TO THE VET OR GROOMER (I give it to Ebby nightly to lessen her fear-biter instincts,) MUSCLE SPASMS, PAIN FROM CANCER OR ARTHRITIS, (I give it to one of my old cats, Mystery,) RECOVERY FROM SURGERY, INFLAMATION, PACING, FEAR OF THUNDERSTORMS, FIREWORKS, LOUD NOISES, GRUMPINESS OR AGGRESSION TOWARD ANOTHER ANIMAL It also acts as a NEUROPROTECTANT, protecting cell dysfunction and cell death.

At The Wagging Tail we sell, VERY SUCCESSFULLY, products by KING KANINE (liquid) and PET RELIEF (treats or liquid.) I use both. I only use a treat with Ebby when she is getting groomed.

THANK YOU FOR SHOPPING AT THE WAGGING TAIL AND HELPING TO KEEP A SMALL COMMUNITY BUSINESS IN BUSINESS!!!
HAPPY THANKSGIVING!
