HOROSCOPE

NOVEMBER 9 - NOVEMBER 15, 2023

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

Expect to be booked and busy, as you're going to need to turn down a number of invites to soirées. It's crucial that you carve out time for yourself to recharge so you don't risk running on empty.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

You might find that the scales have swayed too far towards your work commitments. This is an opportune moment to invest in your health. Don't forget to take a rest day.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

Been getting too lost in the minutiae? Something inside of you may cause you to gallop into wild abandon. Nostalgia is all well and good, but sometimes we have to cut ties with tradition.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

As the dinner party approaches, you're in the safe zone to cocoon from the external bells and whistles. Invite some friends over to approach unexpected questions about the good ol' days.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

This may be the week that you manage to untangle any knots in your relationships. What does it look like to create an environment where conscious communication can blossom?

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

Laying your cards on the table needn't mean you have to dish out an ultimatum, but significant decisions are looming on the horizon. The power to shape the growth in your relationships is in your hands.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

After the toil of tending to your wants, wishes and desires away from the public eye, the spotlight is finally on you. Reflect on how you wish to harness this attention and make it your own.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

This week, an unspoken connection that's been quietly brewing may transform into something more real. The simmering sexual tension may be hard to ignore for long.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

If you have something to say, this is the moment to allow yourself to voice what you've been holding back. Speak with caution and make sure to pad what you plan to say with tact.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.-Jan. 20)

Your burning aspiration to reach the top of the career ladder is no secret, but if you simply chase what looks good on paper without well-defined intentions, you may lose your co-ordinates.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

Life is more than just aiming for security, you need to feel fulfilled on more than a mundane level. When was the last time you gave yourself permission to indulge in audacious dreams?

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Been waiting to be hit with mounds of clarity? Be patient. You can expect to be left with more questions about your next career move and long-term ambitions before the end of the year.

Jeffrey Pierson, Congressman Jeff Van Drew, Clinton Holloway, SFC, USA (Ret), Iraq/Afghanistan Veteran and Captain Warren D. Judge, Commanding Officer, USCG TRACEN, Cape May. The public is invited to attend as the Cape May County Board of County Commissioners thanks those who have served.

he said, "To us in America, the reflections of Armistice Day will be filled with solemn pride in the heroism of those who died in the country's service and with gratitude for the victory, both because of the thing from which it has freed us and because of the opportunity it has given America to show her sympathy with peace and justice in the councils of the nations." The United States Congress passed a concurrent resolution on June 4, 1926. The resolution requested that President Calvin Coolidge issue another proclamation to observe November 11th with appropriate ceremonies. A Congressional Act (52 Stat. 351; 5 U.S. Code, Sec. 87a) approved May 13, 1938, made the 11th of November in each year a legal holiday: "a day to be dedicated to the cause of world peace and to be thereafter celebrated and known as 'Armistice Day.'"

VETERANS DAY

Veterans Day on November 11th honors military veterans who served in the United States Armed Forces. The federal holiday coincides with Armistice Day and Remembrance Day, which marks World War I. These observances reflect the end of significant hostilities at the 11th hour on the 11th day of the 11th month of 1918 when the Armistice with Germany took effect. Initially, the United States observed Armistice Day as well. However, it evolved into the current Veterans Day in 1954.

VETERANS DAY HISTORY

U.S. President Woodrow Wilson first proclaimed Armistice Day on November 11, 1919. At the time,

NATIONAL SEATBELT DAY

National Seat Belt Day is observed annually on November 14. More than 46,000 people are killed in car accidents in the U.S. every year, and an estimated 4.4 million people sustain injuries that require medical attention. Direct medical costs add up to more than $300 million. Using safety belts helps save lives and minimize the risk of serious injuries. It's a simple act we can all practice, whether you're a passenger or the driver. National Seat Belt Day was created to raise awareness and encourage people to wear seat belts

HISTORY OF NATIONAL SEAT BELT DAY

Seat belts have been around since the 19th century. Edward J. Claghorn received the first U.S. patent for safety belts but his design was not intended for cars. In the 1930s, physicians recommended lap belts in their vehicles and suggested manufacturers do the same in their models. Lap belts were used in public transport like streetcars, preventing passengers from flying out of their seats during accidents.

The first vehicle in the U.S. to offer seat belts as a safety option was the Nash Rambler, back in 1950 when seat belts were still a novelty. Despite growing evidence that they helped save lives and reduce injuries, critics still resisted their use, claiming they were ineffective and may trap passengers if their cars were on fire or submerged in water. In 1958, Saab became the first vehicle manufacturer to fit seat belts as standard features. One year later, Nils Bohlin — Volvo's first chief safety engineer — patented the three-point seat belt. It improved the rudimentary two-point seat belt, which sometimes did more harm than good in accidents.

After making the three-point seat belt standard in Sweden, Volvo opened up the patent so other car manufacturers could adopt this essential safety feature in their models. By 1968, seat belts were a standard requirement in all U.S.-manufactured vehicles. Today, seat belts are a valued safety mechanism in cars, helping to save thousands of lives and several hundred million dollars in medical costs.

ADOPTING A DOG - WHAT TO READ BETWEEN THE LINES

Submitted By Patsy Nelson
from The Wagging Tail

Recently I helped a customer train her feisty, very alpha, rescued German shepherd with the Gentle Leader head Collar. This system, by putting pressure on the dog's nose and the back of the ears, teaches a dog, in a very gently way, that they are not the Alpha in the family, you are. There are other ways to reinforce this simultaneously, but I am not going to elaborate here. This shepherd dog had been rehomed about three times, and fortunately for him, this woman was adamant to have her family be his forever home.

When we adopt a dog from a shelter, or even privately, there may be undisclosed or undetected behavior problems. It is not a reason to refrain from adopting. Perhaps it is THE reason to adopt, if you are a patient, dedicated pet lover, and have experience with dogs and can handle a challenge.

If you are told the dog LOVES TO HIKE, it may mean that the dog needs at least two hours of exercise a day or he may empty the trashcan all over the house. He, or she, may be a fence jumper or a runner, or make craters all over your backyard. I adopted an Irish Setter, and boy was it a challenge to keep her happy. At the time, 35 years ago, it became too much of a challenge and I gave her to someone with a farm. The best recourse for high energy dogs are play dates with a friend's dog or doggy park visits.

If you are told that the dog is a GREAT GUARD DOG, she may be more than willing to protect you but also may be a constant barker and show some aggression when scared or uncomfortable, " or if you have the audacity to open the door before you've closed an umbrella."

If you are told the dog is QUITE THE SNUGLER, he may attach himself to you like Velcro. He also may have high separation anxiety whenever you are out of his sight. Fortunately, with training and calming products (including CBD Oil) he may become your best buddy for life.

If you are told that the dog is a SOCIAL BUTTERFLY he may "nuzzle up to every stranger and try to convince them you're a negligent dog owner who does not, in fact, give him grass-fed beef and let him take half the bed."

If you are told that the dog KNOWS BASIC COMMANDS, she knows how to sit but nothing else. But then you can take the time to teach her whatever you want. I truly believe in low-calorie but tasty food reward training.

If you are told that the dog is SUPER SMART, "You'll be amazed by how quickly she becomes bored with the $40 puzzle toy guaranteed to keep dog geniuses occupied". This is a dog that needs a lot of stimulation like my Maltese, Zoey, who used to come to the store with me. At home she even has one other dog and three cats to chase and boss. Luckily, she also enjoys extended nap times.

If you are told that the dog is NOT A CITY GIRL, it may mean that "she'll cower at the sound of bus brakes and butterflies flapping their wings." She will, however, be a loveable devoted pet. I wanted to make Parker, my adopted Papillon a therapy dog. If you are told that the dog is NOT A CITY GIRL, it may mean that "she'll cower at the sound of bus brakes and butterflies flapping their wings." She will, however, be a loveable devoted pet. I wanted to make Parker, my adopted Papillon a therapy dog to visit nursing homes, etc., but he got scared at saran wrap coming off the box. Forget walkers, canes, wheelchairs, even a chair being adjusted on the floor. My rescue, Ebby, is getting much better except when Bob packs boxes with a tape gun. Words in caps, and quotes are from Juno DeMelo in an article in Real Simple Magazine.
