HOW TO STOP SOME OTHER UNWANTED BEHAVIORS IN DOGS

Submitted By Patsy Nelson
formerly of The Wagging Tail

Luckily, we live in a mostly quiet neighborhood with oversized lots in Rio Grande. Behind our house on the other side of the circle there is a couple who have two big dogs. We seldom hear them barking until it is warm enough for their owners to open the front windows of the house. And then until it gets cold enough, we will hear the dogs barking at everyone human with or without a dog all day long, especially on weekends when more neighbors are home. I like these people, but I don't like the nuisance barking. More so because Bob and I are super careful not to let our dogs bark. If they go out the doggy/cat door without our knowledge and we hear them barking, we hustle as fast as we can to bring them back inside. I also play music in the house to lessen foreign sounds invading from outside, like when the gardeners come to mow, or delivery trucks. We also refrain from giving them too much attention when they bark. We just quietly distract them and then reward the NO BARKING with "good girls." And maybe a treat.

It is a natural tendency for dogs to bark at unfamiliar people, vehicles, and animals. They are protecting their territory which includes their family members. We have another neighbor whose miniature dachshund barks out the bay window at the back of their living room. He can get on his hind legs or jump up on the low windowsill, and he waits in the evening to see roaming cats and wildlife that go under their pool deck. He has disturbed their sleep many times and there are no curtains to close to obstruct his view. I brought down a panel to go across the lower part of the window that can work in the meantime. The good thing is that no one else in the neighborhood can hear him. And if they remember, they show him the can PET CORRECTOR or use it, which he respects. I don't know if that would help the two dogs behind us, but it would be worth trying or using perhaps a citronella collar.

With dogs that are out of control, the first thing is to start gaining control and respect by making them follow a command from you before they are permitted any activity. Sit, stay, wait, and down are excellent tools, before your dog eats (not helpful if you free feed) goes outside to the bathroom, when putting on a leash for walking or a trip in the car (please use a harness), and before playtime.

IF YOU THINK DOGS CAN'T COUNT, TRY PUTTING THREE DOG BISCUITS IN YOUR POCKET AND THEN GIVE THEM ONLY TWO OF THEM. Phil Pastoret

HOROSCOPE

MAY 14 - 20, 2026

ARIES (Mar. 21- April 20)

Pressure around a decision eases once you stop trying to force every outcome. Give yourself room to choose the next step without turning it into a bigger battle. A direct approach works best when it comes from clarity, not frustration. Trust the move that feels clean.

TAURUS (Apr. 21- May 21)

Money, time, or personal value may come into sharper focus this week. Something deserves a closer look before you agree to more. Protecting your resources does not mean closing yourself off. It means knowing what is worth your investment.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

Words carry extra weight now, especially in a situation that needs honesty without drama. You may be able to clear up confusion by saying less, but saying it better. Choose precision over speed. A careful message can shift the whole tone.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Home, family, or emotional comfort may ask for more attention than usual. A small adjustment in your environment can help you feel more settled. Do not ignore what your body and mood are telling you. Your inner calm needs maintenance, not permission.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

One important exchange could help you understand where things really stand. Pay attention to tone, timing, and what someone chooses not to say. You do not need to dominate the room to be heard. Let your confidence come through naturally.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

A practical matter benefits from a fresh set of eyes. Step away from the details long enough to see the larger pattern. The solution may be simpler than the system you built around it. Let usefulness guide the next edit.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

People may reveal their priorities through actions more than explanations. Watch what is consistent and what only sounds good in theory. This week asks you to honor balance without doing all the adjusting yourself. Mutual effort matters.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)

Something beneath the surface becomes harder to ignore. You may not have the full answer yet, but you have enough to know where to look next. Move carefully and keep your standards high. Discernment is your strongest tool.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 21)

Plans become easier to shape when you separate possibility from impulse. A bigger goal still needs clear steps if it is going to last. Do not talk yourself out of enthusiasm, but give it somewhere useful to go. Direction turns interest into momentum.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.- Jan. 20)

Results may arrive in smaller pieces than expected, but they still count. Notice what is improving instead of only measuring what remains unfinished. A slow gain is not a setback. It is proof that your effort is starting to take hold.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 -Feb. 19)

Curiosity pulls you toward a different way of handling something routine. Try the new approach without needing to defend it first. A small experiment could show you where things have become too rigid. Flexibility opens the door.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Restoring your own sense of stability becomes more important than keeping everyone else comfortable. A choice may feel easier once you stop absorbing every outside reaction. Stay gentle, but do not drift. Your instincts are clearer when you give them space.

DOG AS COPILOT:

ACCESSORIES FOR SAFE, FUN TRAVELS, PT 1

1. Dog safety harness

A harness secures your pet to the seat belt system during sudden stops and sharp turns. Make sure the adjustable straps fit properly without restricting movement so your pet is comfortable during long drives.

Pet travel tip: Choose a harness designed for both car rides and outdoor adventures. Ensure the dog accessory also includes a back clip for walks and trail hikes.

2. Seat covers and cargo liners

Fur, mud and scratches inside your car are unavoidable when traveling with your dog. Use seat covers with side flaps that tuck into seat crevices to protect your upholstery from dog hair.

Consider cargo liners with a dirt-resistant cover for easy cleanup and cushioned side that let's your pet lounge comfortably on long voyages.

3. Rubber floor mats

Muddy paws and dirty shoes come with the territory after playtime in the park or several hours on a hiking trail.

Nothing protects carpeted floors better than with rubber floor mats. Look for ones designed specifically for your make and model of vehicle. Deep-grooved rubber mats trap water and debris. A non-slip backing ensures they stay in place as your dog moves around in the vehicle.

4. Collapsible travel bowls

These bowls come in handy for feeding and hydrating your dog on the go. They are easy to clean and portable during car rides or picnic stops.

Pet travel tip: Freeze a portion of water in the bowl at night before a long trip. This ice pack slowly melts and provides chilled water for your dog on the road.

5. Pet barrier

A cargo divider keeps bigger dogs safely in the back and reduces distractions while driving. It also creates a defined space where your dog can relax and snuggle during the trip.

Some barriers double as organizers and allow you to attach storage pockets for leashes, pet toys and travel bowls.
