HOROSCOPE

OCTOBER 30 - NOVEMBER 7, 2025

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

This week invites you to dig deep - and not just for Halloween thrills. A personal transformation is underway, especially in how you handle control, trust, and letting go. Don't resist the emotions bubbling up. There's power in facing what you'd rather avoid.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

Relationships come into sharp focus now, and it's not all light and flirty. Something needs to be addressed, redefined, or released. This is a make-or-break moment - but that's not a bad thing. The clarity you gain now will carry you through the rest of the season.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

You're fine-tuning your day-to-day life - but not just for efficiency's sake. Your energy levels, health, and emotional bandwidth are all part of the equation. What you change now affects how you function long term. Upgrade the system, not just the schedule.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

You're rediscovering your spark, but it comes with some vulnerability. Whether it's romance, creativity, or self-expression, you're being called to stop playing small. Let joy be messy and meaningful. It's okay if not everyone gets it - you're not doing it for them.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

Something close to home is shifting - maybe your actual living space, maybe your emotional foundation. This week encourages you to get honest about what's no longer supportive. Don't wait for comfort to become a cage. Home should feel like safety, not maintenance.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

A meaningful message is on the way - but only if you slow down long enough to hear it. This week favors important conversations, written clarity, or confronting a narrative you've outgrown. You don't need to have all the words - just start with truth.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

Money, self-worth, and priorities are swirling into sharper focus. You may be feeling stretched thin, but this is your cue to stop pouring into what doesn't pour back. A boundary, budget, or value check can shift everything. Invest where it feels good to give.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

It's your season, and this week brings an emotional checkpoint. Who are you becoming - and what version of yourself no longer fits? A reinvention is underway, and it's powerful because it's honest. The glow-up is real, but it starts on the inside.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

You're in retreat mode, and it's not just fatigue - it's intuition. Pay attention to what your dreams, body, and instincts are trying to say. Something is being cleared out to make way for clarity. Don't rush the download - just listen.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22-Jan. 20)

The spotlight turns to your community, collaborations, and long-range vision. Who you align with now can amplify your goals - or distract you from them. Choose wisely. A dream is worth chasing, but only if it's still yours.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

You're stepping into greater visibility, and it might come with more pressure than applause. A shift in career, leadership, or public role may require you to own your authority. Lead with integrity, not ego. Your reputation is a reflection of your resilience.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

The world feels wider this week, and your beliefs may be shifting fast. This is a great time for study, travel, or simply rethinking what's possible. If a door opens - walk through it. What you learn now will ripple for months to come.

3. ELECTRICAL & BATTERY HEALTH

COLD WEATHER SLOWS BATTERY REACTIONS AND MAKES IT HARDER TO HOLD A CHARGE.
WATCH FOR:

- HARD STARTS AFTER COLD NIGHTS
- DIMMING HEADLIGHTS WHILE DRIVING
- SLUGGISH POWER WINDOWS
- CHECK ENGINE LIGHTS OR CORRODED TERMINALS

A BATTERY INSPECTION CAN PREVENT GETTING STRANDED ON CHILLY MORNINGS.

A PET DOG IN THE HOME CAN REDUCE THE INCIDENCE OF CHILDHOOD ASTHMA

Submitted By
Patsy Nelson

Before I continue, I would like to let those who read my articles, and support The Wagging Tail, that I have taken an extended leave of absence. I am available via email, patsyrob1@gmail.com, if you need help with a pet problem, have an idea for an article, or simply want to say hello. If you need your cat's nails trimmed, we can figure that out too.

There have been several studies done on this topic over the last fifteen years, but a recent article on my computer caught my attention today. I Googled and found the one I am using for this article.

Apparently, the presence of a dog(s) and/or assorted farm animals, can alter the gut microbiome in humans. The gut microbiome is a collection of microorganisms like bacteria, viruses, and fungi that live in our gut, and on our skin. In babies these microbes are still developing and stabilizing. A diverse microbiome increases a child's chances of withstanding the development of eczema, asthma, allergies, obesity, and other chronic ailments. The immune system is strengthened by exposure to various microbes and dander in the environment, especially from infancy through three years of age. "Sufficient exposure to dog allergens in the first year of life may train the immune system to become tolerant rather than reactive, thus preventing an allergic response."

Pets help youngsters (and adults) in emotional ways too. Pets in the home promote a child's emotional self-esteem, social skills, and can introduce a sense of responsibility. One could spend hours on YouTube looking at photos of adorable photos of children interacting with their pets. Having a pet can help children develop empathy and compassion, confidence, and language skills. Pets encourage more physicality through play and care giving. Pets aid in developing motor skills. Pets also reduce loneliness, whether because of being the only child, or feeling left out if there is a newborn, or a loss in the family. When I feel stressed at home, I will bury my face in Zoey (Ebby would probably growl) and hug her until I feel calmer. When I worked, I would go into the cat rooms and do the same, usually with Squeaks, the cat my friend Pat adopted from The Wagging Tail about 9 years ago. When Pat died, almost 3 years ago, I brought Squeaks to become part of our forever store cats. (Our two cats at home are witchy with each other. Jealousy over Bob and me I think, so Squeaks would not do well with them.) Animals are great for bringing down your blood pressure and soothing your distress if you let them. I don't think I could ever live without a pet. I never have.
