Release the week of March 1 - 7, 2024

HOROSCOPE

FEBRUARY 29 - MARCH 6, 2024

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)
Working things out is the flavour of the week with Saturn's close proximity to the Sun and Mercury. Putting your ideas through a reality check is an important step as only the strong and sensible will survive the critical function of Saturn. Nothing, however, should dampen your spirits as your optimistic nature adores overcoming obstacles.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)
As Jupiter continues to shine in Taurus you're protected from too much fall-out care of the Sun, Mercury, Saturn conjunction which seeks to instill a cosmic correction policy on anything that isn't working. Any flaws in the system will be glaringly obvious yet you'll instinctively know whether to pull the plug or persevere. It's all about where you want to devote your precious time.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)
You've reached a marker point or a cross-roads as the Sun, Mercury and Saturn join forces and you feel laid on the line over whether a commitment is worth it or not. This week represents a big clearing – psychologically, physically and emotionally so give what's coming up your full attention rather than distracting yourself elsewhere. Are you all in or out?

CANCER (June 22-July 22)
After a period of volatility and delving deep, you're ready to make some big decisions that will shape your plans for a considerable time to come. Formulating your bigger picture thinking with strong intentions is important at this point. As is eliminating what can't come with you. You'll feel more positive once you make a commitment.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)
Are you ready to sign on the dotted line? The union of the Sun, Mercury and Saturn suggests it's decision time over whether something is going to be part of your future or not. Finances are in the frame so keep your calculations careful without losing your flair for making something wonderful happen.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)
You are being put to the test as the Sun, Mercury and Saturn line up in your zone of relationship and reality rather than romance are centre stage. Perhaps you've reached a crunch point when it comes to a commitment and need to ascertain the bottom line and the terms of conditions of other people's expectations.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)
A purposeful energy is sweeping through your sixth house zone of work, health and efficiency. So much so, you're ready to tackle all those things you've been putting off and make decisions that didn't seem possible only a few weeks ago. Perhaps it's a case of needs must – but quite literally the time has come.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
It really is essential to declutter your life from anything that's blocking your energy and the way forward. The Sun, Mercury and Saturn are encouraging resolution and practical decisions that will take you from feeling overwhelmed to having it all straight in your mind. It will be a relief.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)
You're most probably not a big fan of Saturn's rather dour, sort-it-out policy. However there comes a time when the back-log must be cleared, decisions reached and you narrow down your options to those which are essentially viable and practical. Being grounded enables you to re-order your life, build things better and maintain a strategy – what's not to like?

CAPRICORN (Dec 22- Jan. 20)
There's no sign better equipped to tackle those nitty gritty issues than Capricorn – so with Saturn's prime influence this week you'll be in organisational mode and more than willing to do the work. What's more you are so clear-eyed nothing will escape your editing policy. You've been wanting to do this for ages.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)
Venus and Mars are high voltage in Aquarius but you're running into another cosmic combination which is the equivalent of 'computer says no'. Perhaps you need to fix a financial issue or scale something back but this is just to ensure everything is standing on solid ground which can't be a bad thing. Life flourishes after a prune!

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)
Pisceans are reaching a hugely important point with the Sun, Saturn and Mercury all joined in your sign. It's a threshold you must cross which involves making certain decisions that will demarcate your past from your future. The more you define things the better you will feel.

GIVE YOUR VEHICLE A (VIRTUAL) HUG

Every good relationship needs a regular tune-up or check-in and so does your vehicle. Is your vehicle feeling the effects of winter wear? Now is a good time to address the things that will keep you and your vehicle happy with each other for years to come.

Take some time to show your car some love before hitting the road with our top maintenance suggestions from repair and car care experts.

1. Inspect the tread on your tires: Car tires experience a gradual loss of air pressure each month, an issue particularly pronounced during the winter months.

If you haven't had your tires inspected since before New Year's Day, visit your service advisor for a thorough check. Continuing to drive on tires with insufficient pressure can cause significant damage to their sidewalls and pose a heightened risk of accidents.

2. Battery health check: Cold temperatures can take a toll on your car's battery. Midwinter is a good time to evaluate your vehicle's battery to prevent problems when you're away from home. If it's three years old or older, consider replacing it to avoid the inconvenience of a sudden breakdown during a frosty morning.

3. Focus on your fluids: Keep an eye on all essential fluids, especially the coolant or antifreeze. Ensure that your coolant levels are adequate, and the mixture is appropriate for winter temperatures. Also, check oil levels regularly and opt for a winter-grade oil if you live in a colder climate.

4. Brighten up your drive: Facing challenges with visibility during nighttime drives? It might not be an issue with your eyes. Take into account that the traditional bulbs of your vehicle tend to dim considerably within just a year.

When was the last time you switched out your headlight and taillight bulbs? If your response is, "I can't recall" or "never," it could be time to consider replacing the bulbs—plus your eyes will appreciate the difference.

LED lights typically last much longer than traditional incandescent or halogen bulbs. Yet, problems may still occur. Make sure they all are operating in good condition; conduct a brief walk-around to check all light units for cracks and brightness.

5. Wipe the winter blues away: Wiper blades are an affordable safety essential for your vehicle. Swap them out whenever you observe smudging, friction, or worn edges. Various options are available for blades, ranging from those crafted for snowy conditions to silicone replacement components tailored for hotter environments.

6. Car interior upkeep: Address spills on the seats and clean the carpet thoroughly. The accumulation of mold can transform your vehicle's interior into a rolling allergen factory. Use a vacuum to eliminate loose particles and debris. Utilize cleaners designed specifically for vehicle carpet and upholstery. Remember to pay attention to the cup holders, which can easily become a breeding ground for spills and turn into a living petri dish.

YOU LOVE YOUR DOG SO PROTECT YOUR DOG WHEN TRAVELLING

Submitted By Patsy Nelson
from The Wagging Tail

I am still finding too many customers, and others in their vehicles, allowing their dogs to roam freely while they drive. Just this week (the end of February 2024) I had to advise a few about the risks of not tethering their pets properly, either not at all or by the collar instead of a harness. It is so easy and requires very little investment to ensure your beloved pet's safety. And just today I advised a new customer with a red poodle puppy named Reba, to secure their puppy in the same way or better.

Last year a customer wrote to me about how my advice saved the family's dog. She was so grateful for the advice that I gave in my article in the Jersey Cape Magazine. This magazine is very generous in the amount they charge me to show my ad and in the generous space they give me to advise pet parents to better care for their pets. Some customers still do not realize that I write an article every week, or if time does not permit due to my working-at-the-store schedule, I will reprint a former article especially if it may have been of a serious nature. One such article was on the dangers of sand impac- tion. Articles can be found on our Facebook page.

The article about which the customer referred was an easy way to secure a pet in a car. I often follow my customers outside (stalking?), if they are walking their dog back to their car, and especially if they have the leash attached to a collar and not a harness. One such dog was on the floor of the passenger seat. "How do you keep your dog safe while you are driving?" I usually ask. She may have said he would be okay, or she was only going a short distance, or any number of excuses for not having him attached and secure. He was wearing a harness, so I opened the passenger door (presumptuous) and took his leash, looped it around the headrest, got him up on the seat beside her, and hooked the leash to the harness.

"This way" I said, "he won't be thrown into the dashboard if you have to stop suddenly." I told her that if she had an extra leash, she could leave it permanently around the head rest and then just hook him to his harness each time she took him in the car. I have seen customers attaching to the collar and that is beyond scary. NEVER DO THAT. That is a sure way to do permanent, if not fatal injury to your dog's trachea, esophagus, and/or neck.

Imagine driving 60 mph on Route 55 when suddenly a deer runs in front of your car. There is no way to avoid impact. You are wearing a seat belt, and so is your husband and your grandchild. What about your dog? Having read my article, the dog was secured by his harness and even though all the air bags were deployed, the dog was not injured. All survived without much harm, except for the car and the poor hapless deer. Even now I get goosebumps hearing her awful experience and her gratitude for my article's message saving the life of her dog. In retrospect, because the dog was well-secured, he did not become a projectile which could have fatally injured someone in the car. We also carry seat belt attachments for easy buckling from harness to seat belt lock. And harnesses.

American Natural Premium Market Fresh is a new dog food line for us. The great news is there are four proteins offered, and none of them contain any chicken whatsoever for those dogs who have tested positive to chicken allergies, and two choices do not contain any rosemary extract. It is getting rave reviews and is well priced. Samples are available.

Thanks for helping to keep a small business in business and to all who picked us as the best pet store 2022/2023! (We will soon have more adorable kittens up for adoption or just petting in our shelter.)
