LYME'S DISEASE IN PEOPLE AND PETS

Submitted By
Patsy Nelson

Owner of The Wagging Tail 1987 - 2025

One disease that wreaks havoc on joints is Lyme disease caused by ticks, which are out in force right now. Lyme's disease attacks both humans and dogs but it is not transmittable between species. It is medically called Borrelia burgdorferi, and it is transmitted from an infected black-legged tick, known also as the deer tick. Deer ticks or Ixodes scapularis usually affect rodents and birds, but prey may also include white-footed mice, chipmunks, squirrels, voles, shrews and larger animals like raccoons, skunks, opossums-though how they transmit the disease varies-and white-tailed deer. A deer tick that has fed on the blood of an infected rodent or bird attaches itself to a human or dog and while they engorge on the blood of the host, its saliva enters the bloodstream. It takes about 24-48 hours for the process, so if you check your dog and yourself regularly and properly dislodge the tick just post-attachment there is less chance of infection. The only "safe" season is winter. The most heavily impregnated areas in the U.S. are the Midwest, Upper Northeast, Southeast, and the West and the Pacific. Only Hawaii has not yet had any recorded cases. New Jersey ranks high. Dogs that are companion hikers or frequent wooded areas are more susceptible. Ticks also like lawns, shrubs, long grasses, BEACH DUNES, and moist, shady areas like piles of leaves and stone walls.

90-95% of dogs may not show signs for five months after transmission, or never. A lot depends on the dog's immune system. Dogs with auto-immune diseases like Ebby and Zoey are at a higher risk. The infection, left undetected or untreated can affect the joints, heart, brain and spinal cord. The most common is renal failure. Lyme disease was first identified in humans in Lyme, Connecticut, in 1975. Not until 1984 was the bacterium Borrelia burgdorferi officially identified as the cause in both people and pets. Because of its relatively new appearance, we, in general, were not as keen on recognizing the symptoms or understanding how to protect ourselves and our pets in the 80's. When my standard white poodle, Abby Road, was eleven and acted like her joints ached, I just assumed it was her age. And then she went into renal failure while I was away for the weekend. I got back in time to say goodbye. Losing Abby, as she went everywhere with me, including The Wagging Tail, was a heartbreak that remains to this day. Cats rarely get Lyme's and may not show any symptoms if they do. If your cat has a fever, joint pain, or loss of appetite, have a vet check for antibiotics to avoid more serious complications.

The symptoms that dogs may show which can be a sign of Lyme's are numerous, including joint pain or swelling, lameness, lethargy, fever, decreased appetite, increased thirst and urination, diarrhea, and vomiting. Vets today easily identify the disease. They also have prophylactic medicines such as Bravecto, NexGard and Simparica Trio. I mostly use monthly Frontline or AvantiX. I also spray my yard with a pet safe flea and tick killing substance that easily attaches to the hose. It will come out as clear water when it is done. Repeat a few times during season.

Articles are also on my Facebook page, Patricia Robinson Nelson. I would love your comments. Email me at patsyrob1@gmail.com with concerns.

THE WILDWOODS CONVENTION CENTER HOSTS THE RETURN OF 'FEIS AT THE BEACH' IRISH DANCE COMPETITION SATURDAY, APRIL 25

The Wildwoods Convention Center will host 'Feis at the Beach', an Irish dance competition presented by Cummins and D'Arcy Schools of Irish Dance, on Saturday, April 25. The competition will include dancers of all ages and skill levels. Feis will be choreographed to Irish music, and prizes will be awarded in each of the various divisions. Many vendors will be displaying and selling Irish products in the main lobby, and an Irish art competition and an Irish Soda Bread Baking competition will also take place during the event, as well as music competitions. Participants will compete in various solo categories, from beginners to advanced championships in this vibrant Irish cultural experience. In addition to offering dancers a chance to compete, the Feis at the Beach competitions serve as an Irish cultural touchstone, continuing tradition through music, dance, food, and celebration. Doors open at 9 a.m. Competitions will be held from 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. The event is FREE to attend and open to the public. For additional information about this event, go to facebook/feisatthebeach. For additional information about the Wildwoods, visit WildwoodsNJ.com or call 800-992-9732.

HOROSCOPE

APRIL 16-22, 2025

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

Something that has felt stalled begins to crack open this week, but it may not happen in the way you expected. Stay nimble rather than stubborn about the form it takes. Opportunity arrives faster when you stop trying to control every detail.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

Your attention turns to comfort, money or home, and the message is simple: protect what is worth keeping. A practical decision now can create more ease later. Choose stability, but do not confuse it with settling.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

You are sharper, quicker and more persuasive than usual, which makes this a strong week for asking, pitching or finally saying the thing. Just be careful not to scatter your energy across too many conversations. The right words matter most when they are aimed well.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Something private needs your attention before you can fully show up elsewhere. This is a good week to pull back from noise, regroup and listen to your own reactions. What you learn in stillness will help you move with more confidence.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

The spotlight shifts toward friendships, collaborations and the people around you who actually understand your vision. A shared effort may gain traction now, especially when ego stays out of the way. Let connection do some of the work for once.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

Responsibility takes center stage, but so does recognition. People are paying attention to how you handle pressure, and your calm approach makes an impression. Keep it clean, efficient and understated; that is where your power is this week.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

Your world feels bigger this week, whether through travel, learning, new plans or simply a needed change in perspective. Something that felt boxed in begins to breathe again. Say yes to what stretches your thinking.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

The surface story is not the real story, and you know it. This week favors research, strategy and reading between the lines before making your next move. Hold your cards a little longer; better timing changes everything.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

Partnerships come into focus, and not just romantic ones. You may see more clearly who matches your energy, who drains it and where a conversation needs honesty instead of charm. Mutual respect matters more than easy chemistry right now.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.- Jan. 20)

Daily life asks for refinement. A schedule, work process or health habit may need to be tightened up so everything runs more smoothly. Small discipline now saves you from larger frustration later in the week.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

This week has more color in it for you. Creativity, flirtation, fun or a sudden burst of inspiration reminds you that not everything has to be useful to be worthwhile. Make room for what delights you, not just what advances you.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Home, family or your emotional foundation takes priority now. You may feel called to restore peace in a space that has been neglected, physically or emotionally. Nurture the root and the rest will steady itself.

NEW PARKING LOT ADDS 70 SPACES TO DOWNTOWN WILDWOOD SHOPPING AND DINING DISTRICT

The Wildwood Business Improvement District (WBID) is pleased to announce the addition of a new public parking lot in the heart of Downtown Wildwood, providing approximately 70 new parking spaces to better serve visitors, shoppers, and diners. The new ParkMobile parking area will be located at the corner of Pacific Avenue and Schellenger Avenue, on the site currently used for the seasonal Farmers Market. This strategic addition is part of WBID's ongoing efforts to improve accessibility and enhance the overall visitor experience in the Downtown Wildwood shopping and dining district. Developed in conjunction with Crest Savings Bank, the lot will support increased foot traffic to local businesses along Pacific Avenue, especially during the busy summer season. The location remains home to the popular weekly Farmers Market, which will continue to operate on Saturday mornings from Memorial Day Weekend through Labor Day Weekend. "Expanding parking in our downtown is an important step in supporting our local business community and making Wildwood more welcoming for residents and visitors alike," said John Donio, President of the WBID Board of Directors. "These additional spaces will help ease congestion and improve access to everything our downtown has to offer." WBID Board Members anticipate the new parking lot will be available for public use in time for the upcoming summer season. For more information, please contact: Joanne L Messer Marketing Director, Business District Management Corporation 609-523-1602 joanne.boardwalk@gmail.com Details about Downtown Wildwood and Byrne Plaza Events can be found online at www.DOOWW.com, on Facebook at Wildwood By The Sea, Instagram wildwood\_by\_the\_sea, X @DoWildwoodNJ, TikTok DOOWW\_NJ

CAR CARE MONTH: POST-WINTER TIPS FOR BETTER PERFORMANCE

1. Leaks and drips. Fluid lines affected by winter weather can drain critical fluids slowly and, over time, damage key safety systems such as power steering and brakes.
2. Brake system. Do you hear odd noises coming from the wheel well? Do you feel vibrations in the steering wheel? Other signs of brake system problems include a "squishy" brake pedal or the brake pedal that drops to the floor. Call your service advisor immediately.
3. Climate control system. Does your vehicle churn out cool air? Do the settings work properly? Are there any restrictions in the vents? An inspection of your climate control system can reveal hidden problems and help keep your and your passengers cool all summer long.
4. Pothole damage. Encountering a large pothole can cause damage to things like motor mounts, suspension system components, steering gear, wheels and tires.
5. Tire wear and tear. Do your tires have enough tread depth? See if your tire tread has worn down to the "tread wear bar" --a thin horizontal flap of rubber between tread blocks. Tires worn down to the tread bar have reached their legal minimum of tread and must be replaced.
6. Change out winter tires. Summer weather shortens tread life of the softer rubber used in winter tires. Ask your advisor about all-season tires that are designed to handle spring or summer rains while also delivering excellent tread wear.
7. Inspect tires for bulges, odd wear patterns and balding tires.
