LYME'S DISEASE IN PEOPLE AND PETS

Submitted By
Patsy Nelson
formerly of The Wagging Tail

One disease that adversely affects the joints is Lyme disease caused by ticks. (A few days ago, I pulled a tick head out of my stomach skin; I will itch for weeks.) Lyme's disease attacks both humans and dogs but it is not transmittable between species. It is transmitted from an infected black-legged tick, known also as the deer tick. Deer ticks usually affect rodents and birds, but the prey may also include white-footed mice, chipmunks, squirrels, voles, shrews and larger animals like raccoons, skunks, opossums-though how they transmit the disease varies-and white-tailed deer. A deer tick that has fed on the blood of an infected rodent or bird attaches itself to a human or dog and while they engorge on the blood of the host, its saliva enters the bloodstream. It takes about 24-48 hours for the process, so if you check your dog and yourself regularly and properly dislodge the tick just post-attachment there is less chance of infection. The only "safe" season is winter. New Jersey ranks high in Lyme's disease cases. Dogs that are companion hikers or frequent wooded areas are more susceptible. Ticks also like lawns, shrubs, long grasses, BEACH DUNES, and moist, shady areas like piles of leaves and stone walls.

90-95% of dogs may not show signs for five months after transmission, or never. A lot depends on the dog's immune system. Dogs with auto-immune diseases like Ebby and Zoey are at a higher risk. The infection left undetected or untreated can affect the joints, heart, brain and spinal cord. The most common is renal failure. Lyme disease was first identified in humans in Lyme, Connecticut, in 1975. Not until 1984 was the bacterium Borrelia burgdorferi officially identified as the cause in both people and pets. Because of its relatively new appearance, we, in general, were not as keen on recognizing the symptoms or understanding how to protect ourselves and our pets in the 80s. When my standard white poodle, Abby Road, was eleven and acted like her joints ached, I just assumed it was her age. And then she went into renal failure while I was away for the weekend. I got back in time to say goodbye. Losing Abby, as she went everywhere with me, including The Wagging Tail, was a heartbreak that remains to this day. Cats rarely get Lyme's and may not show any symptoms if they do. If your cat has a fever, joint pain, or loss of appetite, your vet may use antibiotics to avoid more serious complications.

The symptoms that dogs exhibit-which can be a sign of Lyme's-are numerous, including joint pain or swelling, lameness, lethargy, fever, decreased appetite, increased thirst and urination, diarrhea and vomiting. Vets today easily identify the disease. They also have prophylactic medicines such as Bravecto, NexGard and Simparica Trio. I mostly use monthly Frontline or AvantiX. I also spray my yard with a pet safe flea and tick killing substance that easily attaches to the hose. It will come out as clear water when it is done. Repeat a few times during season.

Articles are also on my Facebook page, Patricia Robinson Nelson. I would love your comments. Email me at patsyrob1@gmail.com with concerns. THANK YOU!

HOROSCOPE

JUNE 25 - JULY 1, 2026

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)

You may realize that pushing harder is not the same as moving forward. This week asks you to notice where effort has become habit instead of progress. A small shift in approach could open more doors than force ever will.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)

Something familiar may no longer fit the version of you that is quietly emerging. Instead of holding onto comfort out of routine, consider what growth is asking of you now. Stability sometimes means knowing when to outgrow old patterns.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

An unexpected conversation could leave you thinking differently about a situation you thought you understood. Listen more closely than usual before reacting. The answer you need may be hidden in what is not being directly said.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

Your energy feels more valuable this week, so be selective about where it goes. Not every obligation deserves the same emotional investment. Protecting your peace may require saying no without offering a lengthy explanation.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

You may feel pressure to prove yourself, but the strongest statement you can make right now is consistency. Focus less on recognition and more on building momentum behind the scenes. Quiet discipline creates lasting results.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)

A situation you have been overanalyzing may begin to feel simpler once you stop searching for the perfect answer. Trust what already makes sense instead of creating unnecessary complications. Progress often begins when overthinking ends.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

Someone around you may be revealing their priorities more clearly than before. Watch actions instead of becoming distracted by promises or mixed signals. This week favors honest observations over assumptions about what you hope to hear.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)

You may be feeling the urge to reclaim control over something that has felt uncertain lately. The best next move is not always immediate action, but deciding what no longer deserves your focus. Releasing distraction creates power.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

A new possibility may appear exciting, but patience will serve you better than speed. Give yourself time to understand what comes with the opportunity before jumping ahead. Freedom feels better when built on a solid decision.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.-Jan. 20)

Your attention may be divided between responsibility and something personal you have been neglecting. This week encourages balance instead of constant productivity. Taking care of yourself now may actually strengthen everything else on your plate.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)

A perspective you have been holding onto may be ready for an update. Stay open to changing your mind if new information shifts the bigger picture. Growth often begins when you allow yourself to see differently.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

Your intuition feels sharp this week, but emotions may be coloring the message. Before acting on instinct alone, pause long enough to separate feeling from fact. Clarity arrives when sensitivity and logic work together.

*This restaurant deserves five stars all around!
The service was great. The atmosphere is quaint.
But the food is definitely spot on. Everything from the appetizers right through to the dessert was amazing. No complaints had by anyone at the dinner table, and we went with a big group.
I would definitely recommend if you're looking for a more luxurious meal.*

CHEF CHIP'S WILD GAME AND SEAFOOD RECIPE

CRISPY FLOUNDER W/ CAPER BROWN BUTTER

INGREDIENTS:

- 2 Nice Flounder Fillets Skin On, Scaled & Deboned
- 3/4 Cup All-Purpose Flour
- 1/2 Cup Clarified Butter
- 1 TBS. Capers
- 2 TBS. Whole Unsalted Butter
- 1/2 tsp. Fresh Squeezed Lemon Juice
- 1 tsp. Fresh Chopped Parsley
- Kosher Salt & Fresh Cracked Black Pepper To Taste

PREPARATION:
Rinse Capers under cold water. Drain Capers off & set aside. Heat half the clarified Butter in a sauté pan over medium high heat. Season fillets with salt & pepper & dredge them into flour. Remove fillets from flour & shake off excess. Place into hot butter skin side down. Allow the skin to get good & crispy. Do not touch the fish until the edges start to pull away from the pan. After the skin is crispy, flip the fish & add the remaining clarified butter. Continue cooking until fish is cooked through. Remove fish to a plate. Place pan back on medium high heat & add whole butter. Allow butter to turn hazelnut color. Remove from heat & immediately add capers, lemon juice & parsley. Pour over the fish & serve with your favorite sides. Enjoy!

HOT SUMMER SHINE FOR DARK COLORED VEHICLES, PT 3

Use a Natural Wax

To lock in the rich gloss, use a high-quality wax or paint sealant. Carnauba wax delivers a warm and deep shine that enhances dark colors, while ceramic-based sealants offer longer-lasting protection in hot weather conditions.

"A wax with carnauba is often considered to offer warmth to the paint," said Dvorak. "It is a safe choice."

How do you know the wax protection is wearing off?

"When the paint starts to lose its gloss and becomes harder to maintain, that's a sign your wax protection is wearing thin.

Another clue is increased friction—if your wash mitt or drying towel starts to drag across the surface instead of gliding smoothly, it's time to reapply protection."

Tips for Old Dark Colored Cars

Dvorak shares further tips for restoring the shine of older dark-colored vehicles with faded paint or surface imperfections:

Wash/dry.

Clay if necessary to remove contaminants that you see or feel.

Perform a polish paint correction process to make the paint look its best.

Protect the paint with a wax, ceramic or ceramic wax.

Maintain protection with a quick mist wipe-and-buff- spray product with every wash.

Seek advice from the tech support department of your favorite car care brand.
