HOROSCOPE

JANUARY 18 - JANUARY 24, 2024

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 20)
This week, Aries, your focus on career and long-term goals is heightened by Capricorn's influence. You're driven to achieve, but remember to balance ambition with the innovative energies of Aquarius that are on the horizon. The First Quarter Moon in Aries mid-week pushes you to take decisive actions towards your aspirations.

TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)
Taurus, as Jupiter transits through your sign, you feel a surge of optimism and growth in personal development. The transition from Capricorn to Aquarius later in the week encourages you to broaden your horizons and embrace new ideas. The Taurus Moon towards the weekend grounds you in practical matters.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)
Gemini, you're inspired to delve deeper into intellectual pursuits this week. The Capricorn energy emphasizes structured learning, while Aquarius's impending arrival sparks your curiosity for unconventional knowledge. The Gemini Moon over the weekend aligns with your natural inquisitiveness.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)
Relationships and partnerships come into focus, Cancer. The Capricorn Sun highlights your need for security in relationships, but as it moves into Aquarius, expect a shift towards seeking intellectual connections and shared visions for the future.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)
Leo, your attention is on balancing personal goals with responsibilities. As the Sun moves into Aquarius, you'll feel a pull towards community involvement and humanitarian causes. This week challenges you to find harmony between your individuality and contributions to the larger society.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 23)
Health and daily routines are your focus, Virgo. Capricorn's influence has you setting up structured health goals, but don't lose sight of Aquarius's creative approach to wellness. The Moon's transition suggests incorporating innovative methods into your routines.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)
Libra, this week is about finding joy and creativity within structure. The Capricorn Sun has you appreciating the beauty of order, but Aquarius's arrival invites you to experiment with new forms of expression. Balancing these energies leads to fulfilling creative endeavors.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22)
For Scorpio, family and home life are in the spotlight. Capricorn's influence urges you to solidify home structures, while Aquarius encourages you to embrace changes in family dynamics. This week is about blending tradition with innovation in your personal life.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)
Sagittarius, this week is a blend of adventure and responsibility. While Capricorn's influence keeps you grounded, Aquarius's imminent arrival ignites your desire for new experiences. Your challenge is to find a balance between fulfilling your responsibilities and exploring new horizons.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.- Jan. 20)
Capricorn, as the Sun spends its last days in your sign, focus on finalizing projects and setting new goals. With the Sun's shift into Aquarius, prepare to embrace a more innovative approach in both personal and professional life. This week calls for a balance between tradition and modernity.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)
Aquarius, this week is significant for you as the Sun enters your sign. It's a time of renewal and fresh starts. Embrace your unique qualities and prepare to lead with your innovative ideas. The cosmic energy supports your endeavors in bringing positive changes.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)
Pisces, with Saturn in your sign, you're feeling more grounded and responsible. As the week progresses and the Sun enters Aquarius, focus on your spiritual growth and humanitarian goals. Your intuition is heightened, guiding you towards fulfilling your higher purpose.

Recipe of the Week

by Chef Chip

GRILLED VENISON TENDERLOIN W/ SPICY CHIPOTLE SAUCE

INGREDIENTS:

- 1 Trimmed Venison Tenderloin
- 1 Tbsp Olive Oil
- Kosher Salt & Fresh Cracked Black Pepper to Taste

For Garnish:
• Fresh Cilantro Leaves

For Sauce:

- 3 Tbsp Canned Chipotle Peppers in Adobo Sauce
- 1 Tbsp Tomato Paste
- 1/4 cup Rough Chopped White Onion
- 1 Clove of Garlic
- 1/8 tsp Ground Cumin
- 1/2 tsp Smoked Paprika
- 2 Tbsp Cider Vinegar
- 1/2 tsp Lime Juice
- 1 Tbsp Honey
- Kosher Salt to Taste

PREPARATION:

Prepare the sauce ahead of time. Place all the sauce ingredients into a food processor. Pulse on high until smooth. Refrigerate until ready to use. Preheat grill to medium high heat. Rub the tenderloin w/ oil. Season w/ salt & pepper. Spray preheated grill w/ nonstick spray. Place tenderloin on grill. Cook to medium rare, grilling all sides. Allow meat to rest for at least 5 minutes before slicing. After you slice the meat, you can fan it out & pour the sauce over the top. Garnish w/ cilantro leaves. Hint: You can serve this chilled or room temperature. I like to let the sauce refrigerate for at least eight hours before use. This recipe works well w/ any red meat as well as poultry & many other items.

WINTER SAFETY CHECKLIST: SEE OUR JANUARY TIPS

A comprehensive winter inspection ensures that all aspects of your vehicle are in top condition for the winter season, helping you avoid accidents, breakdowns, and costly issues later. Taking these precautions ensures your vehicle is prepared to handle the challenges of winter driving effectively.

Winter's harsh weather can bring challenging driving conditions with rain, ice, sleet, and snow covering roads and highways. Your tires are the only point of contact between your vehicle and the road.

In winter, when road conditions can be unpredictable, having good tires in optimal condition is non-negotiable. They are your best protection against accidents, making it easier to navigate safely, brake effectively, and maintain stability on the road.

Regularly checking the battery, ensuring proper antifreeze levels, and confirming the functionality of heating systems are all crucial components of January car care:

1. Battery Inspection: Avoid the nightmare of a dead battery during a winter storm by checking its voltage. Cold temperatures demand more power to start your car, and winter conditions can accelerate the decline of a weakening battery. Replace batteries older than three years and assess the charging system alongside routine checks.

2. Coolant and Antifreeze Levels: Monitor your vehicle's coolant or antifreeze levels, a critical aspect of winter maintenance. Cold weather can cause fluids to thicken, potentially affecting your vehicle's performance. Adhering to your car's maintenance schedule, flush and refill the coolant system. If neglected, consider this as an opportune time for a flush and refill.

3. Oil Check: Prioritize checking your oil, even if it is not due for a change. Since oil is a fluid, its examination is vital in winter. In harsh winter climates, contemplate switching to synthetic oil for better resilience to colder temperatures and improved fuel efficiency. Importantly, once changed, stick with synthetic oil, as switching back and forth is not recommended.

4. Wiper Blade Maintenance: Ensure your wiper blades are in top condition for optimal visibility during winter driving. Snow, sleet, mud, and dirt can obstruct your windshield, posing potential hazards. Wiper blades typically last about a year, but you can assess their functionality by using them. Pop up your wipers before a snow or ice storm and turn them off when parking to preserve the wiper motor's life.

5. Winter Maintenance Inspection: Prioritize your vehicle's routine maintenance by scheduling a winter maintenance inspection with a local car care professional.

MORE ABOUT PRO PLAN AND QUESTIONABLE PET FOOD INGREDIENTS

Submitted by Patsy Nelson
from The Wagging Tail

Immediately after my last article went into publication, I got an email from one company's representative with whom we deal-but not in commercial food products. This email was sent to all their retailers pertaining to the "rumors" about sick and dying pets who ate Pro Plan. Purina denied these rumors to be relevant, even suggesting some kind of conspiracy against the company. Even if they are rumors, which have not been proven yet, it does not negate the poor ingredients used, and the misrepresentation in their ads and packaging, beguiling customers into erroneous conceptions of noble, clean (not full of crap), healthy pet food.

The bag of food pictured in the article last week was Purina Dog Chow on which there is a plate of sliced chicken, yet the bag only includes some "chicken flavor." And they state in their full-page ad in Reader's Digest that the food (more like feed) has high-quality protein, no fillers and is 100% complete nutrition. The truth is that gluten and grain-based ingredients like rice, corn, wheat, and soy and vegetable by-products are fillers which means that they don't add any nutritional value but increase the volume/bulk of the bag of food. Meat By-products are not used in better quality pet food, but they can provide protein in the form of lungs, kidneys, liver, brains, and fatty tissue. If an ingredient panel on a bag of food starts with a protein like chicken, it must contain 95 percent of chicken (or salmon etc.) This main product must be at least 70% of the total products when counting the added water. Any meat meal is made up of remaining animal parts like extra meat, connective tissue, and offal (internal organs) and cooked at high temperatures before being made into a protein-packed powder, then made into meal.

(According to JustFoodForDogs.) Corn and wheat can lead to allergies and obesity (becoming sugar.) Soy is a filler "responsible for a huge portion of pet allergies that can result in sneezing, itching, swelling, anaphylactic shock, and death." (From another source on fillers.) The ingredients in Pro Plan chicken formula includes Rice, Whole grain wheat, Poultry by-product meal, Corn gluten meal, Whole grain corn, Wheat bran-all within the first seven ingredients. The top three to avoid when feeding your dogs (or cats) are corn, wheat, and soy. According to my google quest, PetSmart charges $69.48 for a 35lb bag of Pro Plan Adult Chicken formula, which contains all these negative fillers and allergen producers. We sell Fromm Adult Gold Chicken (30 lbs. of all good ingredients by a five-generation family-owned Wisconsin company.) They don't advertise so they don't spend money on anything but making great dog and cat food. (The same goes for the other foods we sell.) The ingredients do not have any corn, wheat, soy or by-products, or anything else that is not good quality pet food. And this grain-inclusive food, not like the Pro Plan mentioned above, has flaxseed, menhaden fish meal, Wisconsin cheese, duck, lamb, carrots, sweet potatoes, and probiotics. The price is $52.99, more than fifteen dollars less, and we track your purchases, so your 13th bag is free. The Fromm Company has (and we carry) over 40 varieties in just cat and dog and in various sizes. And all our food, any brand, is 100% guaranteed that your pet will love it and thrive, or your money back.

AGAIN, PLEASE PROTECT YOUR PET FROM CHILLY RAIN, WINDS, SNOW AND TEMPERATURES (EVEN IF IT IS COOL IN YOUR HOUSE.) IF YOU COVER UP, YOUR DOG SHOULD BE COVERED-UP. A HOUSE DOG DOES NOT GROW A WINTER COAT. YOU NEED TO BE SMART. Dogs suffer from joint pain and in cold temperatures the joint fluid may thicken creating more pain and the onset of or degree of arthritis.

Thank you for helping a small business stay in business. Check out our on-premises cat shelter.
