CHEF CHIP'S WILD GAME AND SEAFOOD RECIPE

CHERRY MAPLE VENISON JERKY

INGREDIENTS:

- 3 - 4 LBS. 1/8 inch Sliced Venison Hind Quarter
- 2/3 Cup Low Sodium Soy Sauce
- 1/4 Cup Worcestershire Sauce
- 2 TBS. Liquid Smoke
- 1/2 Cup Maple Syrup
- 1 Can Cherry Pie Filling
- 1/3 Cup Concentrated Cherry Juice
- 1 tsp. Powdered Ginger
- 1 TBS. Onion Powder
- 1/2 tsp. Powdered Garlic
- 1 TBS. Apple Cider Vinegar
- 1/4 Cup Brown Sugar
- Fresh Cracked Black Pepper To taste

PREPARATION:

In a bowl, whisk all the ingredients together except the Venison. Place the Venison in a gallon air tight bag. Pour the marinade over the meat. Seal the bag & manipulate it with your hands while thoroughly coating the meat. Refrigerate for 72 hours. Manipulate the bag every 12 hours for about 2 minutes. This will ensure every piece of meat gets coated. Remove the Sliced meat to paper towels. Dry them before dehydrating or smoking. Preheat oven to 190°. Place Venison slices on cooling racks. Place the racks directly onto oven rack. Flip the meat half way through the cooking process. The jerky should be pliable & cooked through when you remove it. Immediately place the warm jerky in an air tight bag. The jerky will come out softer by doing this. Seal & store in the refrigerator or freezer. Enjoy!

Hint: You can also use a dehydrator or smoker. If using a smoker, I would omit the liquid smoke & use a combination of cherry wood & Hickory. It's archery season, get your jerky from God's grocery store!

HOROSCOPE

OCTOBER 16 - OCTOBER 22, 2025

ARIES (Mar. 21- April 20)

Eclipse energy stirs something deep this week - expect a shift around control, intimacy, or shared power. You may feel an urge to protect your independence, but true strength comes from trust. Let go of what you've been white-knuckling. Surrender can be bold, too.

TAURUS (Apr. 21- May 21)

Relationships are center stage as the solar eclipse activates your partnership zone. Something may break open to reveal what's working - and what's not. Be honest about your needs, even if it rocks the boat. Real connection is built on real truth.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21)

This week highlights your habits, health, and the systems that keep you afloat - or don't. An eclipse shake-up may push you to reprioritize how you manage your time, body, or stress. What feels chaotic now is asking to be restructured. Let simplicity be your new standard.

CANCER (June 22-July 22)

This week calls for creative courage. A project, romance, or personal expression could reach a turning point - and you're being nudged to take yourself more seriously. You don't need permission to shine. Say yes to joy, even if it's a little scary.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22)

Eclipse energy hits your home and emotional foundation - something is shifting behind the scenes. You may feel the need to withdraw, move, or reconnect with your roots in a new way. This is a clearing, not a crisis. Make room for the version of you that feels most at home.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 -Sept. 23)

Conversations carry extra weight this week, and something left unsaid may come to the surface. Eclipse energy could reveal a hidden truth, a miscommunication, or a new perspective. Don't rush to respond - listen first. What you learn now changes how you move forward.

LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)

You're in the eclipse spotlight, and it's time to redefine what you truly value—about yourself, your relationships, and your resources. This isn't about aesthetics; it's about alignment. Release outdated attachments and reclaim your worth. You don't need to prove anything - just live it.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)

A powerful solar eclipse in your sign signals a major personal reboot. Identity, self-image, and purpose are all on the table. You're not who you were - and that's a good thing. Embrace the transformation, even if it means burning a few bridges to light your way.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21)

You're feeling things you can't quite name - and that's okay. This eclipse is happening in your hidden house of rest and release, encouraging you to surrender, reflect, and recharge. Let something end quietly so something better can begin. Trust the stillness.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.- Jan. 20)

Community shifts are brewing, and you may find yourself stepping into or stepping away from certain circles. This week's eclipse shakes your social foundations, asking where you truly belong. Let go of performative alliances. Your future is waiting - make room for it.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 -Feb. 19)

All eyes are on your public life as the eclipse highlights your career zone. A leadership moment, big decision, or unexpected pivot could define your next steps. Own your power, even if it disrupts the status quo. You didn't come here to play small.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20)

You're feeling the call to grow - and this week's eclipse brings an opportunity to expand beyond what's comfortable. Whether it's a mindset, belief, or literal travel plan, something is opening. Don't talk yourself out of the leap. You're ready to stretch.

TURN SHORTER DAYS INTO BRIGHT ADVENTURE THIS AUTUMN

EXTRACTED FROM ORIGINAL ARTICLE TO FIT, (CREDIT SENSIBLEDRIVER.COM)

1. Headlights and Visibility: Headlights take a beating from pebbles and road debris. Proper maintenance ensures a clear, bright view.
- Alignment: Rough roads and potholes can knock headlights out of position. Check alignment by aiming them at a wall or garage door.
- Lens Condition: Yellowed, cloudy, or cracked lenses reduce brightness—consider restoration or replacement.
- Bulbs: Halogen bulbs can lose up to 20% brightness within two years. Replace dim bulbs for safer night driving.
- Condensation: Cracks can let moisture in, dulling the beam. Inspect for summer damage.

HOW TO PROTECT YOURSELF AND YOUR DOGS AGAINST DOG-DOG AGGRESSION

Submitted By
Patsy Nelson

A few days ago, Zoey started a fight with Ebby who is double her size. It happened right in front of Bob and me, and our instinct was to yell and try to push them from each other with our legs. I had a neighbor who attempted that with her two Blue Healers, and she looked like she had been in a major car accident. The healers, in their frenzy, took her on as well. She had to put the more aggressive one down. Zoey and Ebby have lived together for four years and maybe once a year they have had a fight but never shed any blood. Ebby has not wanted to play since her knee operation last December and her ACL repairment in July, but yesterday it was like old times. Ebby must finally be feeling confident with her leg. (And the 3 new-now a year- neighbor dogs that inadvertently caused her injuries will be moving; there is a sale sign on the property they were renting.) Figures!

*Stay calm and reduce the impulse to scream or yell, especially when you notice behavior negatively escalating. Unfortunately, with Zoey and Ebby, it happened too fast. The article I read suggested keeping a plywood board handy that can be inserted downward from above to separate the dogs. Screwing handles at both ends will make it more controllable. I told Bob after reading this we should have used our wood and mesh doggy door that was leaning against the wall. It is just hard to think straight when aggression is sudden.

*If you have dogs that tend to be aggressive toward each other on a regular basis, it may be a health issue for at least one of them. Feeling unwell can cause stress like low thyroid levels or joint pain. Get a wellness examination.

*Keeping dogs exercised and tired eliminates the possibility of playing becoming too rough. If you notice that, call for a time out and restrict their interaction until the dogs calm down-tethers, a playpen, or gated off room. Or take them out for a walk or some ball or frisbee catching. (Unfortunately, I have not been walking our dogs because the few times I did during late recovery, Ebby began limping, even short walks.)

*Developing a relationship with each dog, separate from the others, may also help to overcome negative interactions. *Sometimes, though it may be contrary thinking, let the dogs work out their problem if it is minor squabbling. *Dogs can take advantage of other weaker, more vulnerable members of the pack. They need protection. *Sometimes drugs may help with aggression (get your vet's advice.) Because both of my dogs coincidentally have Addison's Disease, and joint issues, they get a dose of CBD oil (for pets) at dinnertime. CBD helps in other ways too.

*Be realistic, like my neighbor with the blue healers. Euthanasia may be the best for a dog that cannot be managed to the extent that the quality of life for both humans and the other pets in the home has become unbearable. Or you could choose to rehome the pets that are not the problem and keep the problem dog with you. The goal is to find peace.
