MORE TRICKS THAT PET FOOD COMPANIES USE TO TRICK US CONSUMERS

Submitted By Patsy Nelson
from The Wagging Tail

If you read my article from two weeks ago this is a continuation. All my recent articles are available on my reinstated Face book page, Patricia Robinson-Nelson. Or I can send a copy to your email by contacting me at patsyrob1@gmail.com. If there is some issue your pet is having and you would like my input, send me an email. I would love to hear from my customers or readers anytime. Seeing my customers, some for more than thirty years, was a constant joy. Some ways that food companies trick us were mentioned in a recent email from Dog Food Advisor and I included them in the last article on the topic. In addition to those cited earlier are a few others that I will list below.

Misleading Graphics. Cans and bags have pictures of succulent meats, fruits, and vegetables as if they were really used in the recipe in any quantitative amount. As I have been stressing for years, it is necessary to check the ingredient panel on all foods consumed by us and our pets. Whatever ingredient is in the food with the greatest amount or weight will be listed as the first ingredient and that continues with the list. Usually, you can assume that what the manufacturers have impressed you with the ad hype, is very far down the list. Dog Food Advisor cites an expert who says that a good rule of thumb is that any food ingredient that follows SALT is reliably less than 1% of what is in the recipe.

Ingredient Splitting. This is sneaky. Dog Food Advisor uses the example of a dog food that has chicken, potatoes, and rice in it, but they want to be able to list the chicken first. To do this, they must increase the number of ways they list potatoes and rice. What the label now says is, chicken, potatoes, white rice, potato flour, rice flour, and potato protein. Very sneaky. If the ingredients sound related as shown, then they most likely are.

Using Obscure Names. Most of us don't want to use products that have MSG (Monosodium Glutamate) nor do we want it in our pets' food. But if it is stated as hydrolyzed protein, autolyzed yeast, or soy extracts, we may not recognize it as another way of saying MSG. Phones come in handy when in a food store. Google if you are uncertain.

According to AAFCO Guidelines. A product listed as meat meal does not have to specify from whence it came. Rats? Euthanized animals? The only requirement is that it "does not contain any added blood, hair, hoof, horn, hide trimmings, manure, stomach and rumen-the first section of a multi-compartment stomach found in ruminants (like cattle, goats, and deer) contents except in such amounts as may occur unavoidably in good processing practices." And I always stress that if you want to trust the food you or your pets eat, stay away from any by-products.

Quote of the week: The reason a dog has so many friends is that he wags his tail instead of his tongue. (Anonymous)

Articles are also on my Facebook page, Patricia Robinson Nelson. I would love your comments. Email me at patsyrob1@gmail.com with concerns. THANK YOU!

HOROSCOPE

AUGUST 13 - 19, 2026

ARIES (March 21 - April 20)

A little patience will help you avoid rushing into a decision this week. An opportunity to make progress on something important arrives midweek. By the weekend, make time for something fun that lets you relax and recharge.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21)

A change of plans may work out better than expected. Stay flexible and don't be afraid to try a different approach. A casual conversation could lead to an idea that makes an every-day task easier.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)

Your social side is especially strong this week, making it a great time to reconnect with friends or make new plans. Someone's unexpected suggestion could turn into an enjoyable adventure. Follow your curiosity and see where it leads.

CANCER (June 22 - July 22)

A quieter pace helps you get your priorities in order. You'll feel better once you stop trying to handle everything at once. A small accomplishment this week gives you the motivation to tackle something you've been avoiding.

LEO (July 23 - August 22)

Your birthday season brings an extra boost of confidence, and others are taking notice. This is a good week to speak up about what you want. A compliment or unexpected bit of recognition could brighten your weekend.

VIRGO (August 23 - September 23)

A practical solution appears for a problem that's been taking up too much of your attention. Trust yourself instead of over-thinking every detail. By the weekend, you'll have more time to enjoy the things you've been putting off.

LIBRA (September 24 - October 23)

This week brings a chance to step outside your usual routine. Accepting an invitation or saying yes to a new experience could lead to a memorable moment. Keep your schedule flexible and leave room for a little spontaneity.

SCORPIO (October 24 - November 22)

Something you've been quietly working toward begins to gain momentum. Keep your plans to yourself until you're ready to share them. A little extra confidence helps you make a choice that puts you firmly back in control.

SAGITTARIUS (November 23 - December 21)

A change of scenery could be exactly what you need. Even a short trip, day out or new activity brings a welcome break from routine. Someone you meet along the way may have an interesting story or idea to share.

CAPRICORN (December 22 - January 20)

Don't let a busy schedule keep you from enjoying the progress you've made. This week rewards steady effort, but you also need time to recharge. A practical conversation could help clear up an issue that's been lingering.

AQUARIUS (January 21 - February 19)

You're ready to shake things up, and a small change could make a surprisingly big difference. Try approaching a familiar situation from a new angle. A friend may offer advice that gives you exactly the perspective you've been missing.

PISCES (February 20 - March 20)

Your instincts are especially sharp this week, so pay attention to those little feelings that tell you something is worth pursuing. A creative idea or unexpected invitation could add some excitement to an otherwise ordinary day.

NATIONAL SOFT ICE CREAM DAY - National Soft Ice Cream Day on August 19 gives us a tasty way to cool off on a hot summer day. Whether you prefer a bowl or cone, grab some soft serve and enjoy! The story of soft serve began in 1934, when ice cream truck owner Tom Carvel got a flat tire in Hartsdale, New York, over Memorial Day weekend. As his ice cream began melting, he pulled into a parking lot and sold the softened treat to passing vacationers. To his surprise, they loved it! Carvel saw an opportunity and began developing a way to serve soft ice cream from a permanent location. He patented a low-temperature ice cream machine and created a secret formula, then opened his first store in 1936 at the site of his breakdown. Soft serve quickly grew in popularity, much to the concern of the hard ice cream industry. Minnesota even passed a law requiring soft serve to be sold pre-packaged rather than from a machine. The law was eventually changed. (Star Tribune, Minneapolis, Minnesota, August 19, 1951)

*This restaurant deserves five stars all around!
The service was great. The atmosphere is quaint.
But the food is definitely spot on. Everything from the appetizers right through to the dessert was amazing. No complaints had by anyone at the dinner table, and we went with a big group.
I would definitely recommend if you're looking for a more luxurious meal.*

SCHOOL-READY MAINTENANCE AFTER SUMMER ROAD TRIPS, PART 1

Summer heat and driving places extra stress on your vehicle's engine and tires. Is your vehicle ready for the extra demands of back-to-school activities? "There is always a lot to do before school starts and making sure your vehicle is running efficiently should be at the top of that 'to-do' list," said Nathan Perrine, executive director of the Car Care Council.

According to a survey conducted by the Car Care Council, eight out of 10 vehicles fail at least one component of a standard inspection. That's one reason Perrine put together the council's "Five Point Check-Up," a maintenance and safety guide for parents and college students who rely on their vehicle for transportation. Perrine recommends a pre-fall vehicle check-up and offers the following list of suggestions:

Tires and Wheels - August is filled with last-minute family road trips before Labor Day and preparations for the back-to-school season. A tire and wheel inspection prep your vehicle for long-distance travel and months of school drop-offs.

- Check tire pressure: Summer heat and fluctuating temperatures affect tire pressure. Inflate tires to recommended specifications.
- Inspect tread wear: Many highway miles and heavy load can cause tire wear. Replace tires with significant tread wear.
- Wheel alignment: If your vehicle pulls to one side or the steering wheel is off-center have the alignment checked and corrected to prevent premature tire wear.

Brake Performance - Summer traffic, mountain roads and a fully loaded vehicle puts added strain on your vehicle braking system. Before daily school commutes, ensure your brakes are ready to handle frequent stops around school zones and busy intersections.

- Inspect brake pads: Replace worn brake pads for dependable stopping power.
- Check brake fluid: Ensure the brake fluid is clean and at the recommended level for reliable braking performance.
- Listen for unusual noises: Squealing or grinding sounds may indicate worn brake components that require attention.

Air Conditioning - Even with summer winding down, hot August afternoons can continue well into September in many regions of North America. A well-functioning air conditioning system is crucial for comfort and reduces driver fatigue during school runs.

- Confirm cooling performance: Make sure the a/c delivers cold air consistently.
- Replace the cabin air filter: A clean filter improves airflow and reduces contaminants inside the vehicle.
- Investigate unusual odors: Musty smells from the vents may indicate mold, mildew or debris in the ventilation system.

A Slice of WILDWOOD History

Back in the 1960s, when the boardwalk lights stayed on late and the music never seemed to stop, Wildwood was coming alive in a whole new way.

- ★ The sounds of rock & roll filled the air, with legends like Bobby Rydell, Chubby Checker, Bill Haley & His Comets, The Drifters and many others, turning this town into one of the hottest spots on the East Coast.

Right in the middle of it all, Al and Anna Martino made their way from New York to Wildwood with a dream and the kind of work ethic that built something special.

★ THAT DREAM BECAME ★ AL THE STEAK KING

As Wildwood thrived, so did Al's place. What started as a simple spot for great food quickly became part of the rhythm of Wildwood.

- ★ After a day on the beach,
- ★ a night on the rides,
- ★ or dancing to the music that
- ★ defined a generation...

...it was always time for Al the Steak King!

The Martino family kept the grills hot and the good times going, serving up cheesesteaks, pizza, and memories that became part of summer for so many.

Then came Jon.

Taking the reins and running both the boardwalk location and the 25th & New Jersey Avenue spot, Jon brought a whole new energy, especially after dark.

Late nights in Wildwood had a rhythm, and if you were there, you remember it...

- ★ The hum of the streets.
- ★ The glow of the lights.
- ★ And those red delivery vans rolling through town bringing hot food straight to your door when nothing else was open.

For a lot of people, that was Wildwood.

Like many great shore stories, things eventually took a pause, but the music, the memories, and the feeling never faded.

BECAUSE IN WILDWOOD,
THE GOOD TIMES DON'T DISAPPEAR...
THEY JUST WAIT FOR THE RIGHT MOMENT TO RETURN.
AND THAT MOMENT IS NOW!

With Jon leading the way once again, Al the STK & Pizza King begins its next chapter, bringing back the classic flavors you remember, introducing new favorites you'll love, and yes...

the red delivery vans are rolling once again.

★ Welcome back to Al's ★

WHERE GREAT FOOD, GOOD TIMES, AND LASTING MEMORIES COME TOGETHER!
